Mi'kmaq Land Use Maps

Mi'kmaq Land Use Project

Since its inception in 2004, the Mi'kmaq Land Use project has been an important initiative in preserving and celebrating Indigenous knowledge regarding the land and waters of Epekwitk (PEI).

Our Mi'kmaq Land Use Interviewer and Field Researcher delicately unravels the threads of living memory including hunting grounds, fishing spots, camping sites, and other cultural landmarks. Ensuring that these stories are gathered and preserved for future generations, this invaluable project contributes to science and research initiatives related to resource management.

Join us in this journey of discovery and preservation by participating in an interview, and you'll be entered into our monthly draw for a $100 gift card of choice.

PRESERVE YOUR STORIES FOR FUTURE GENERATIONS

Fish Harvest

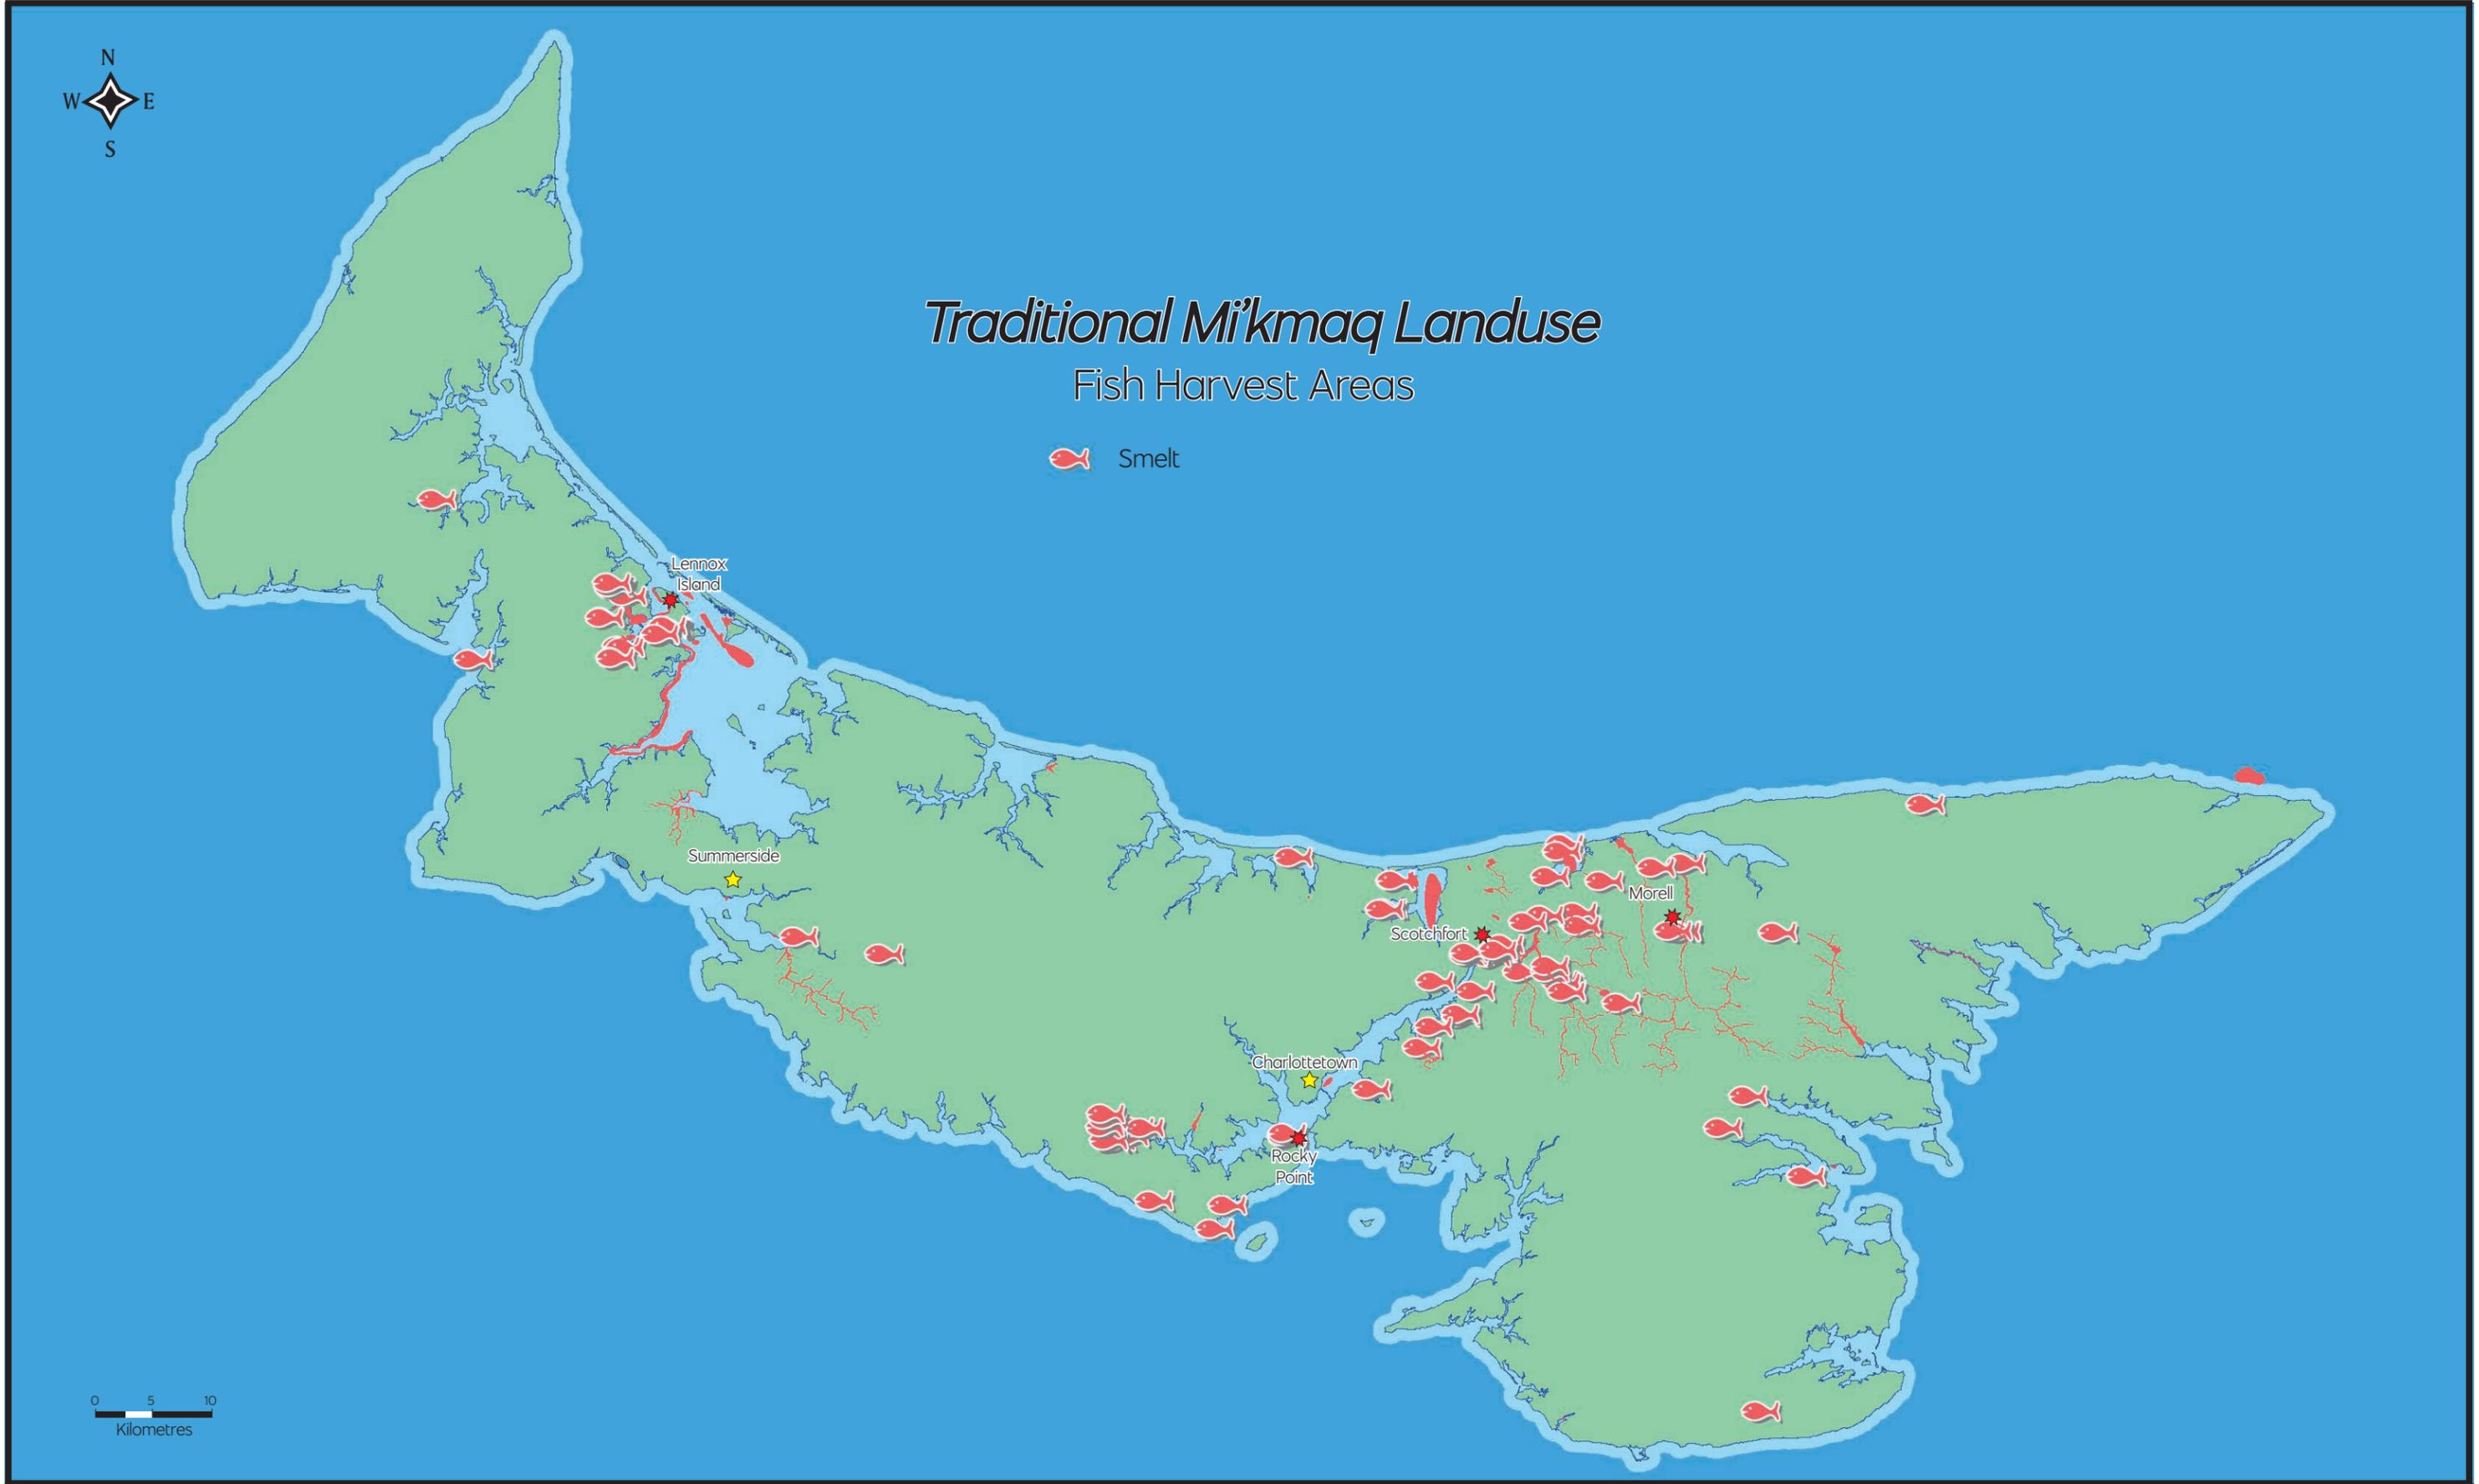

