National Aboriginal Day Celebrations to feature award-winning Métis fiddler

Charlottetown PE, --- June 19, 2015

Award-winning Métis fiddler Alex Lamoureux will be the featured performer at National Aboriginal Day celebrations on Lennox Island, Saturday, June 20.

National Aboriginal Day is a day set aside to explore and celebrate the cultural traditions of Canada's Aboriginal peoples. On Prince Edward Island, we showcase and celebrate the heritage and culture of the Island's Indigenous people, the Mi'kmaq.

This year is the 11th annual National Aboriginal Day celebration hosted by the Mi'kmaq Confederacy of PEI. This free, family friendly event is open to the public and, for the first time, is being held on Lennox Island First Nation!

In addition to Mr. Lamoureux, the event will showcase traditional Mi'kmaq drumming, singing and dancing. There will be games, give-a-ways, food and fun.

Date: Saturday, June 20st, 2015

Time: 12:00pm – 3:30pm

Location: Cultural Centre Stage Area, 24 Eagle Feather Trail, Lennox Island, PE

Funding for this event is provided by the Canadian Heritage's Celebrate Canada program.