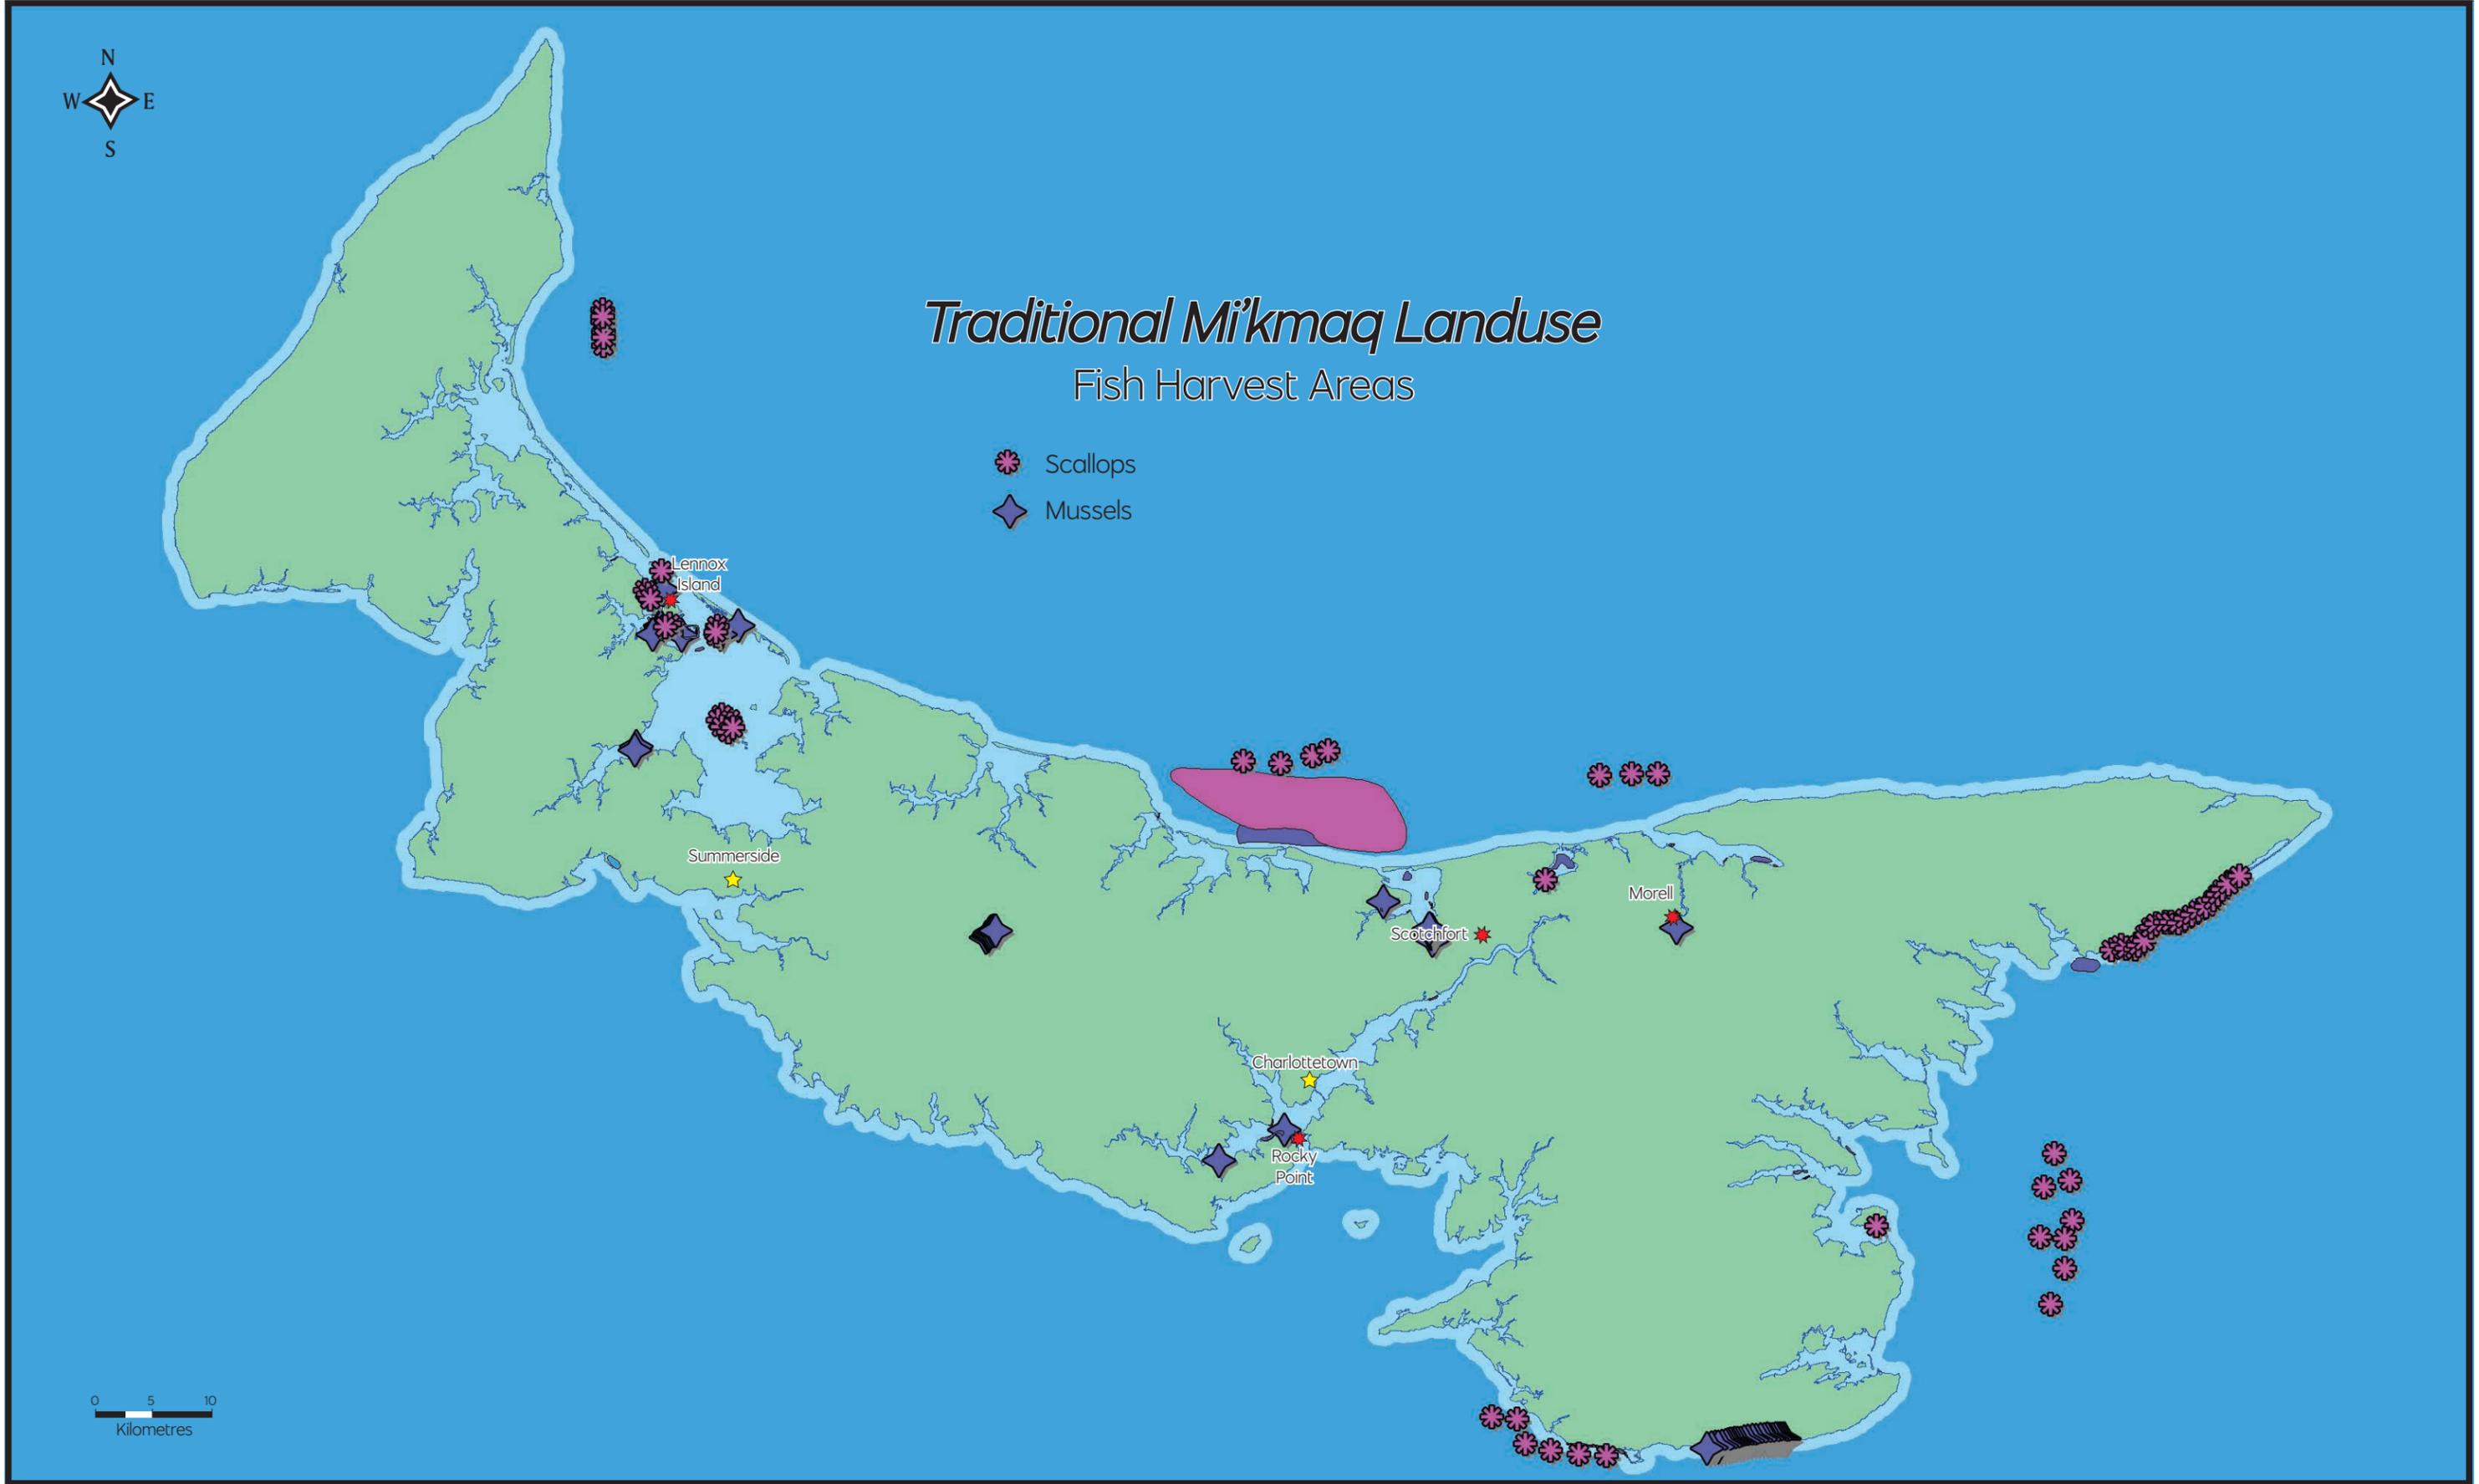

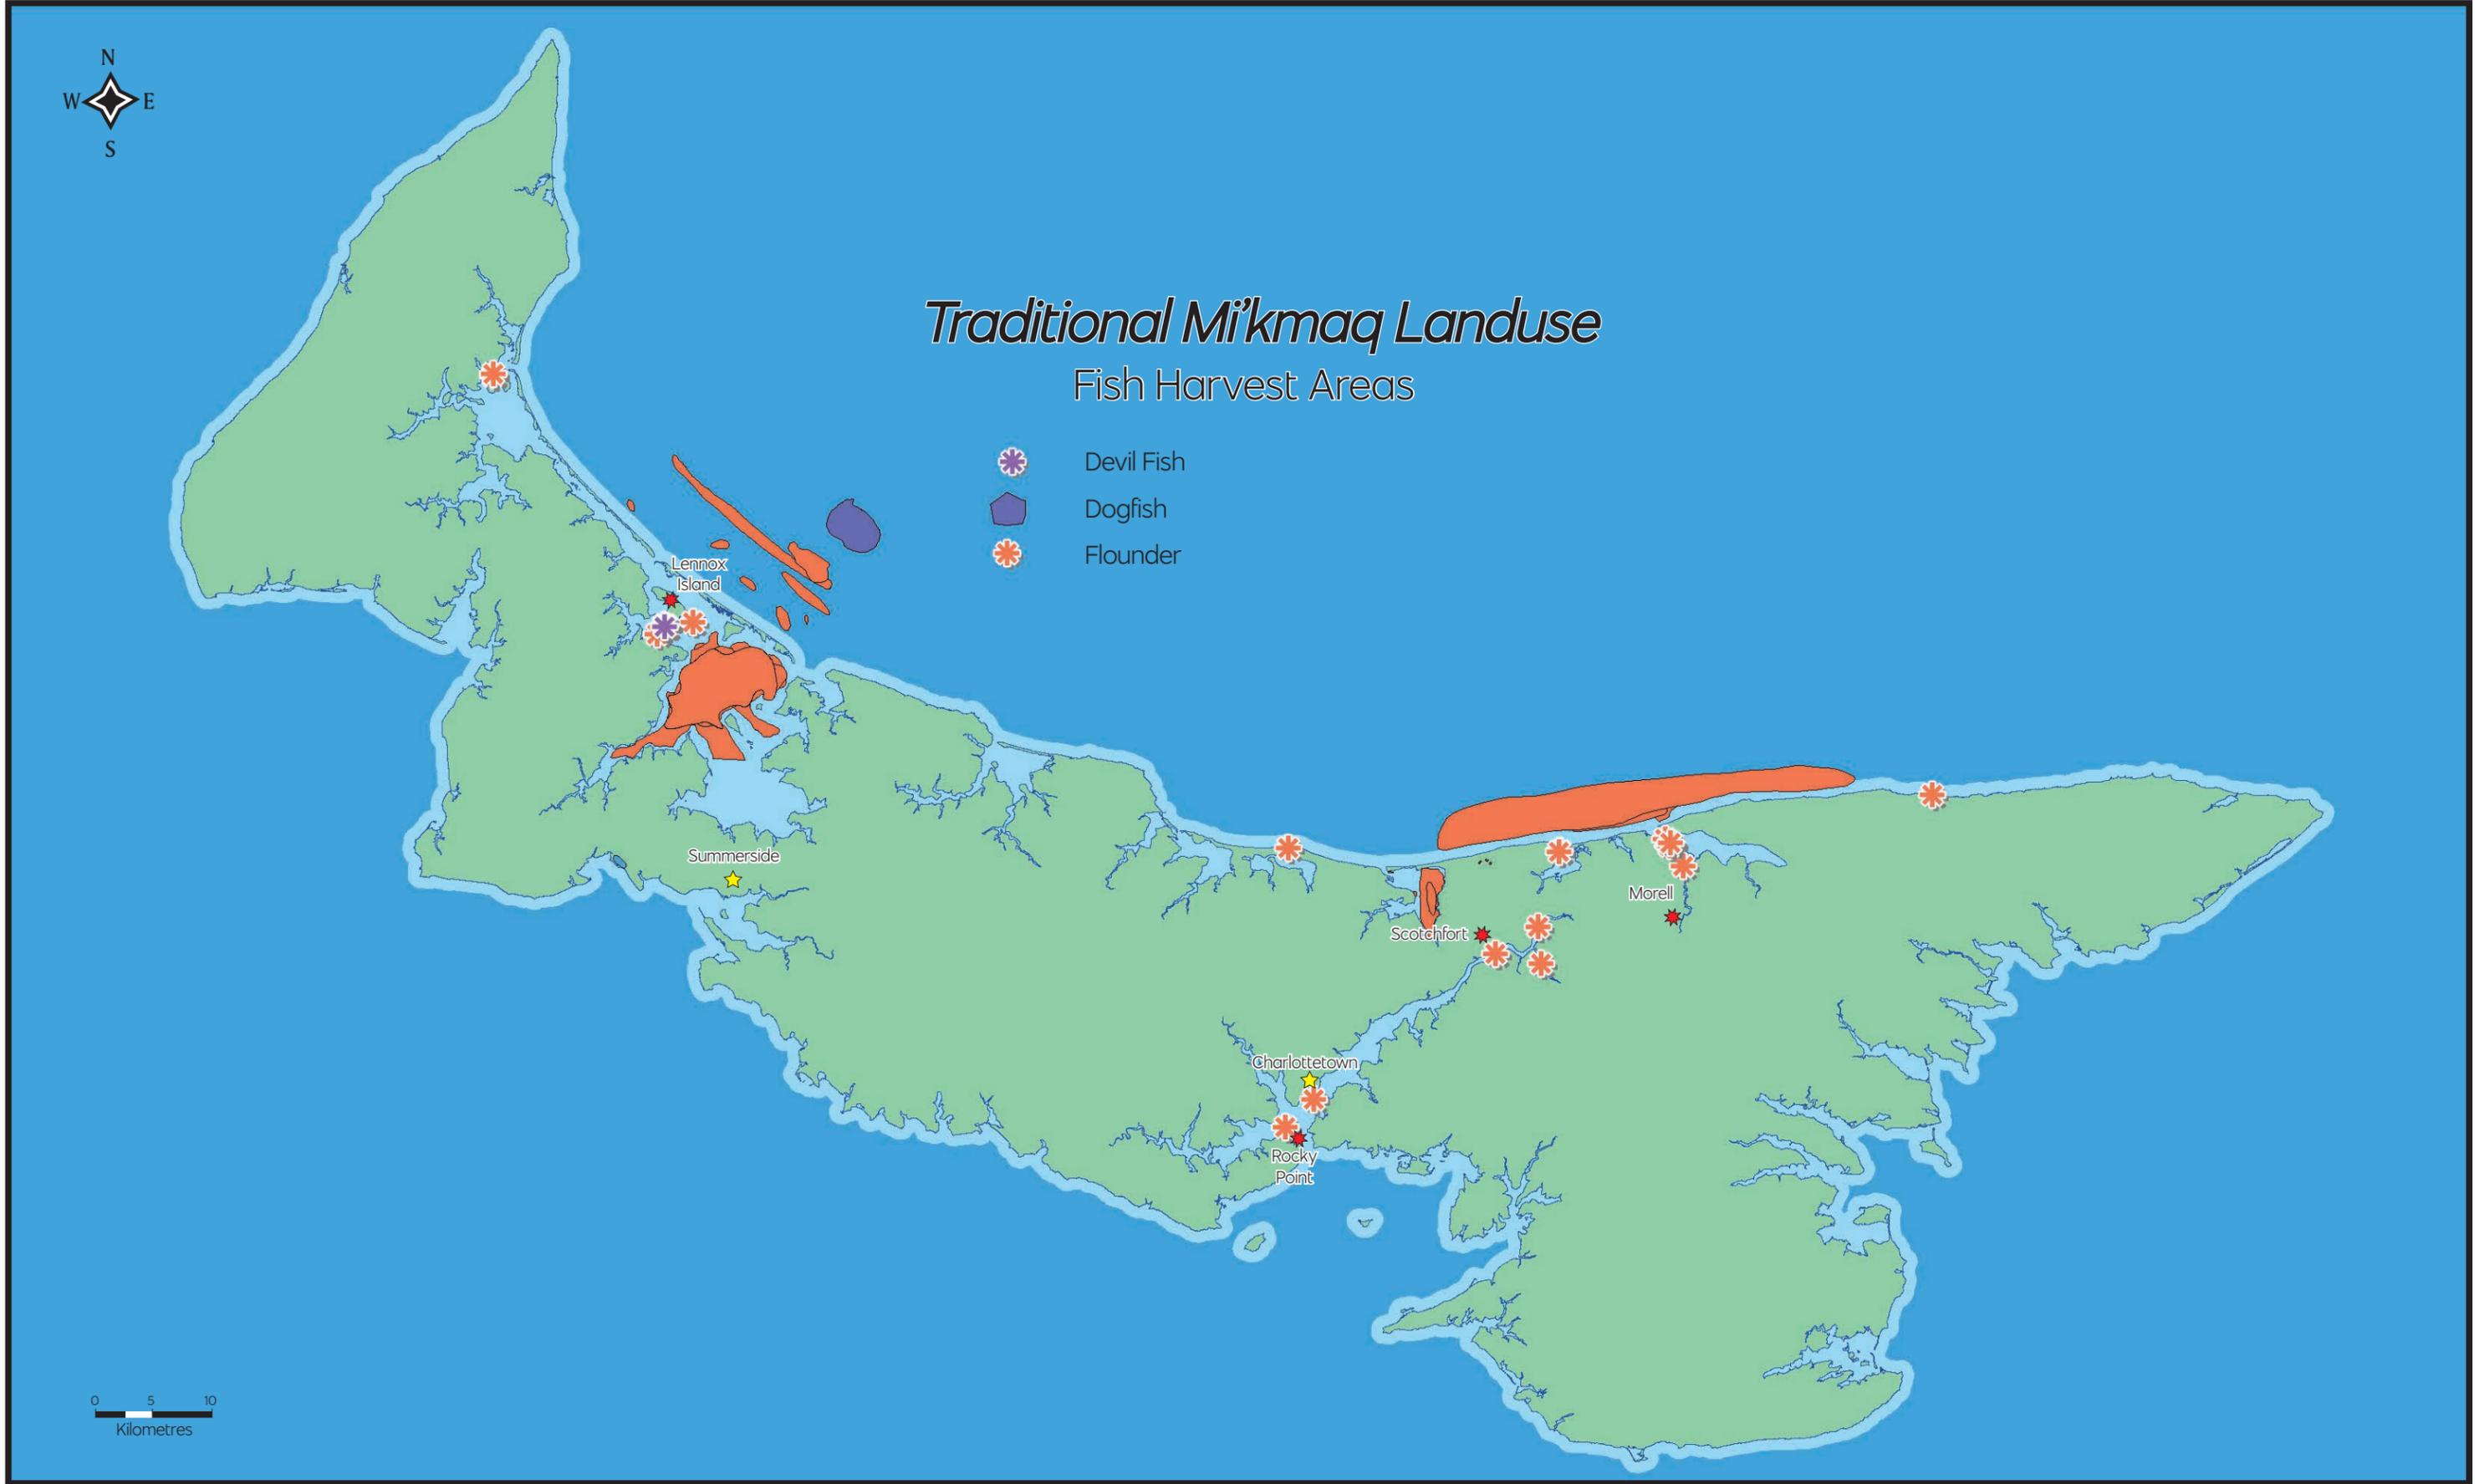

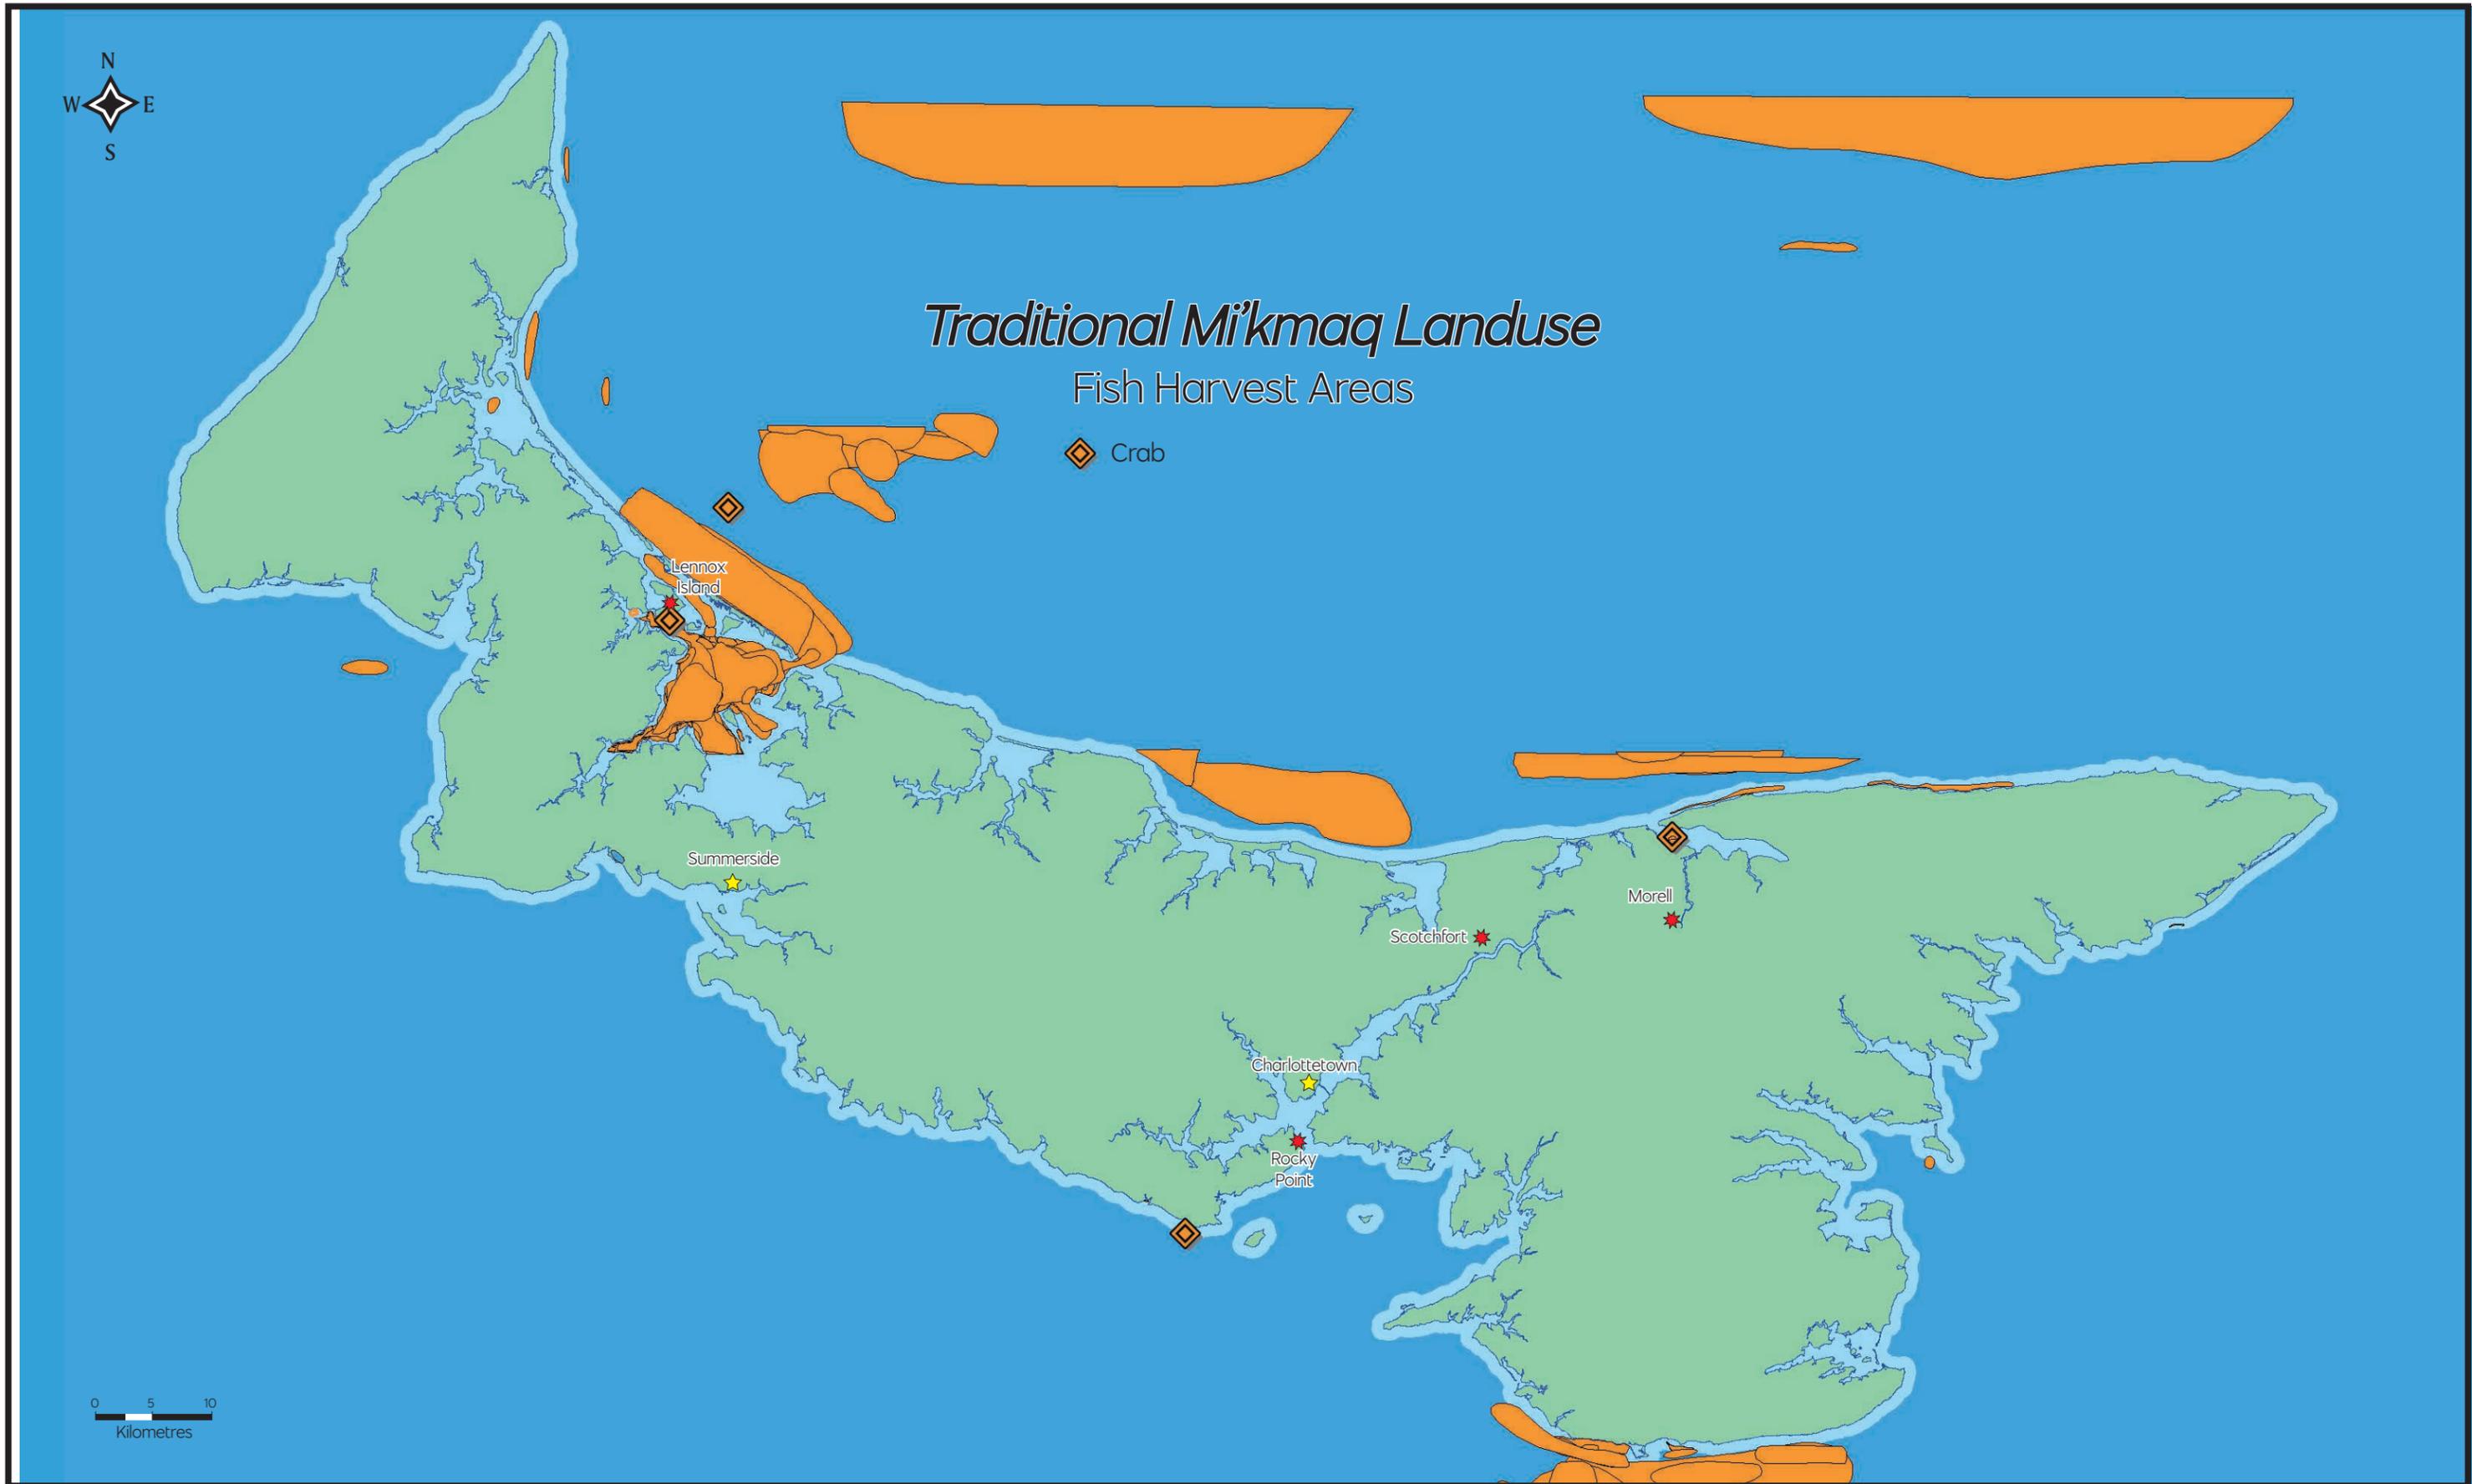

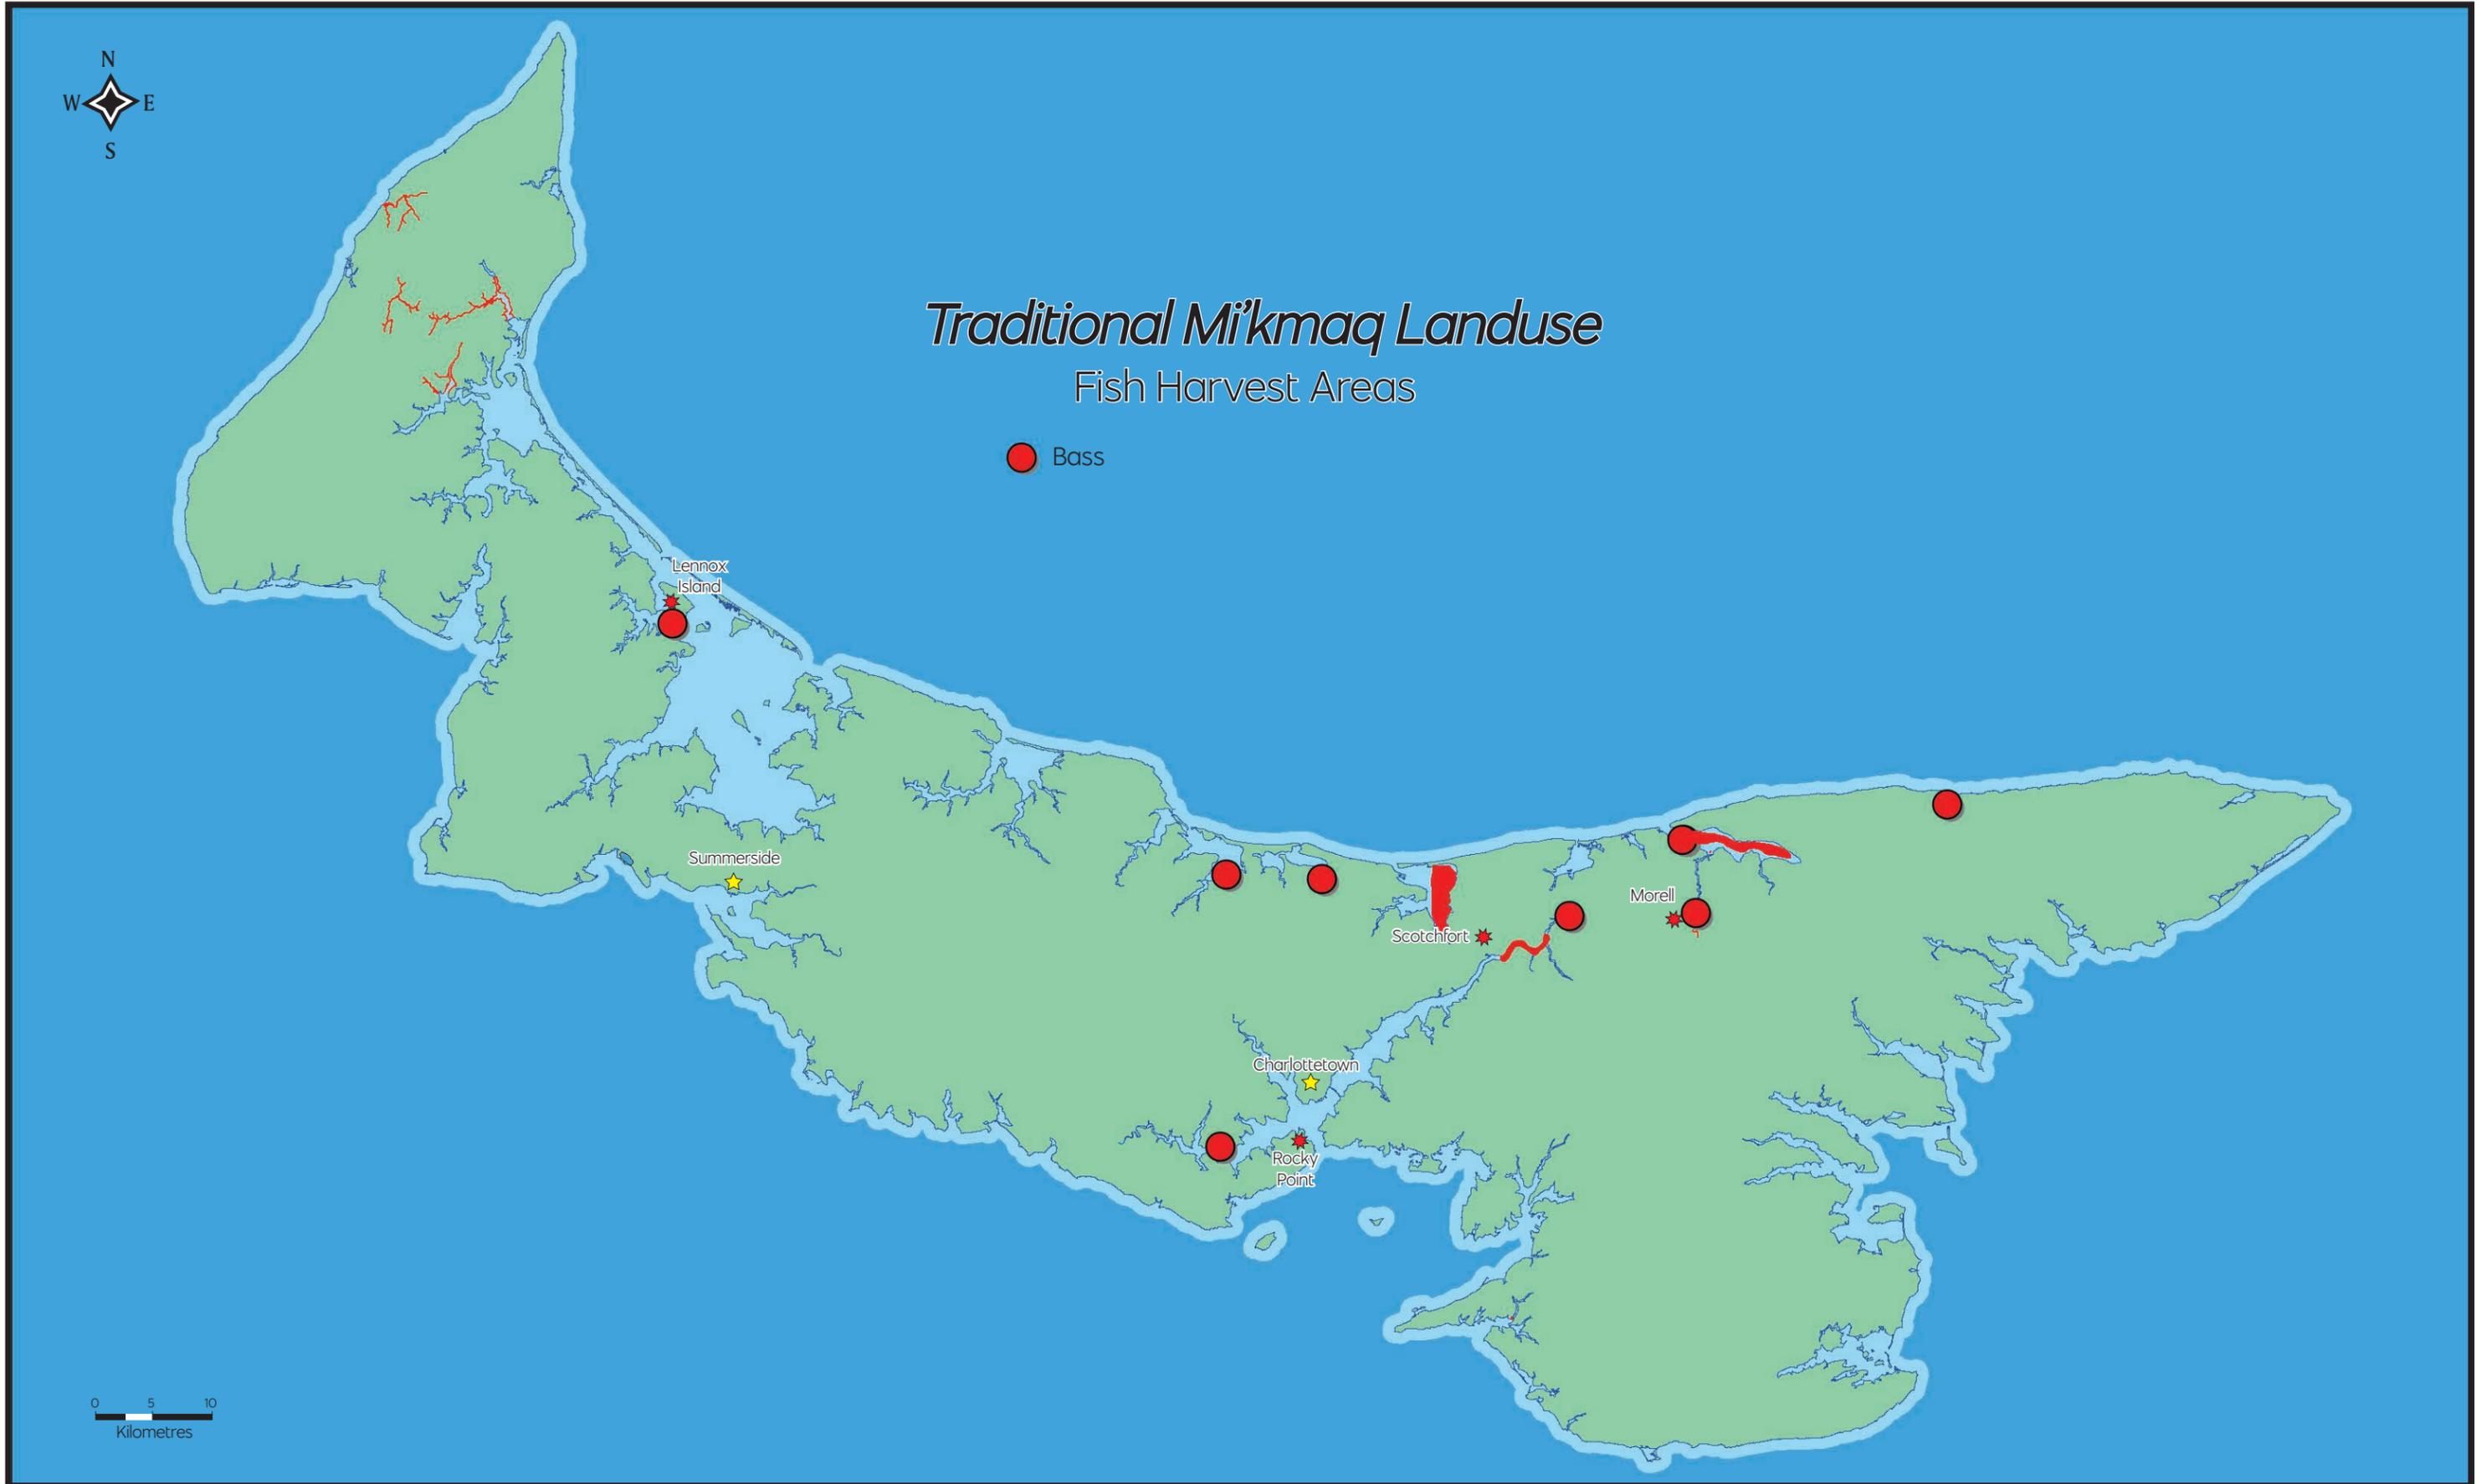

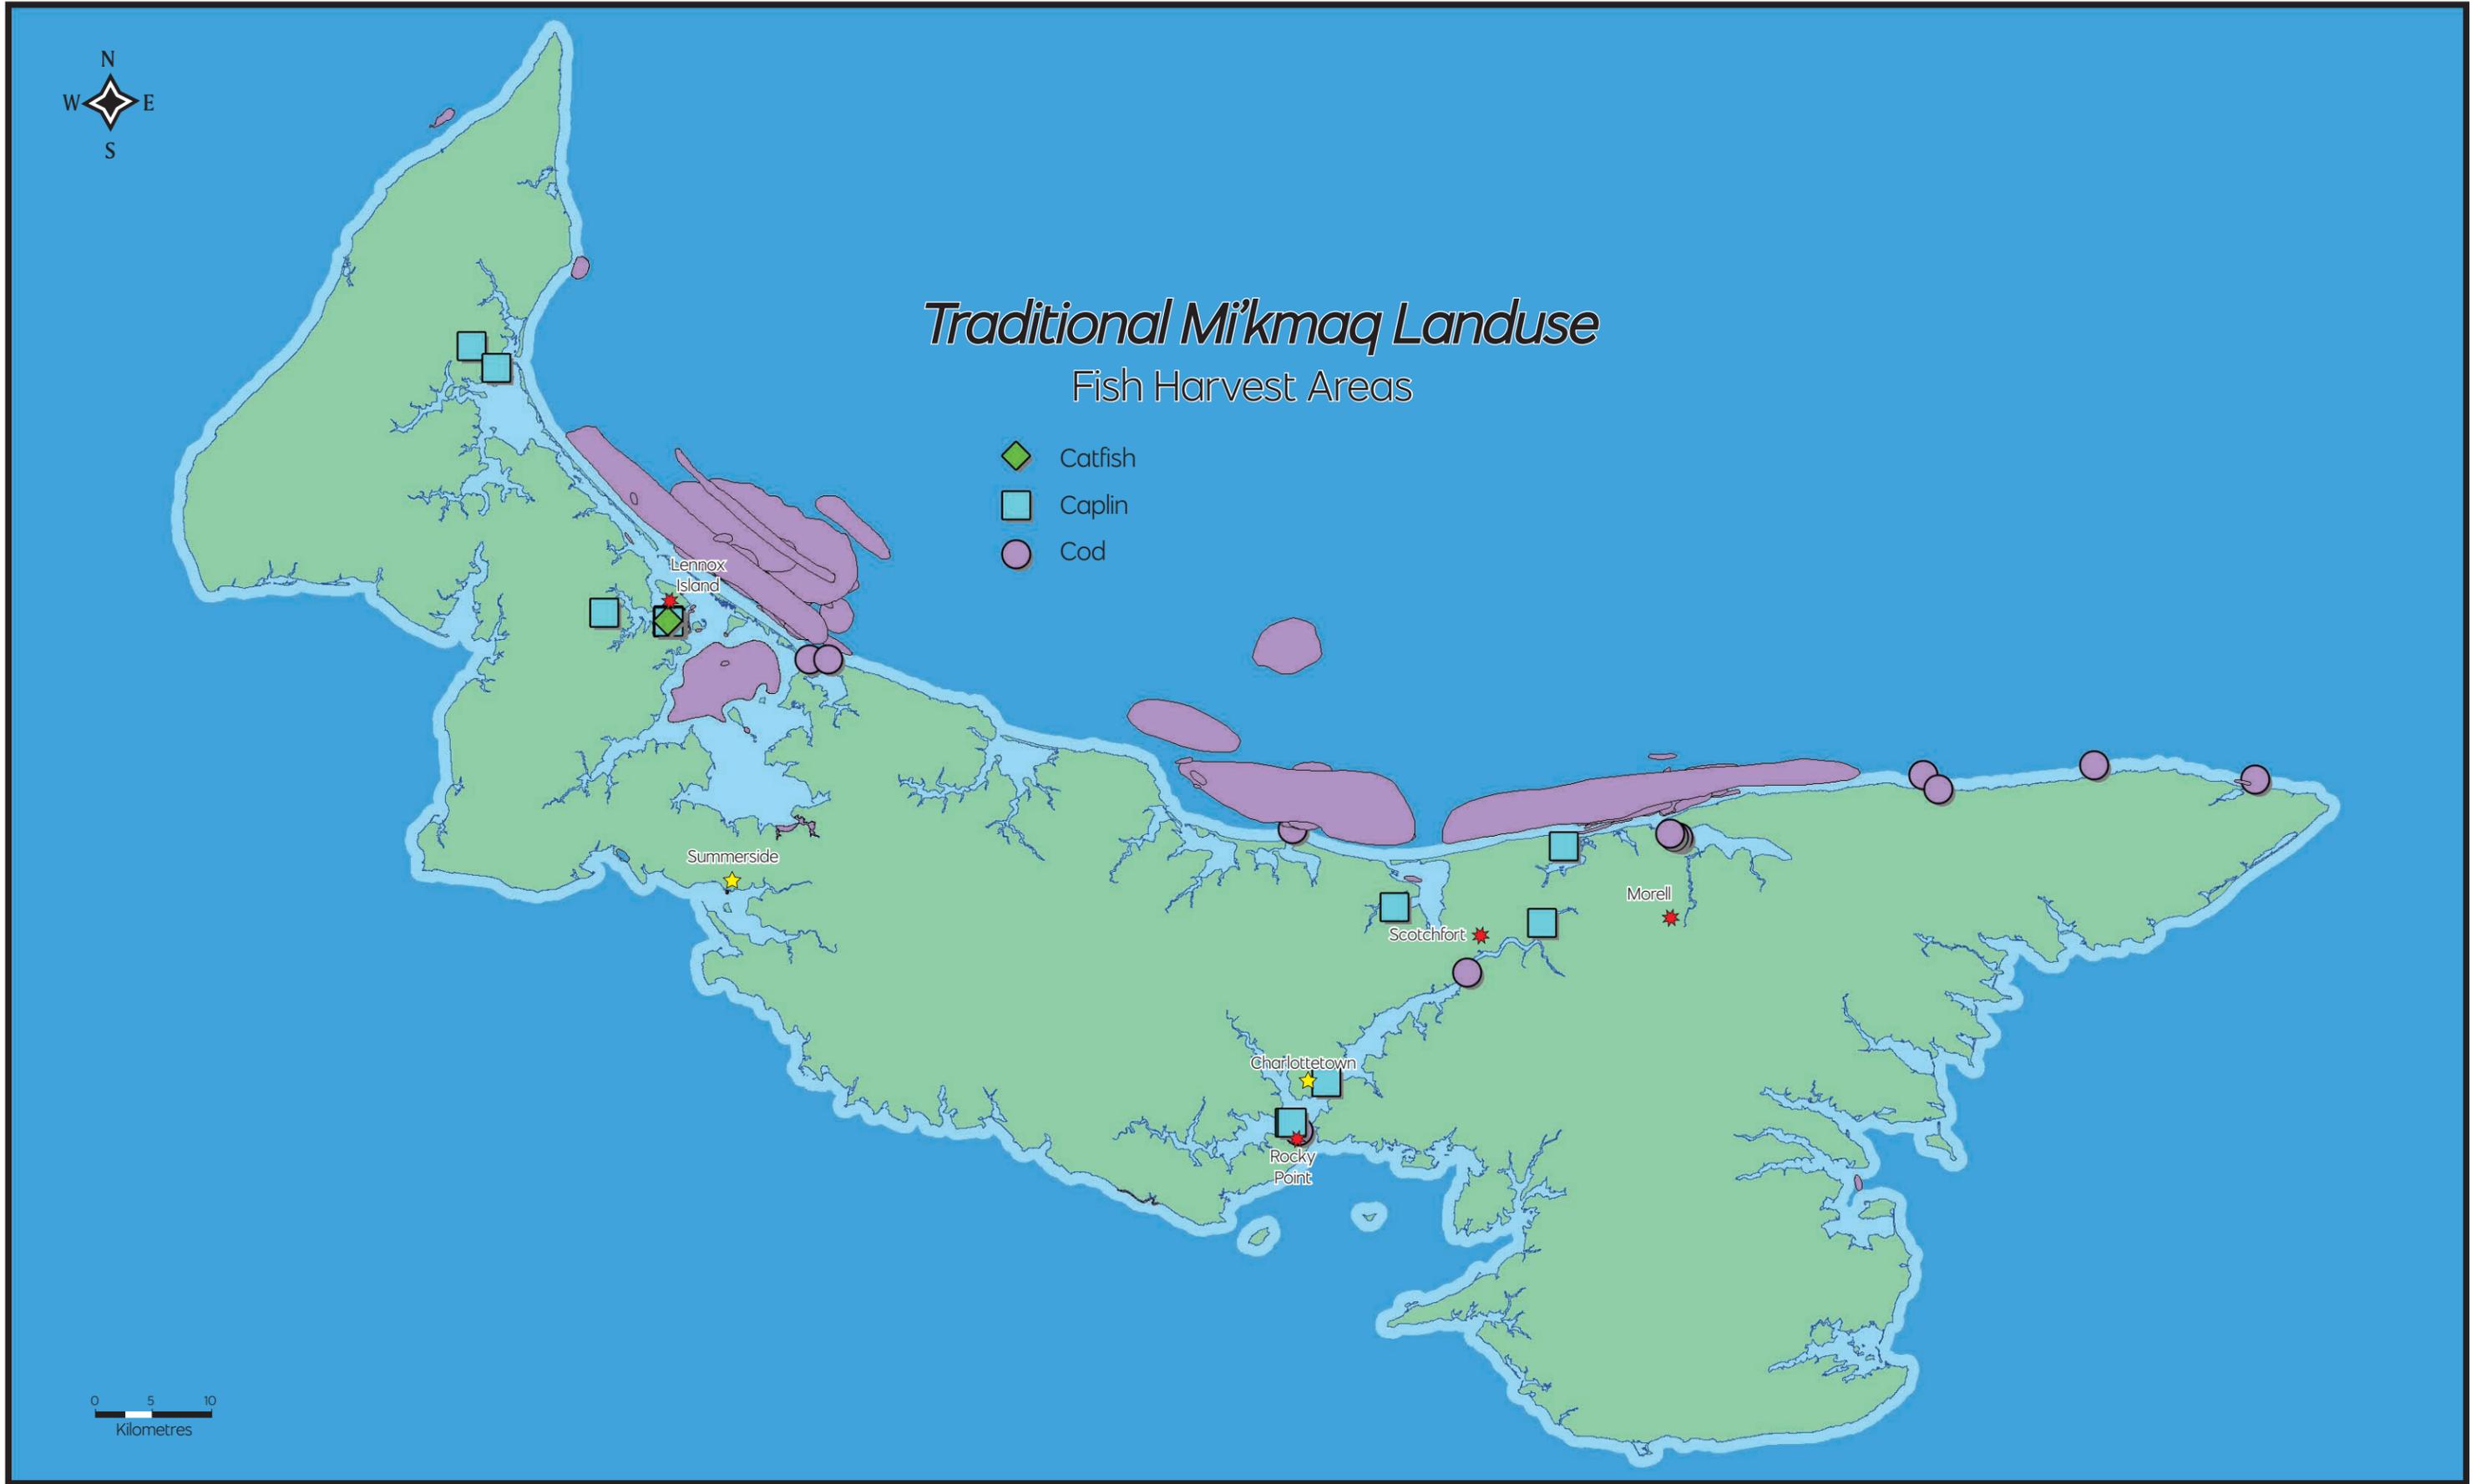

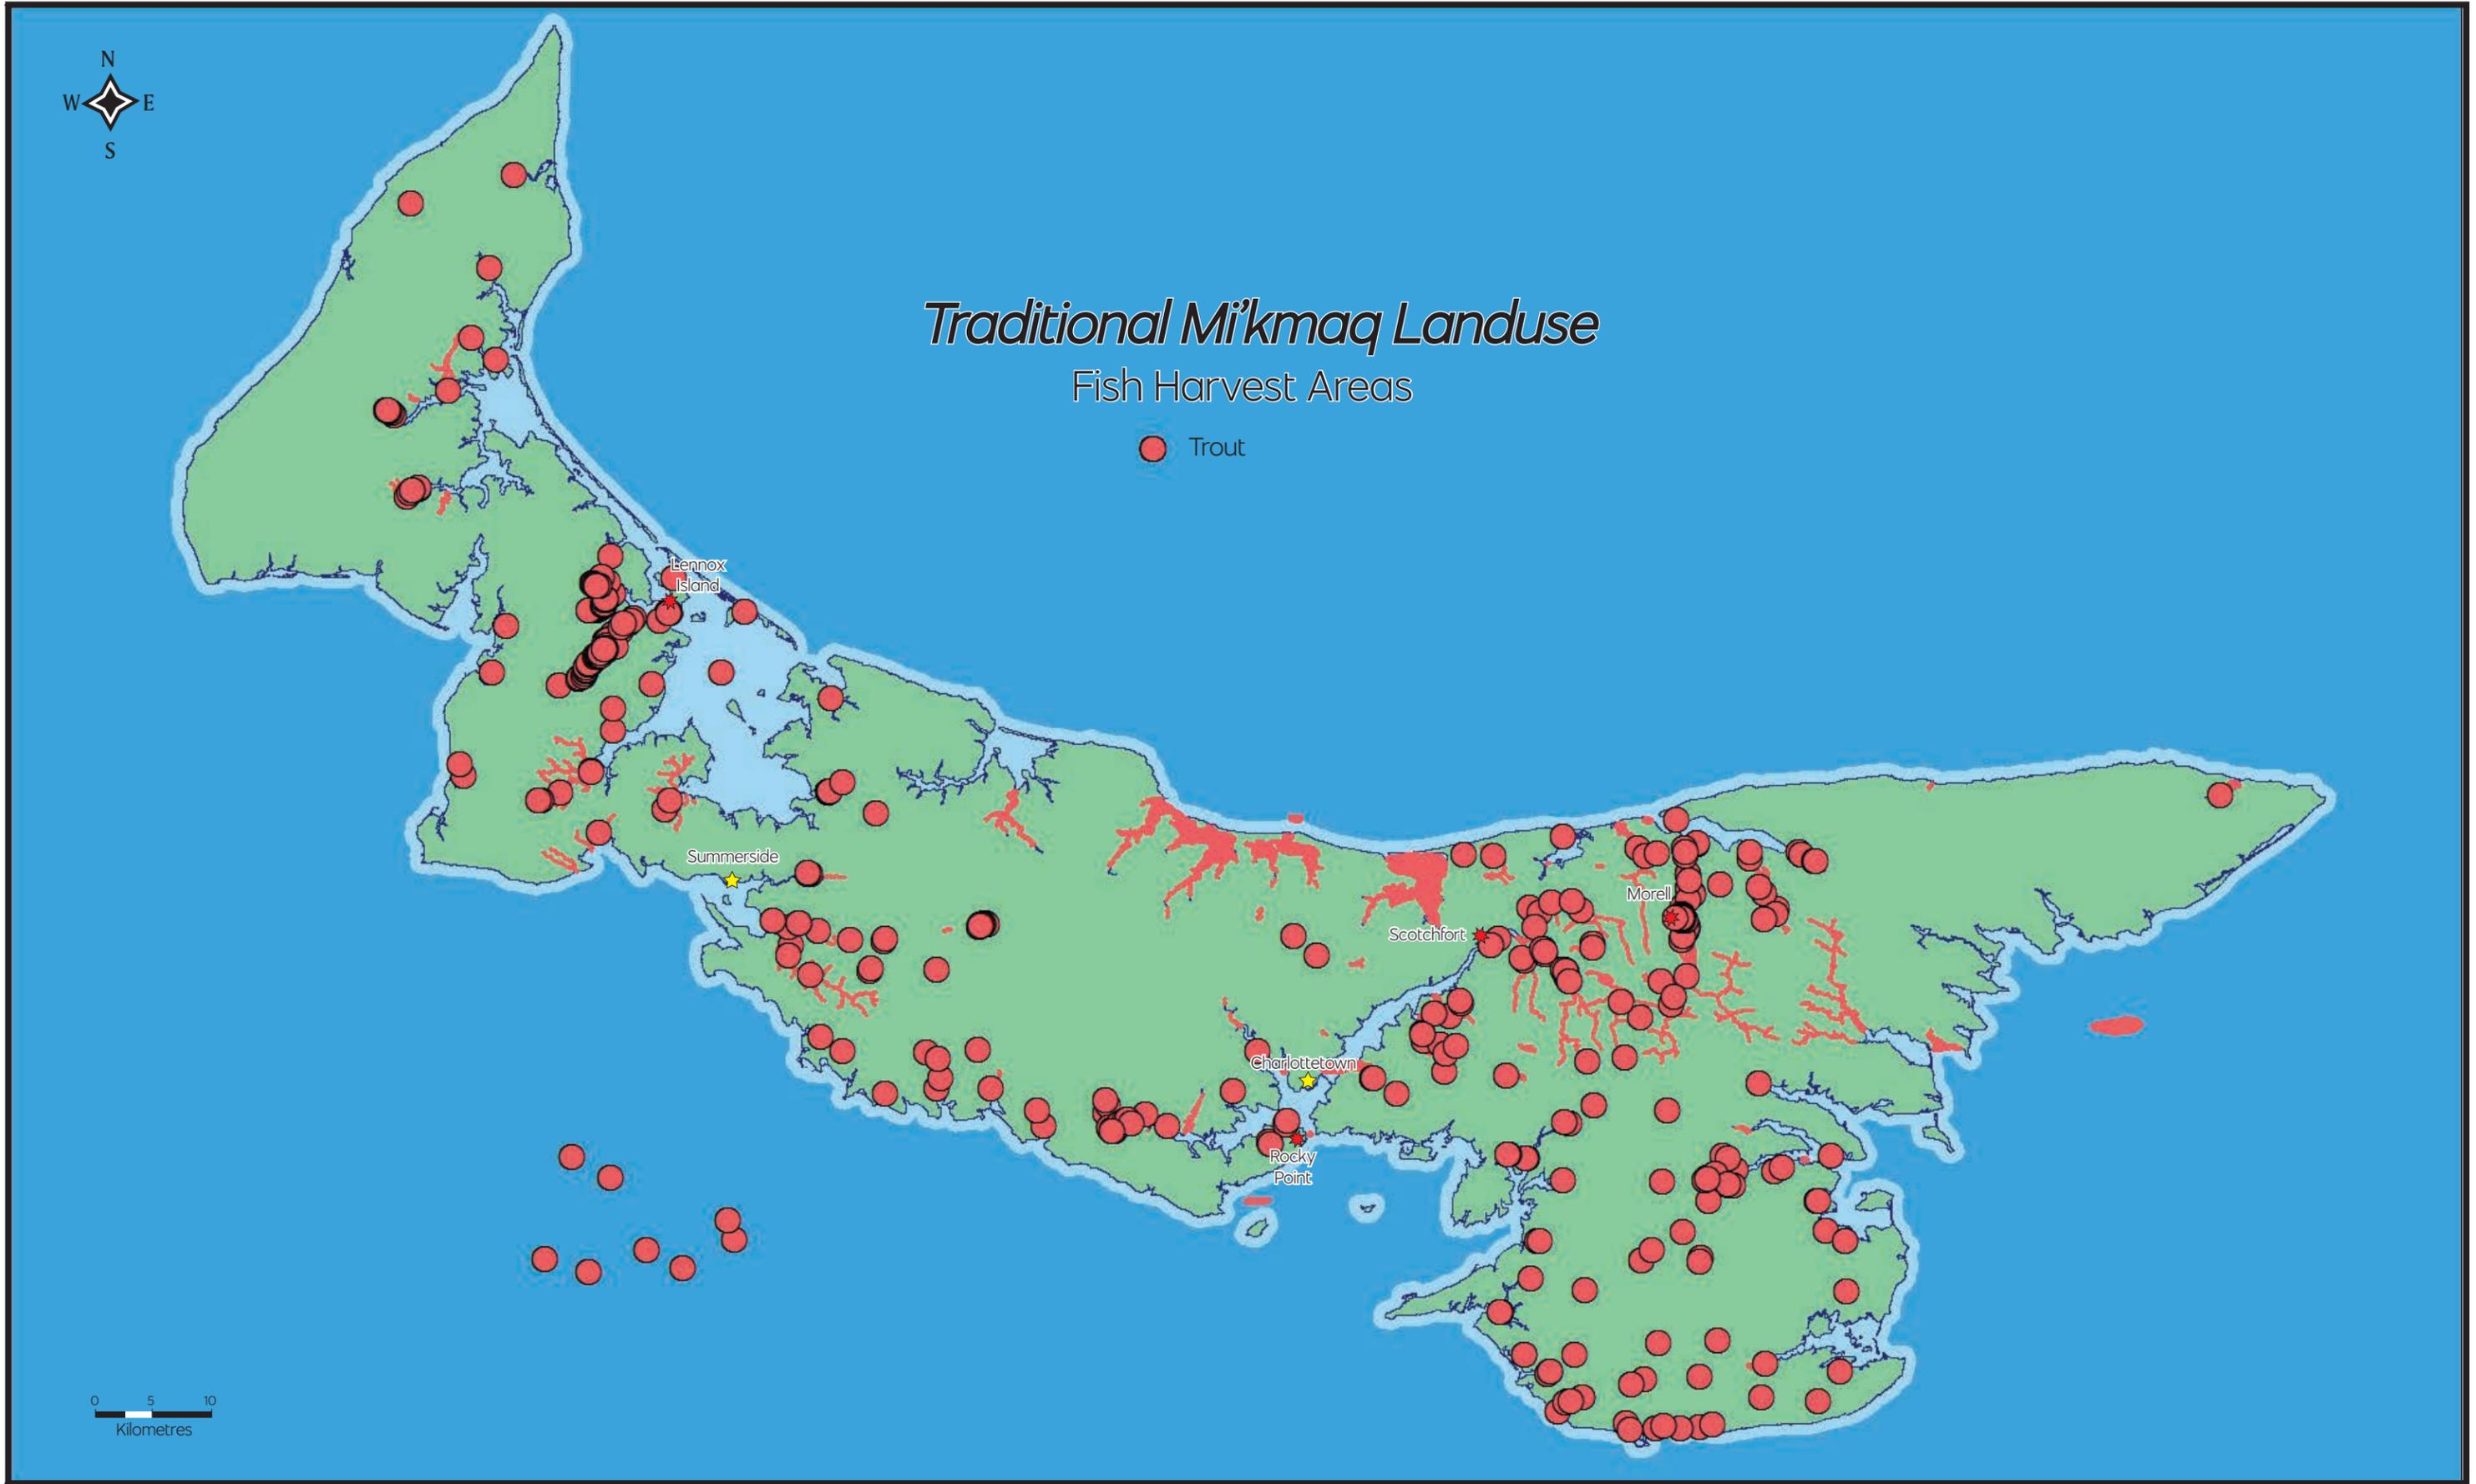

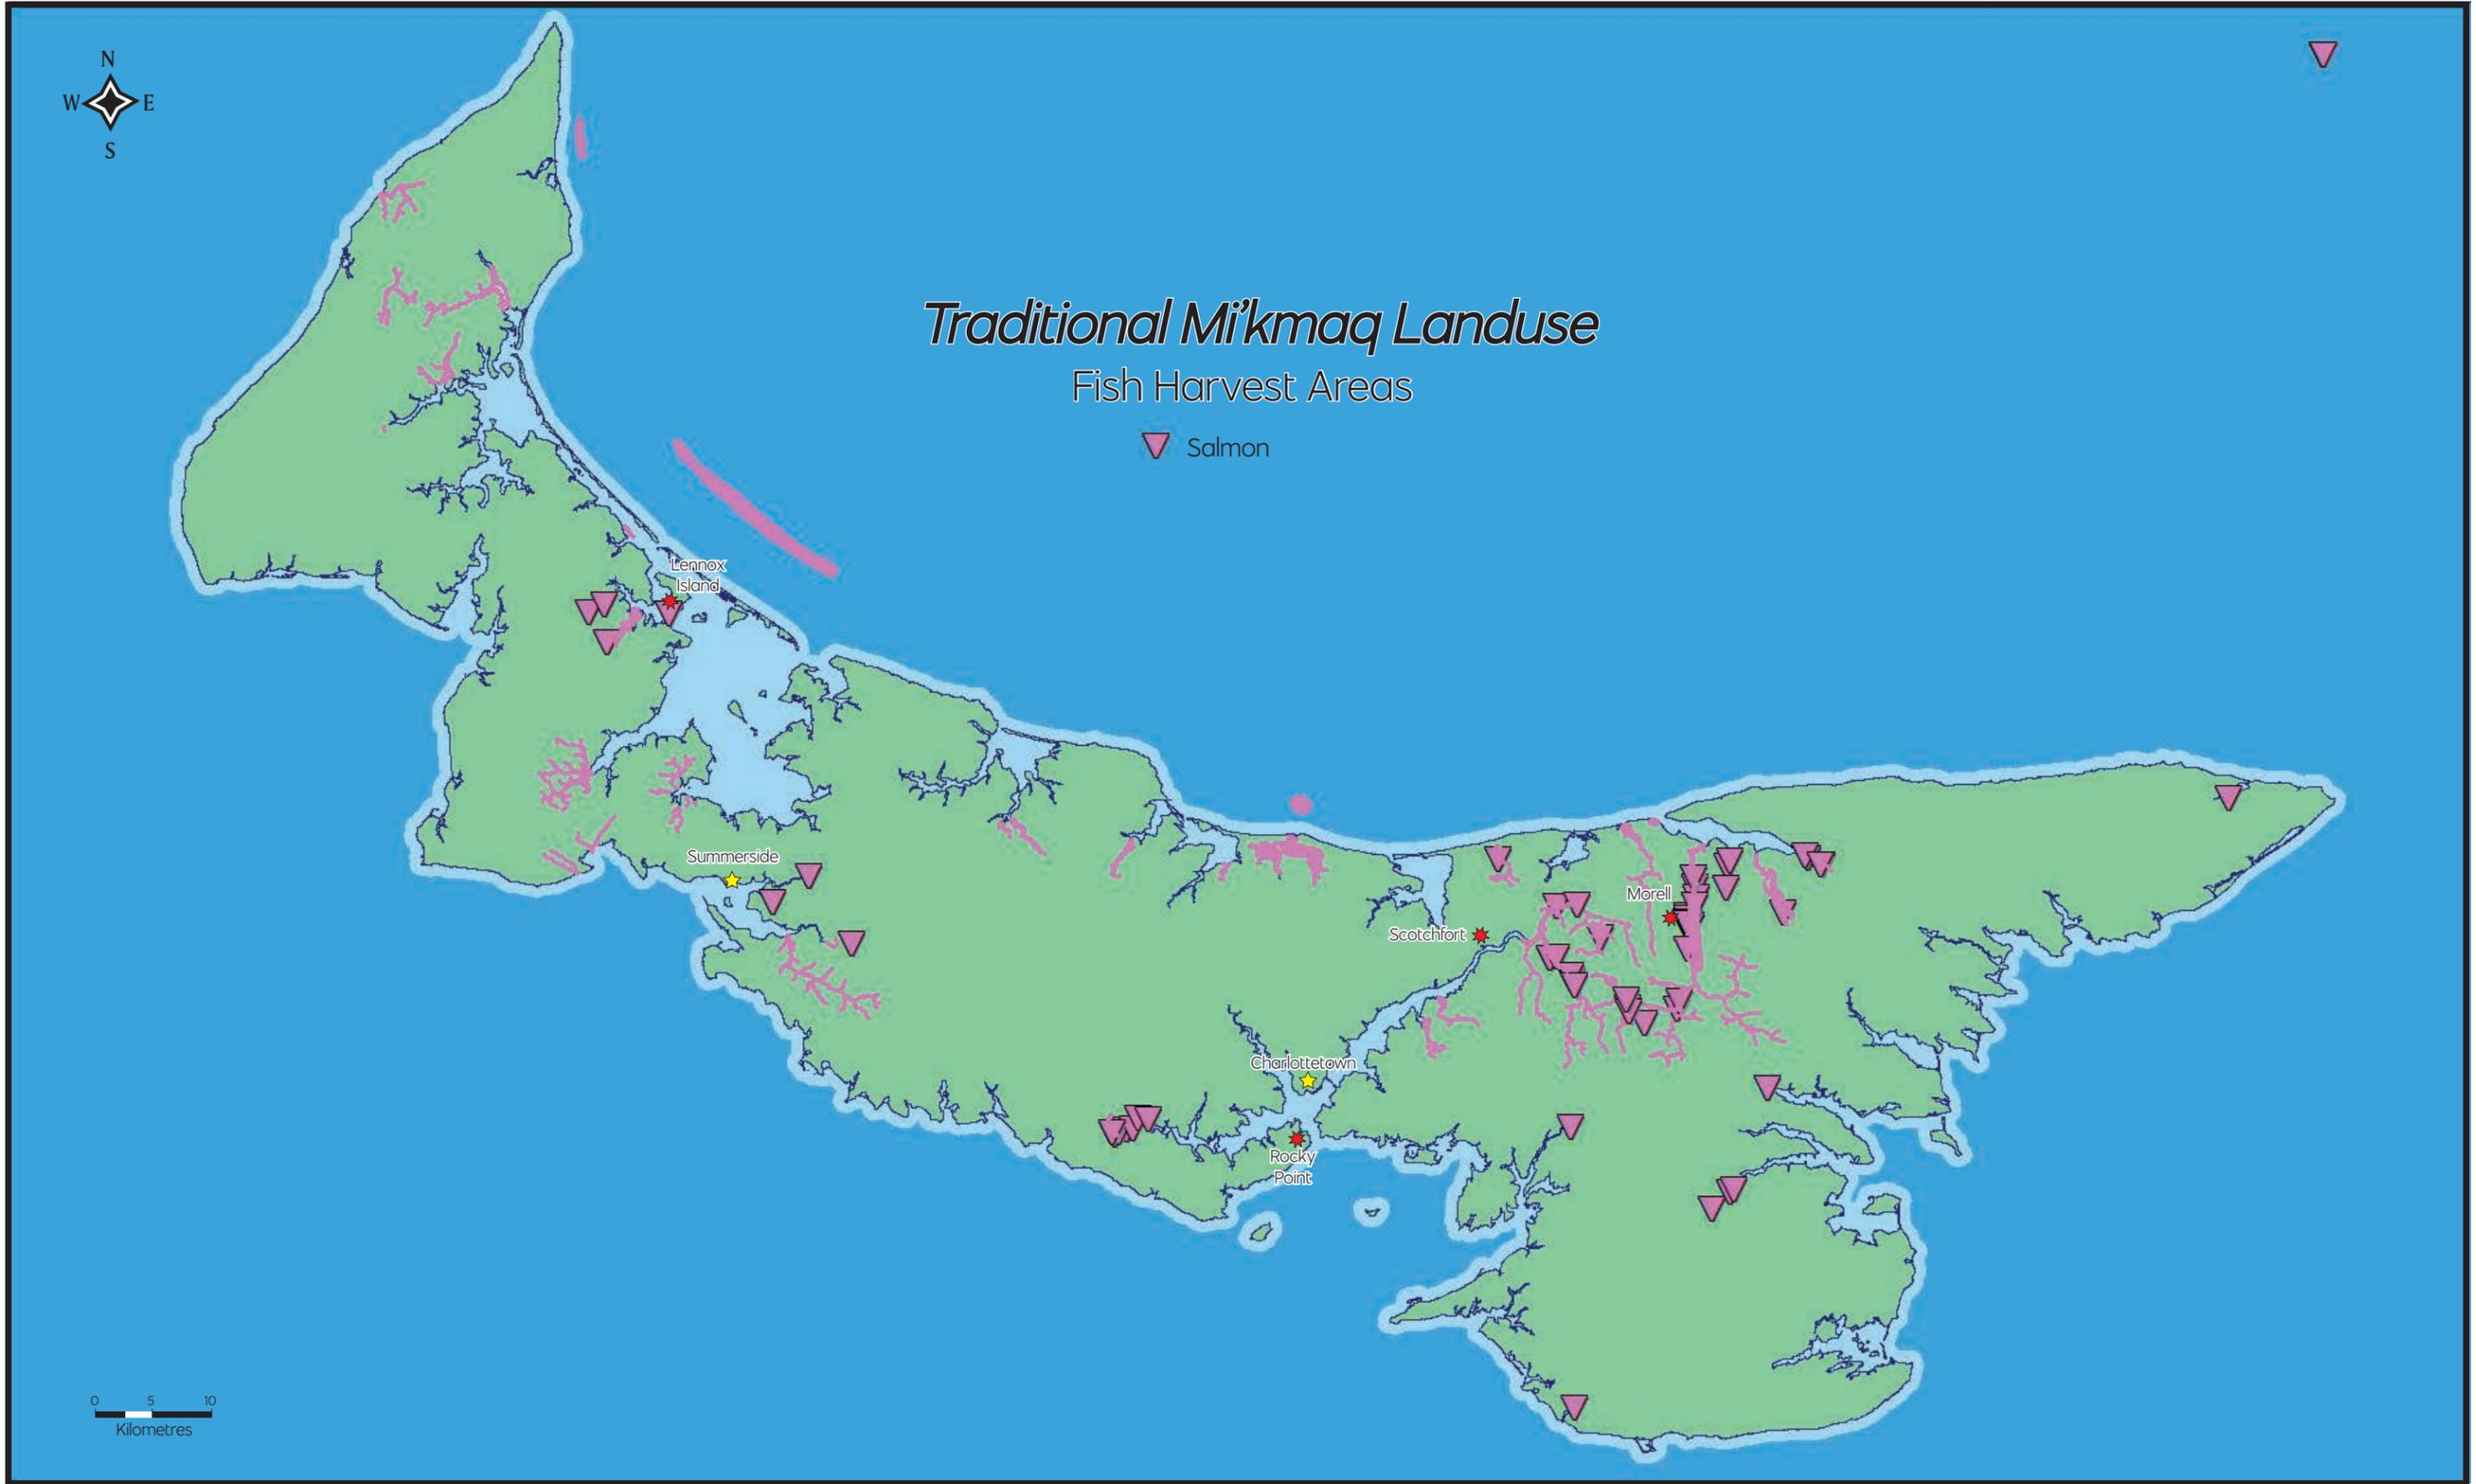

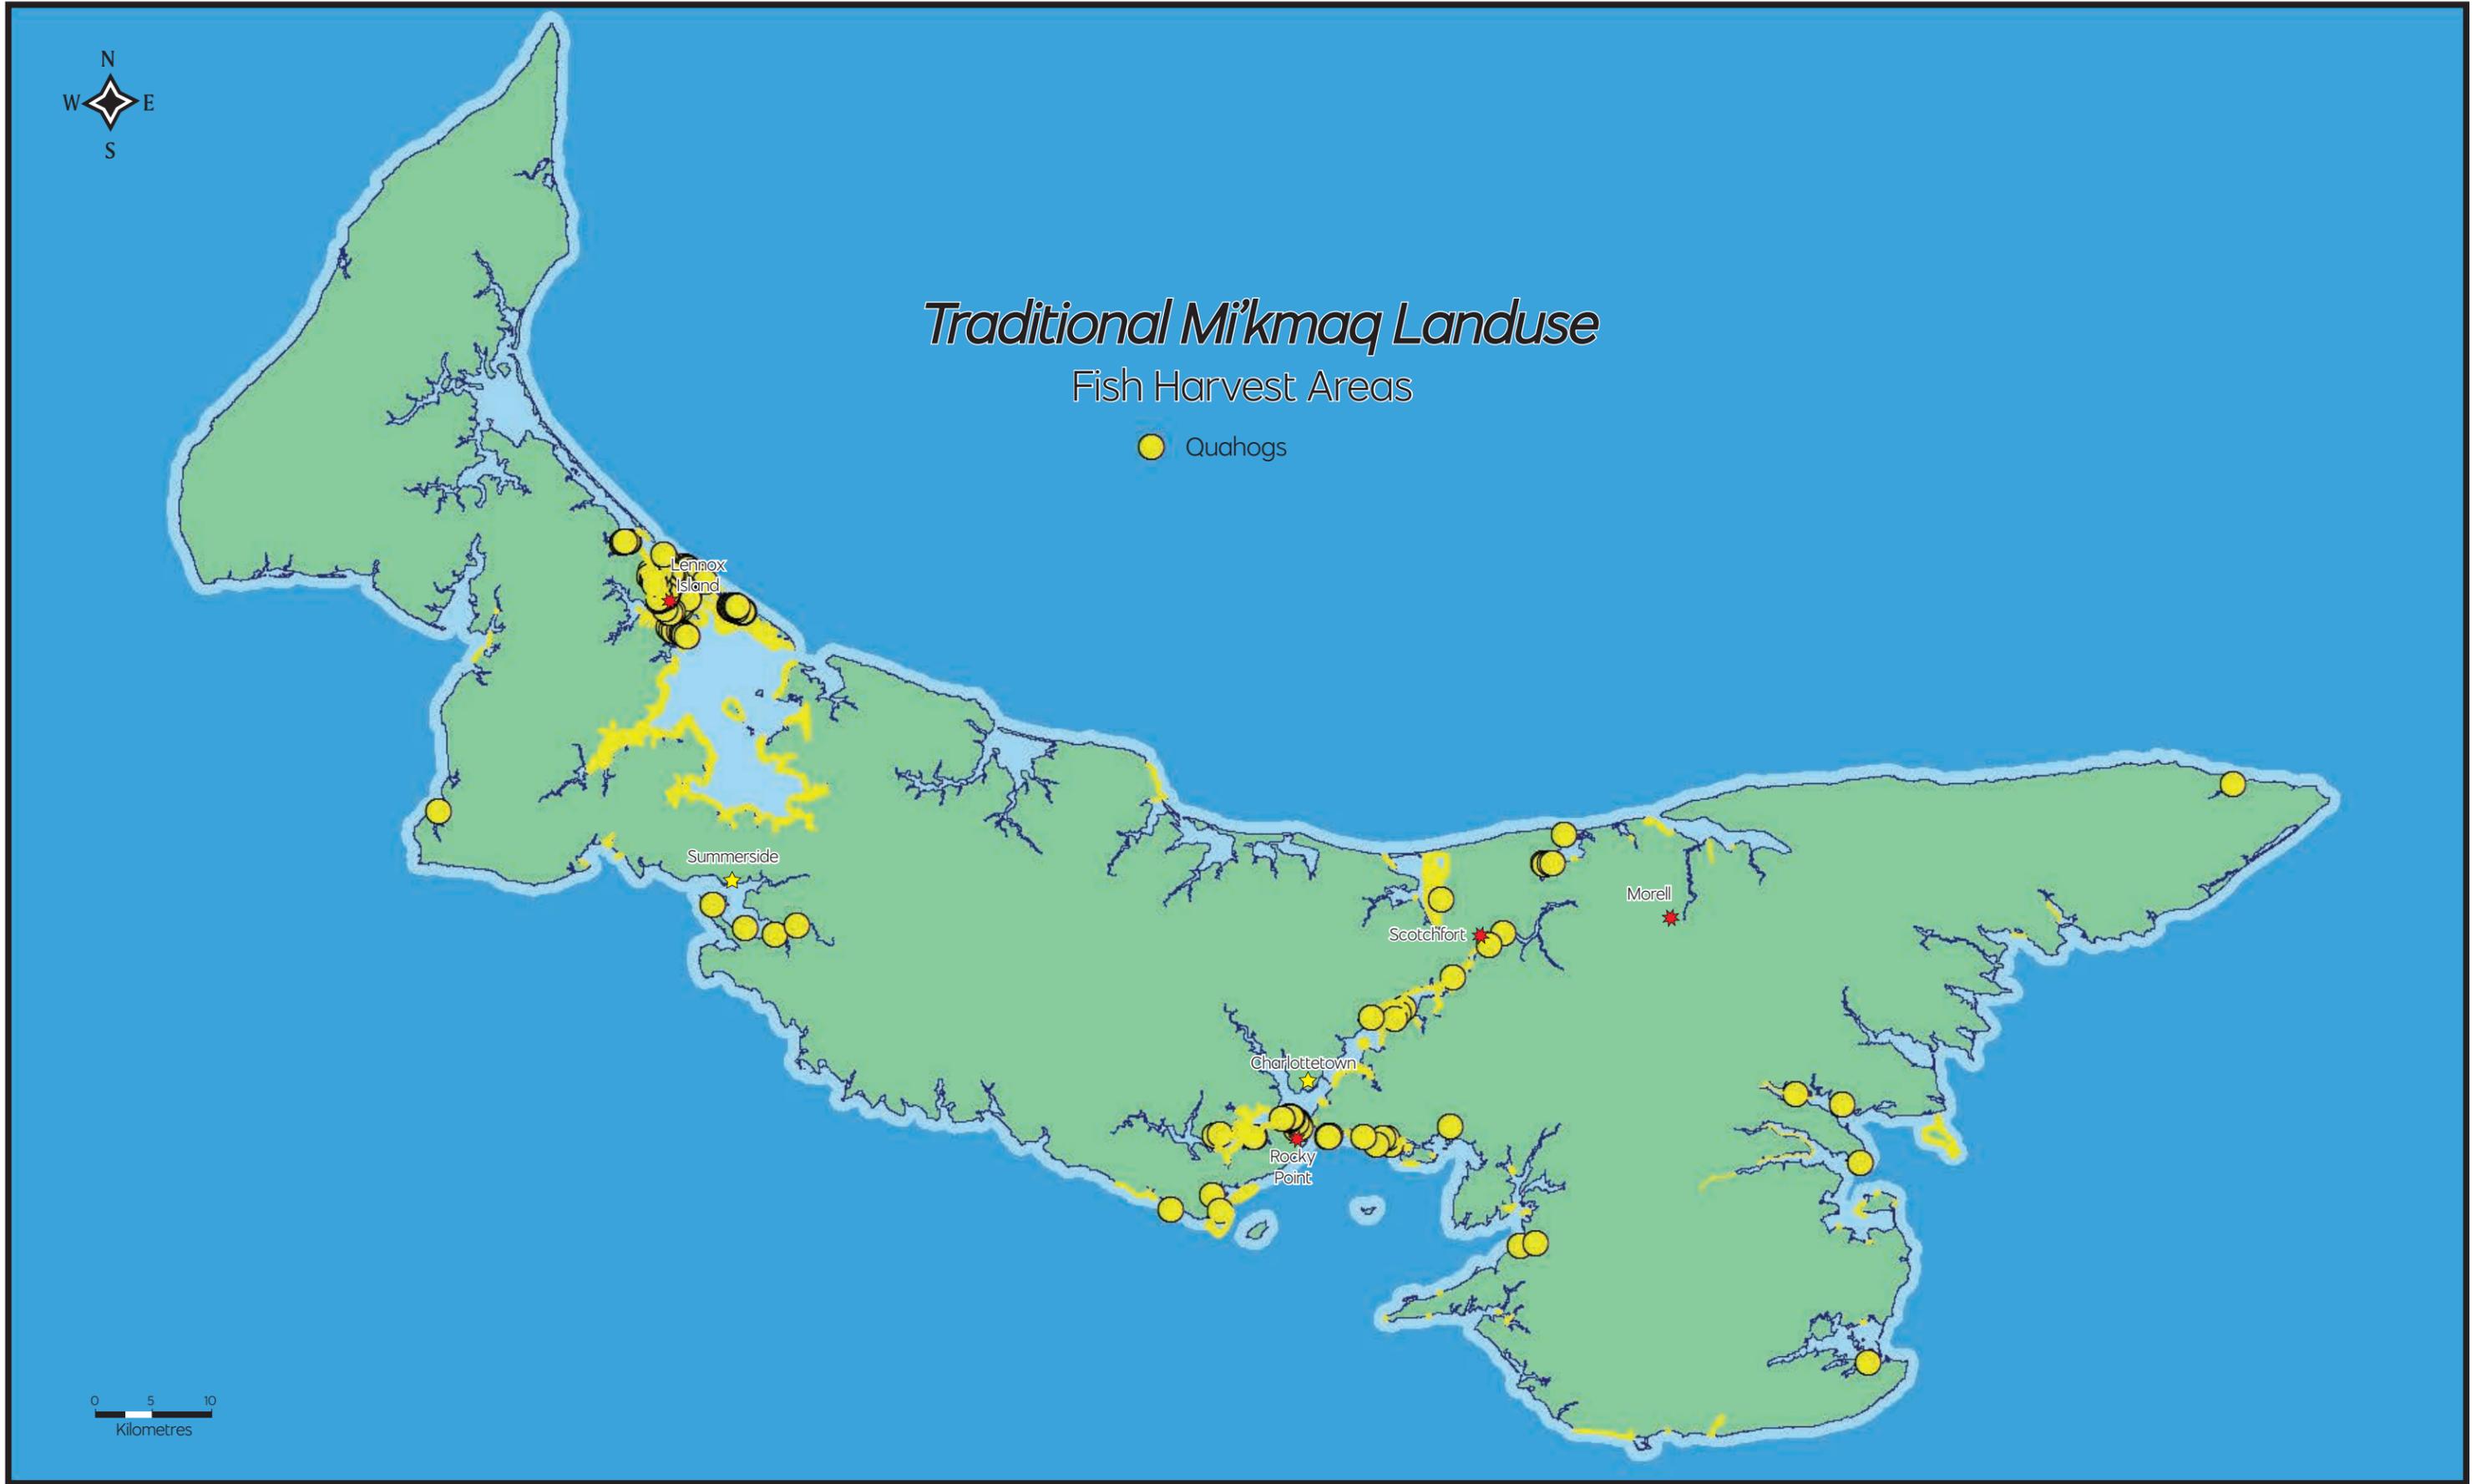

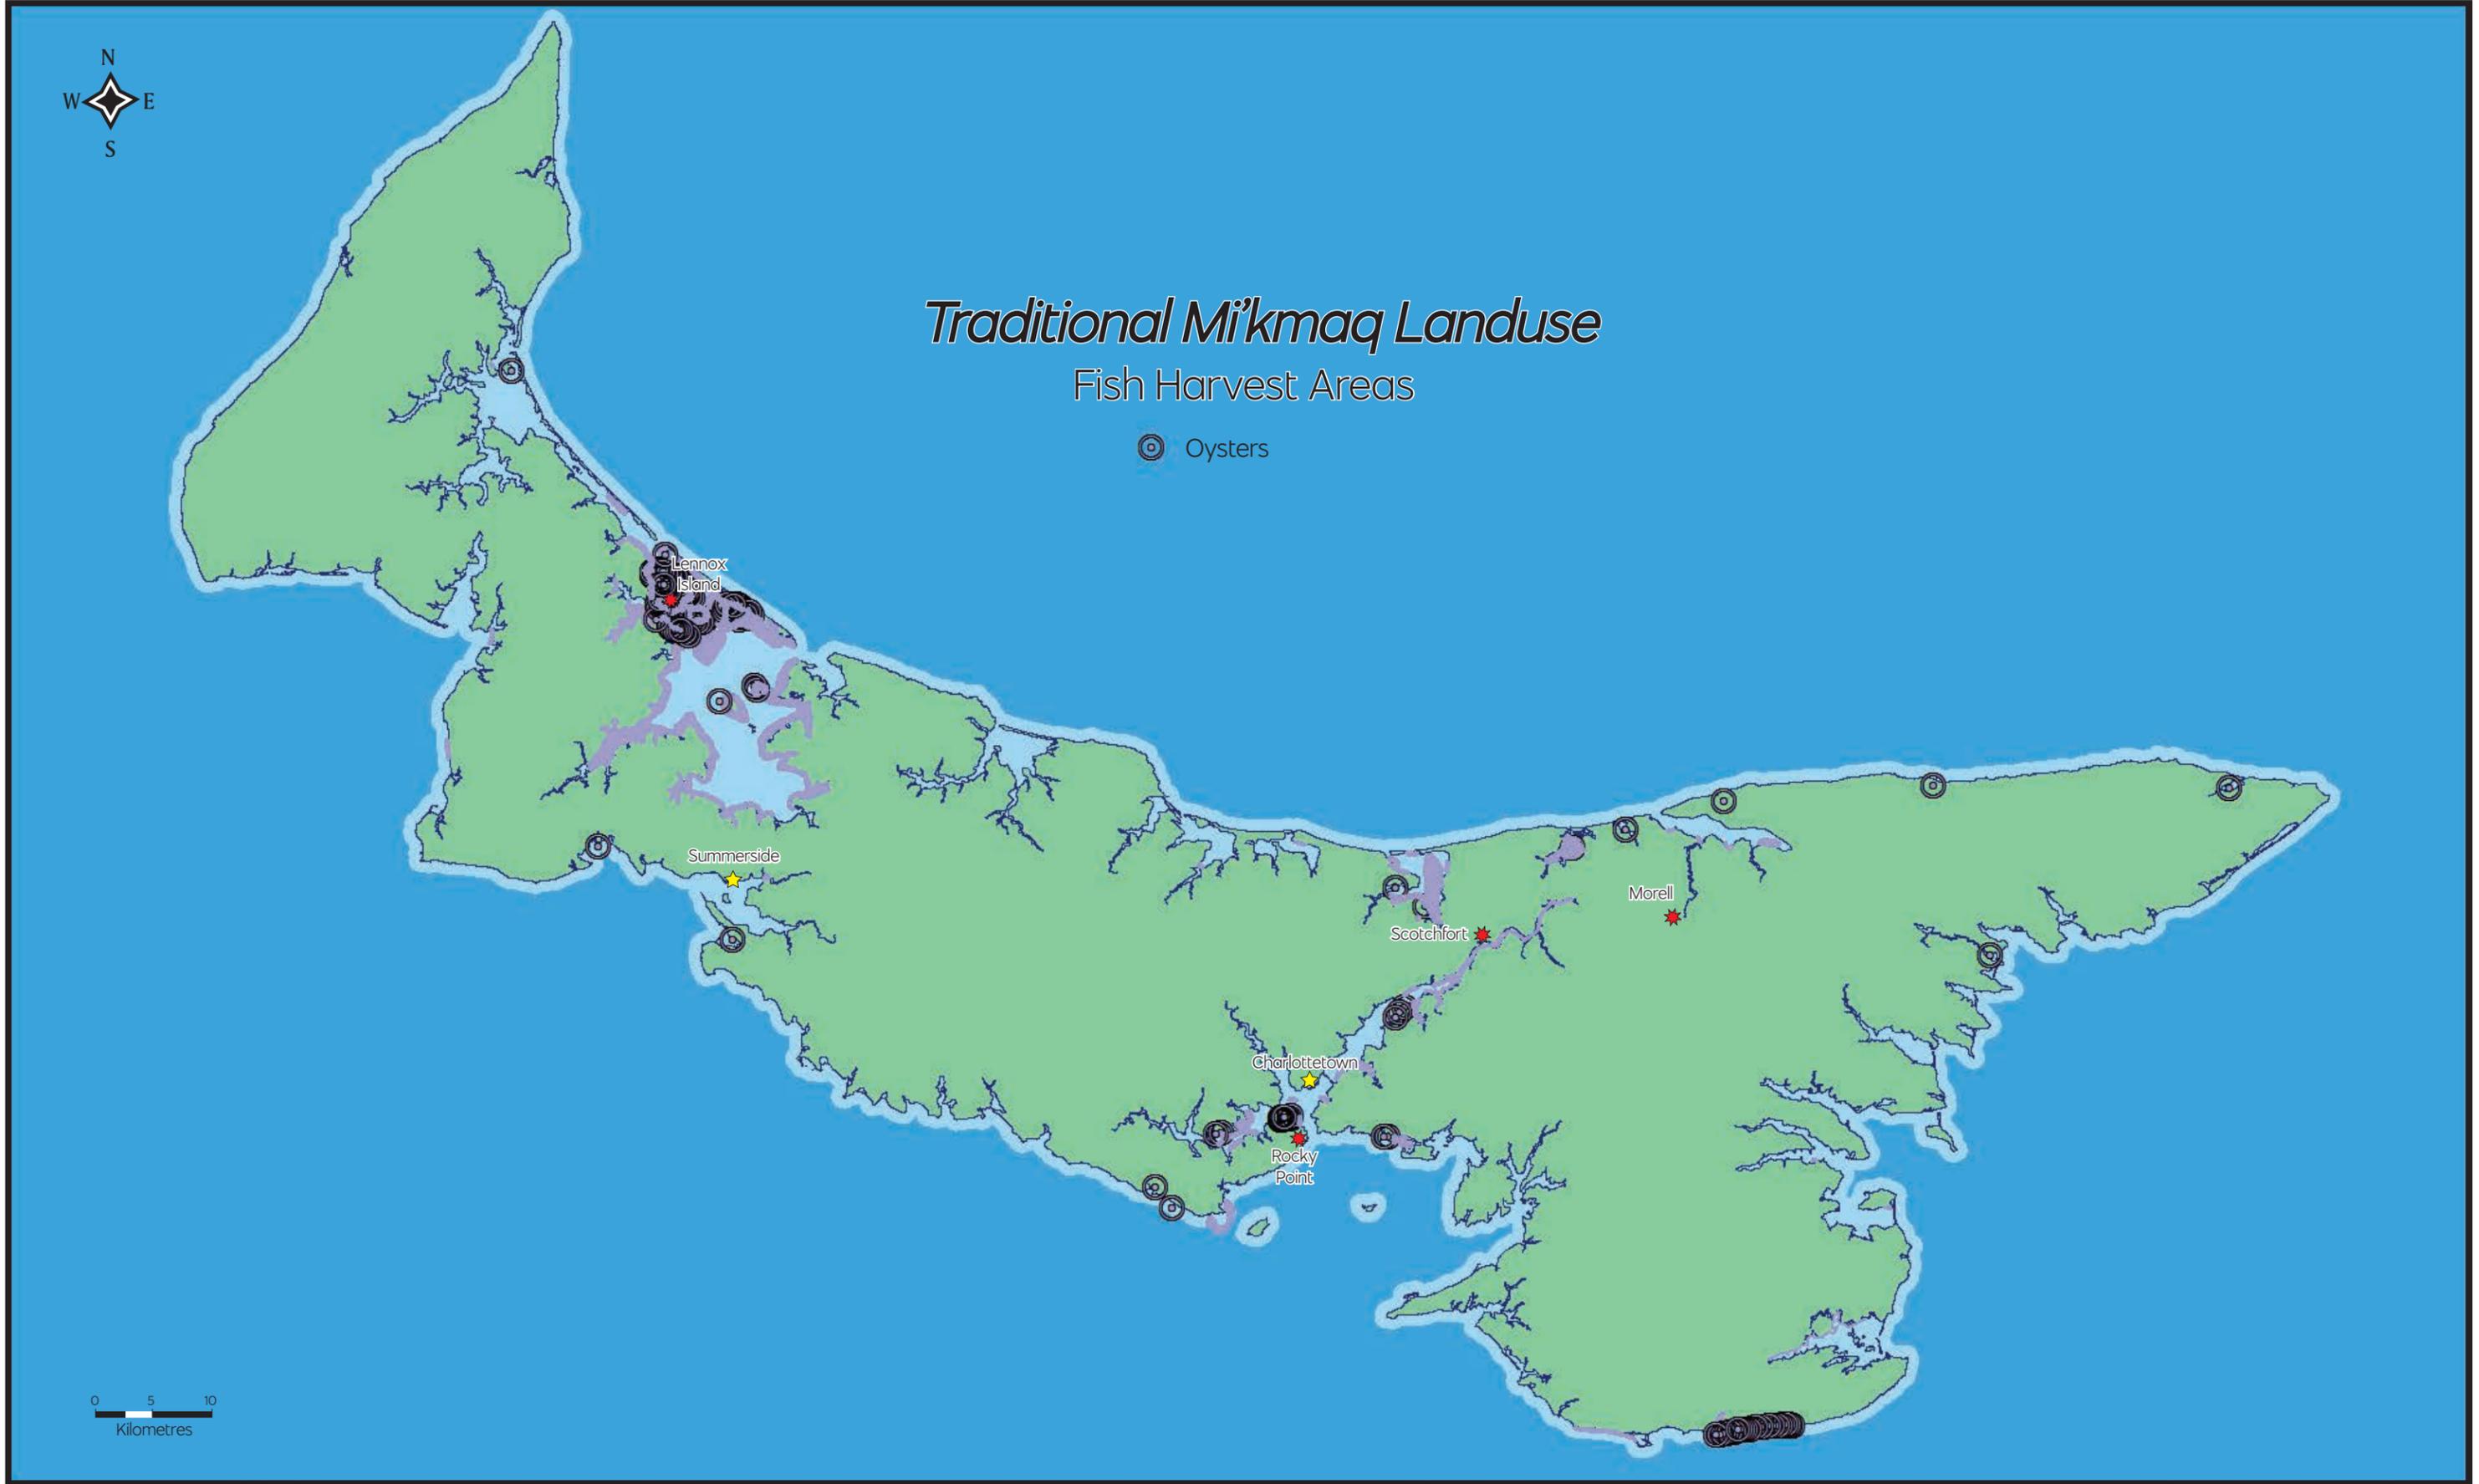

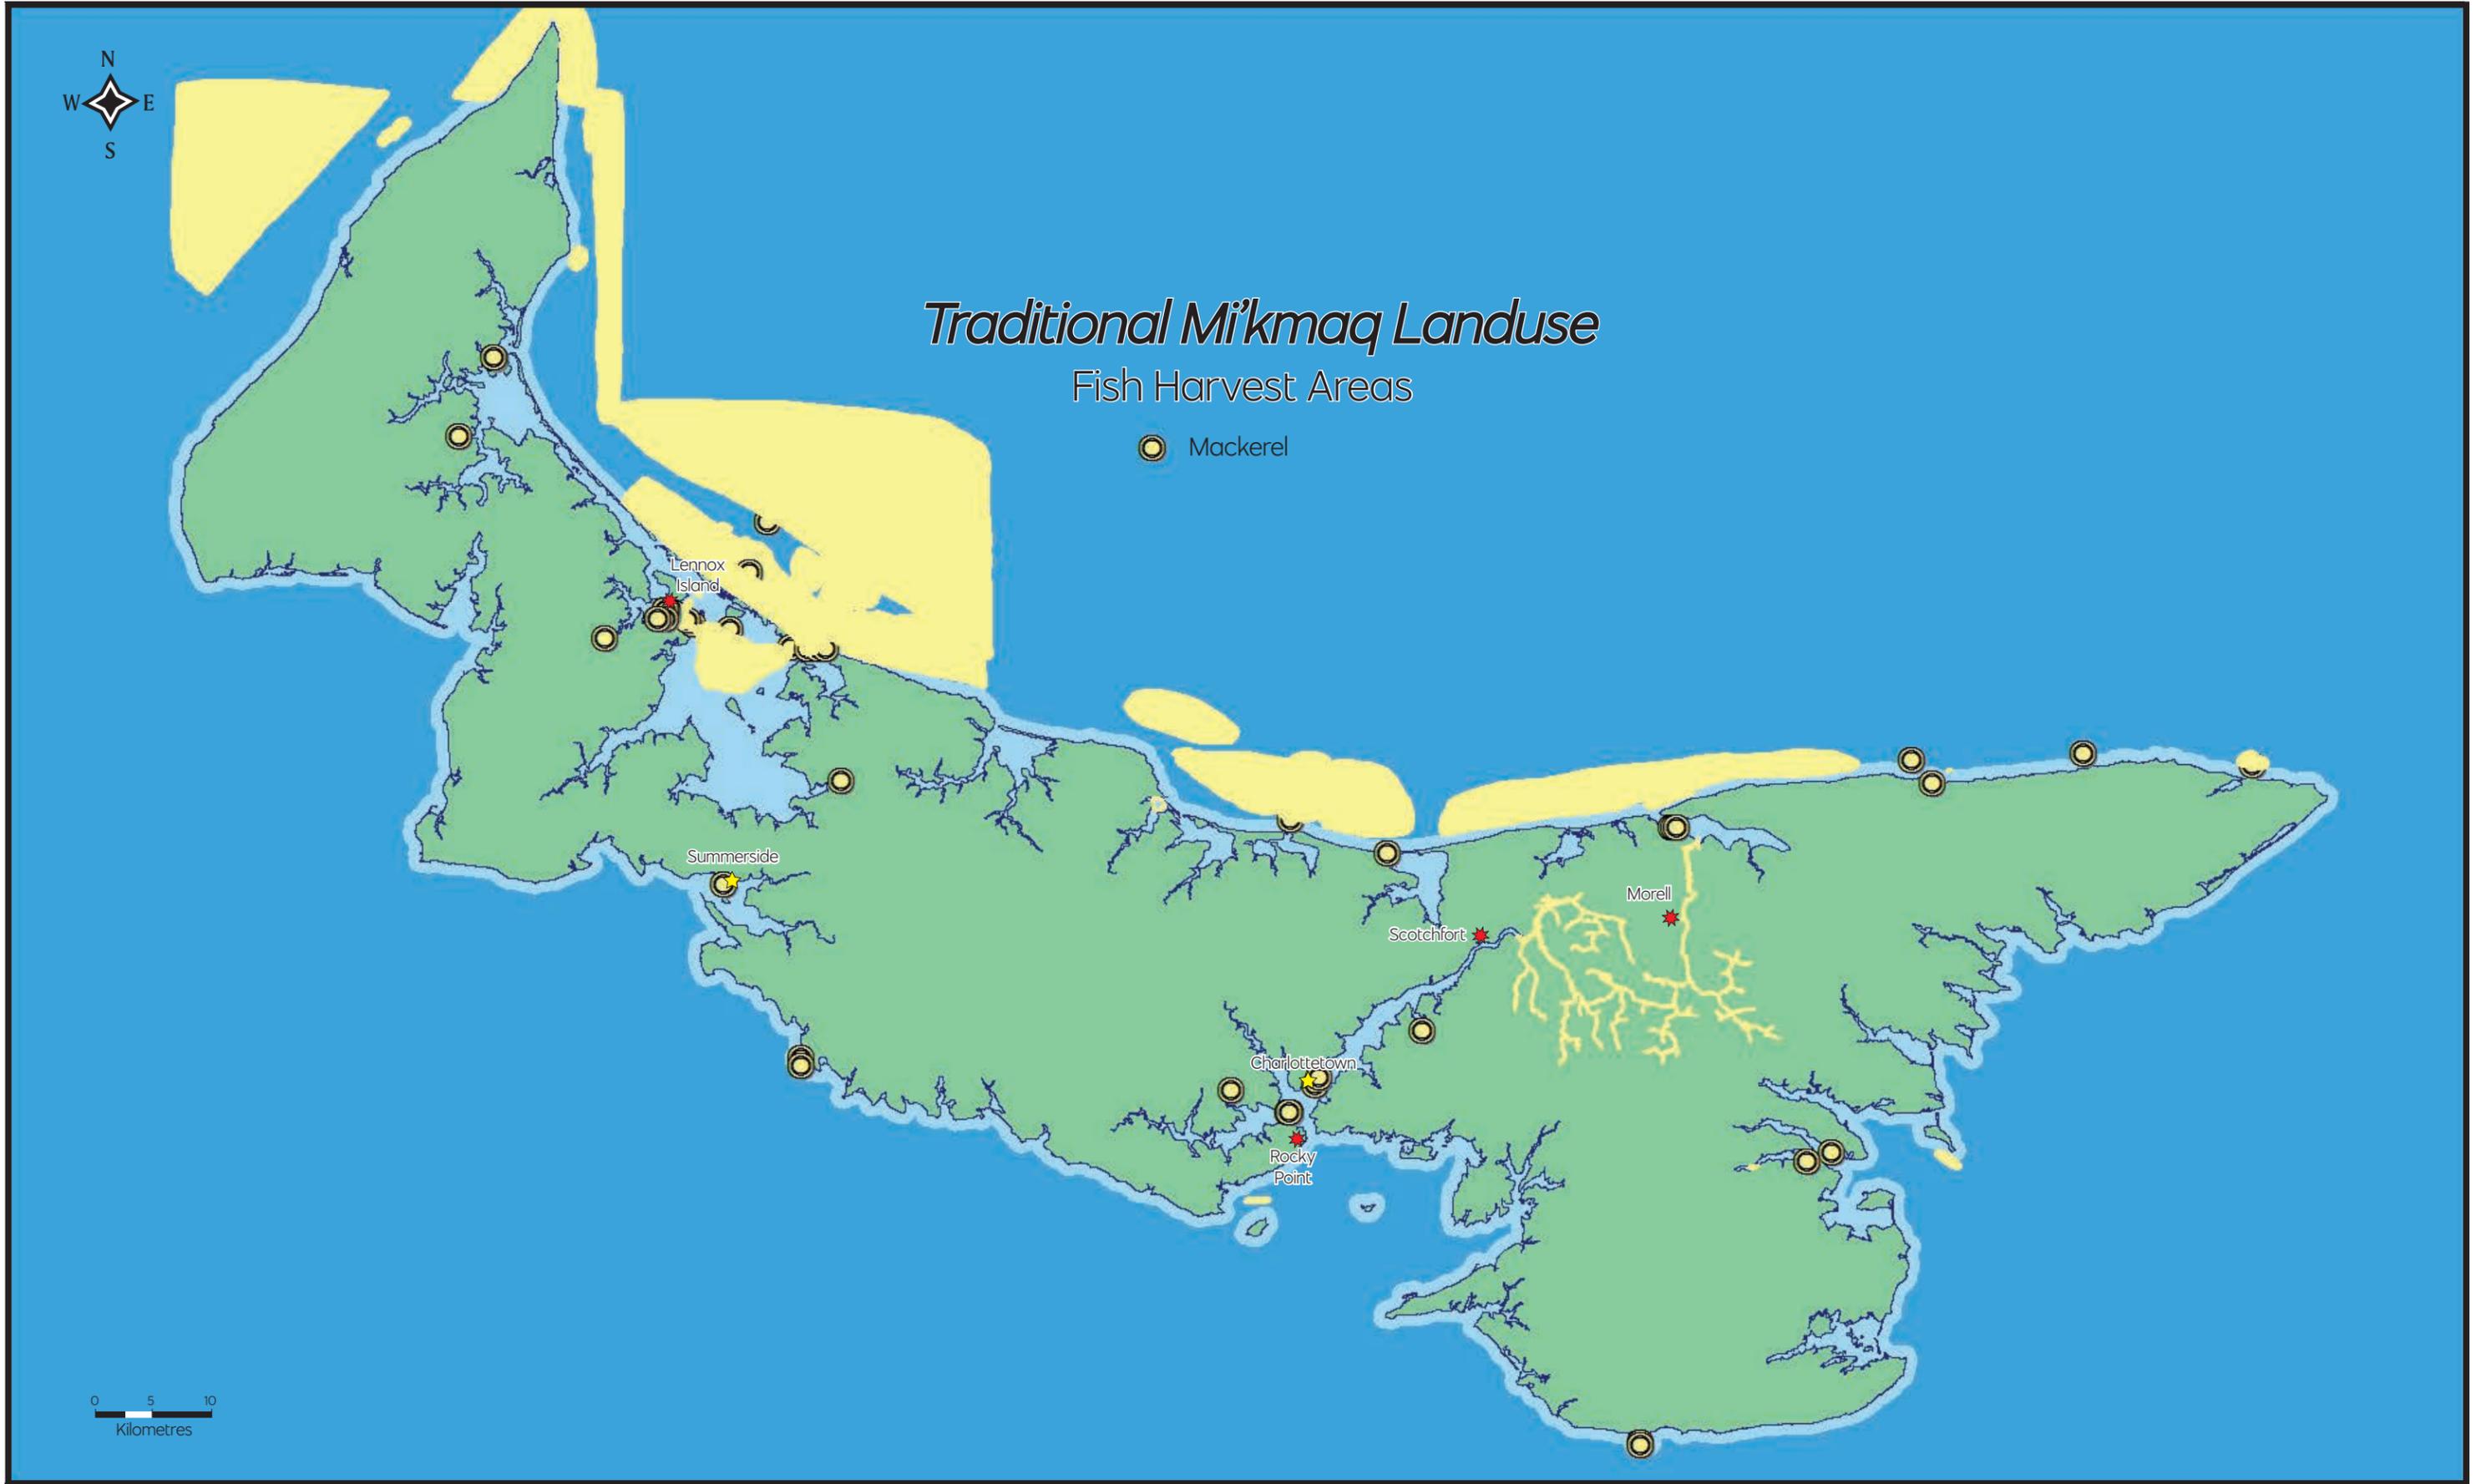

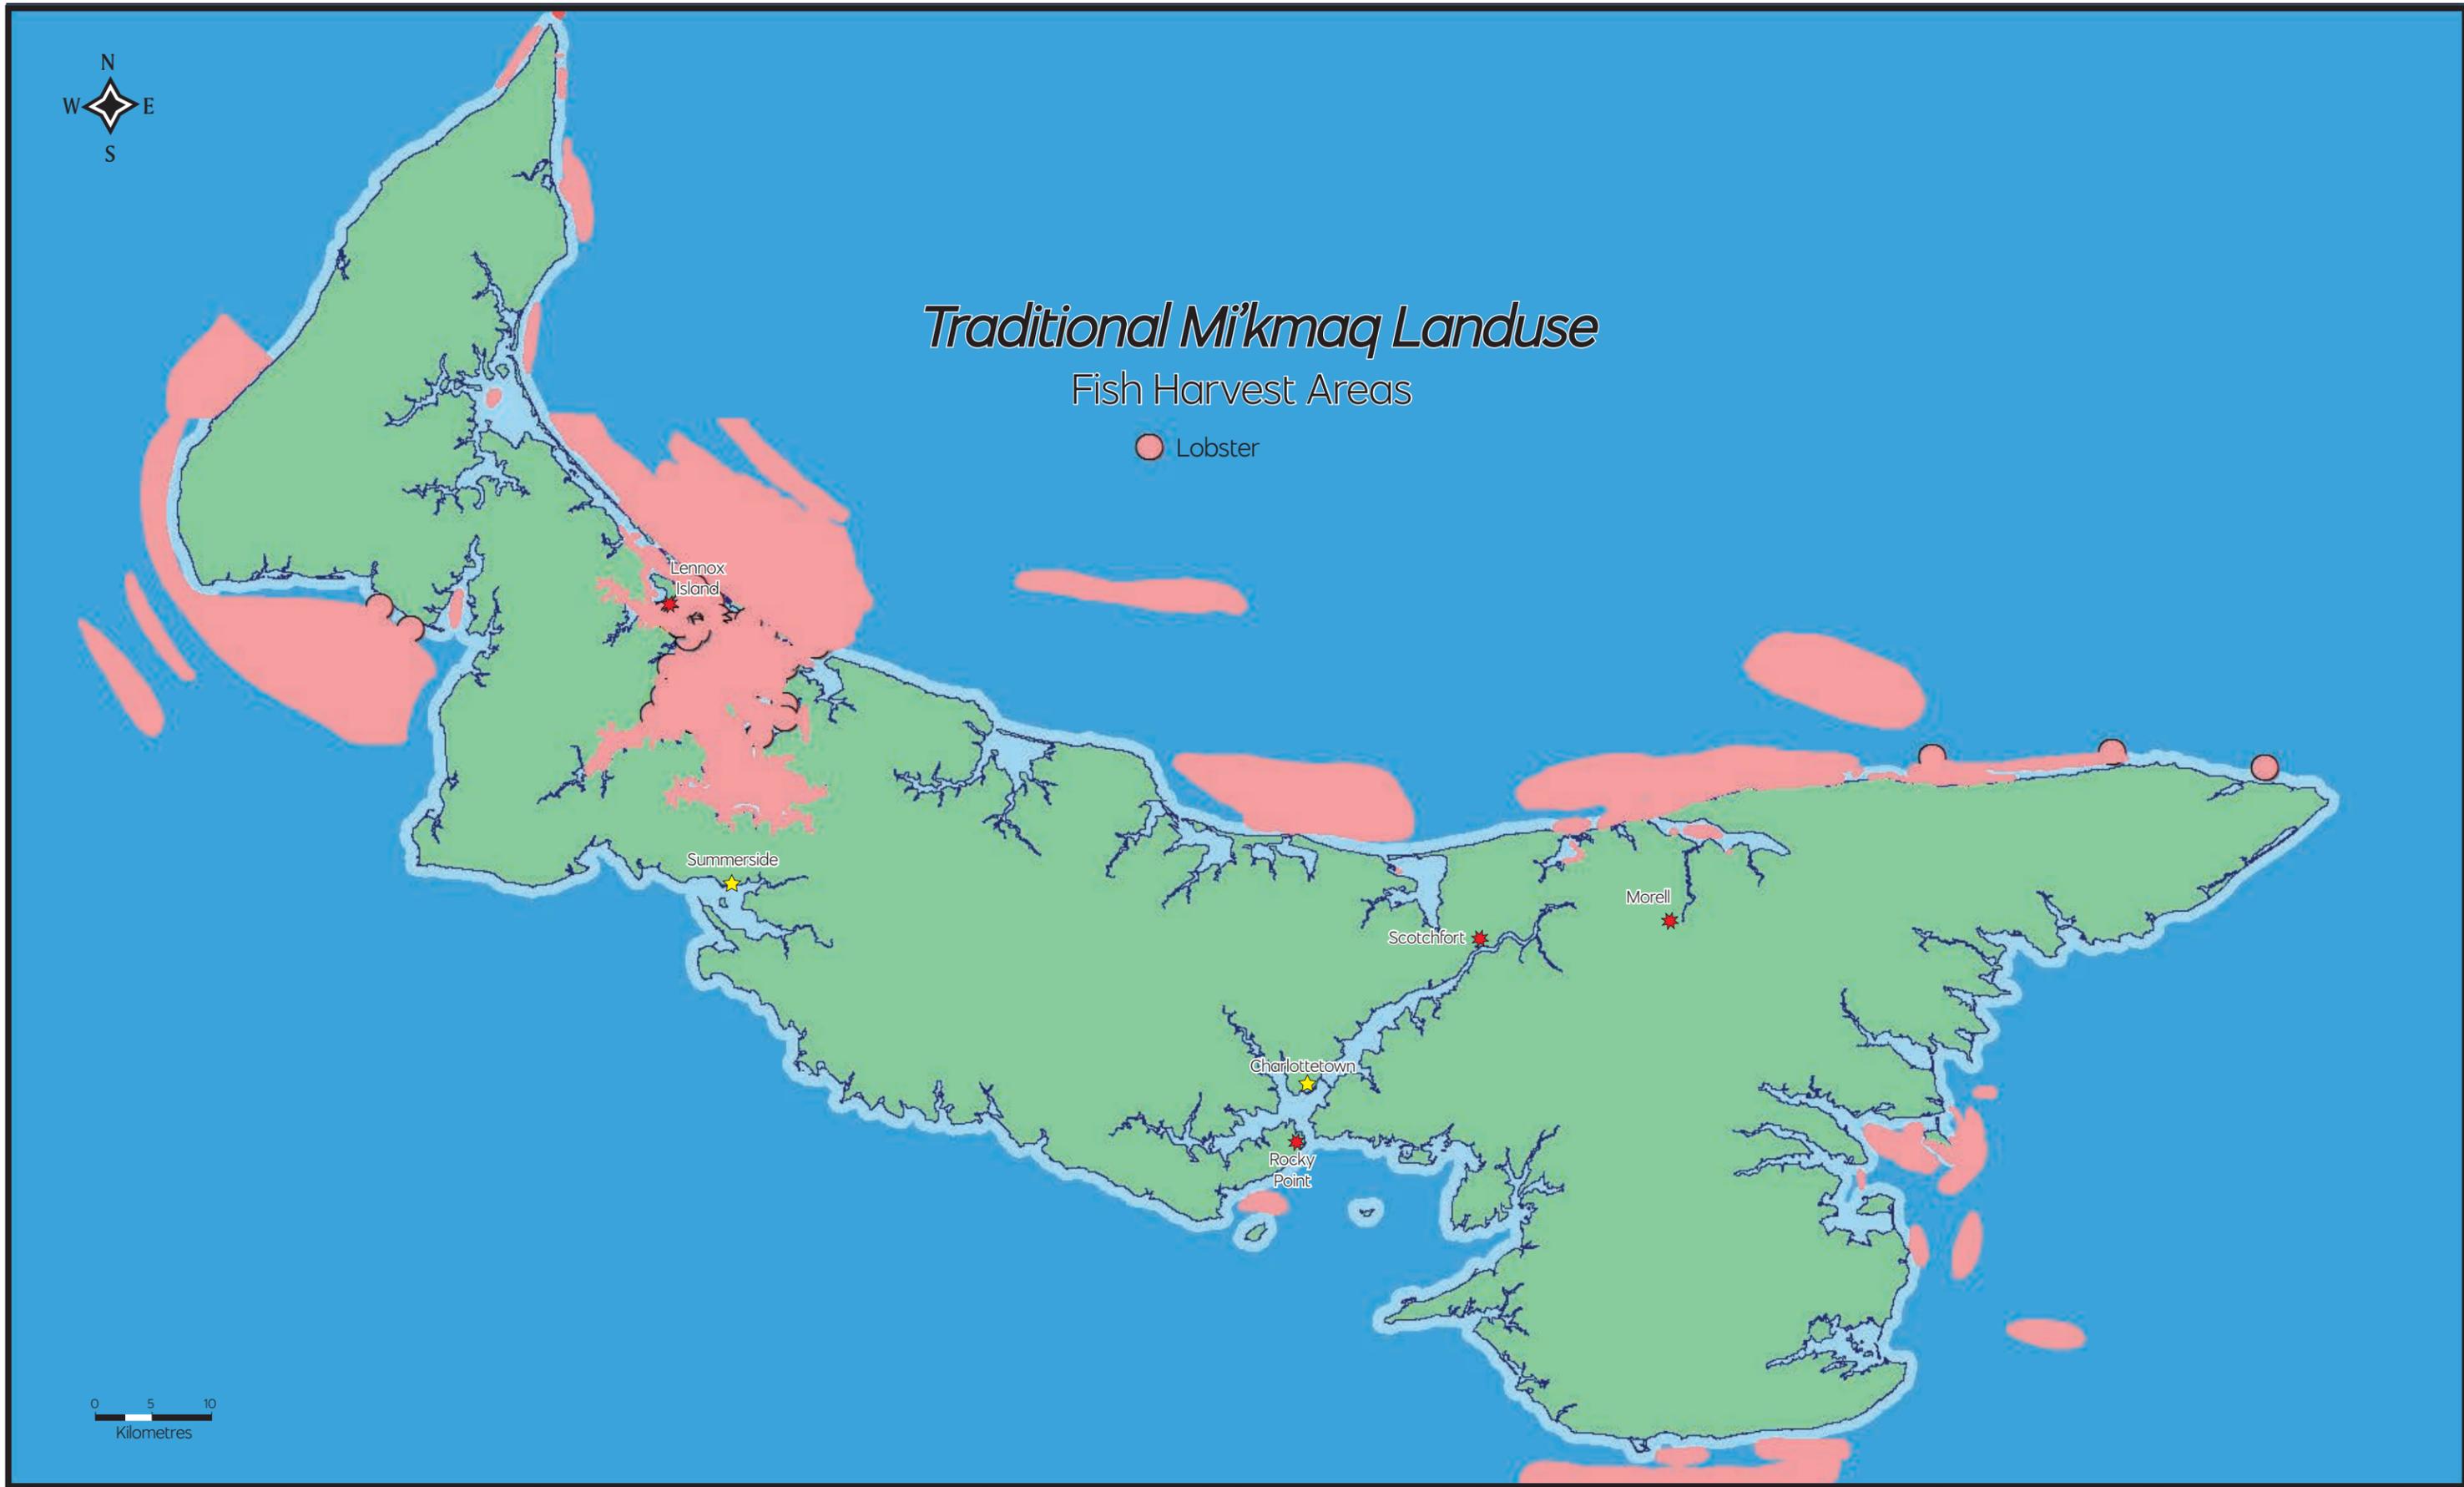

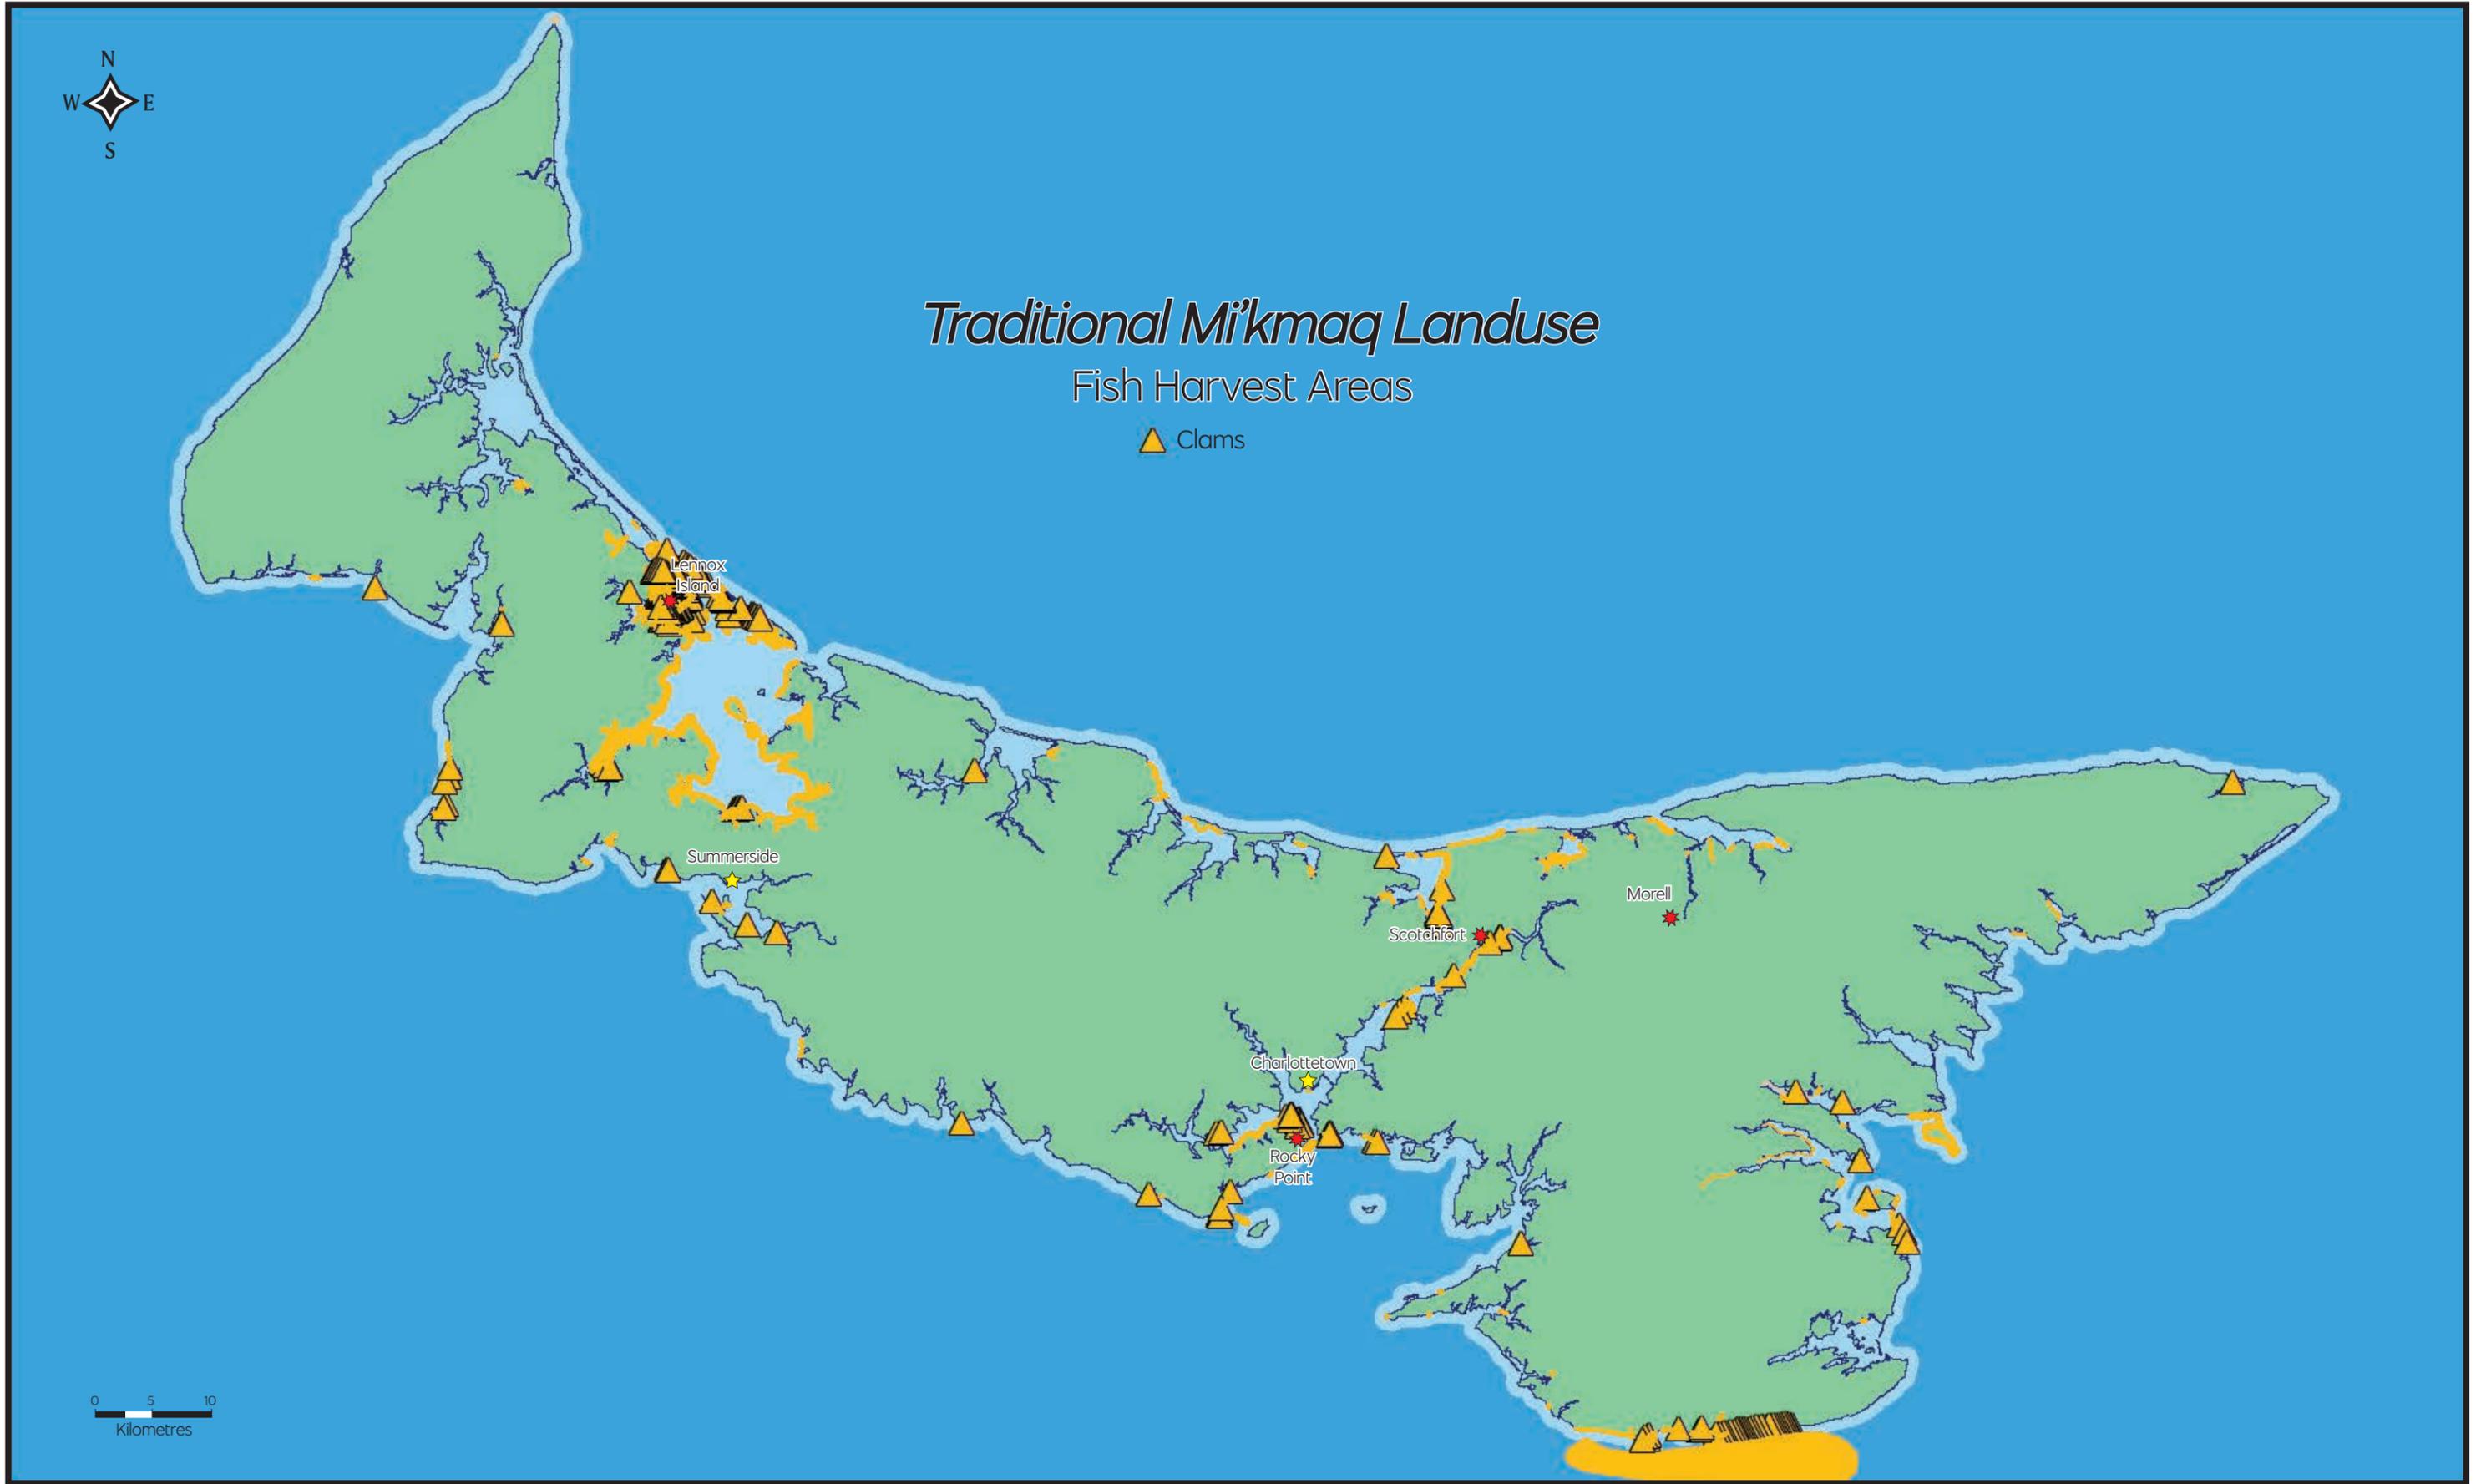

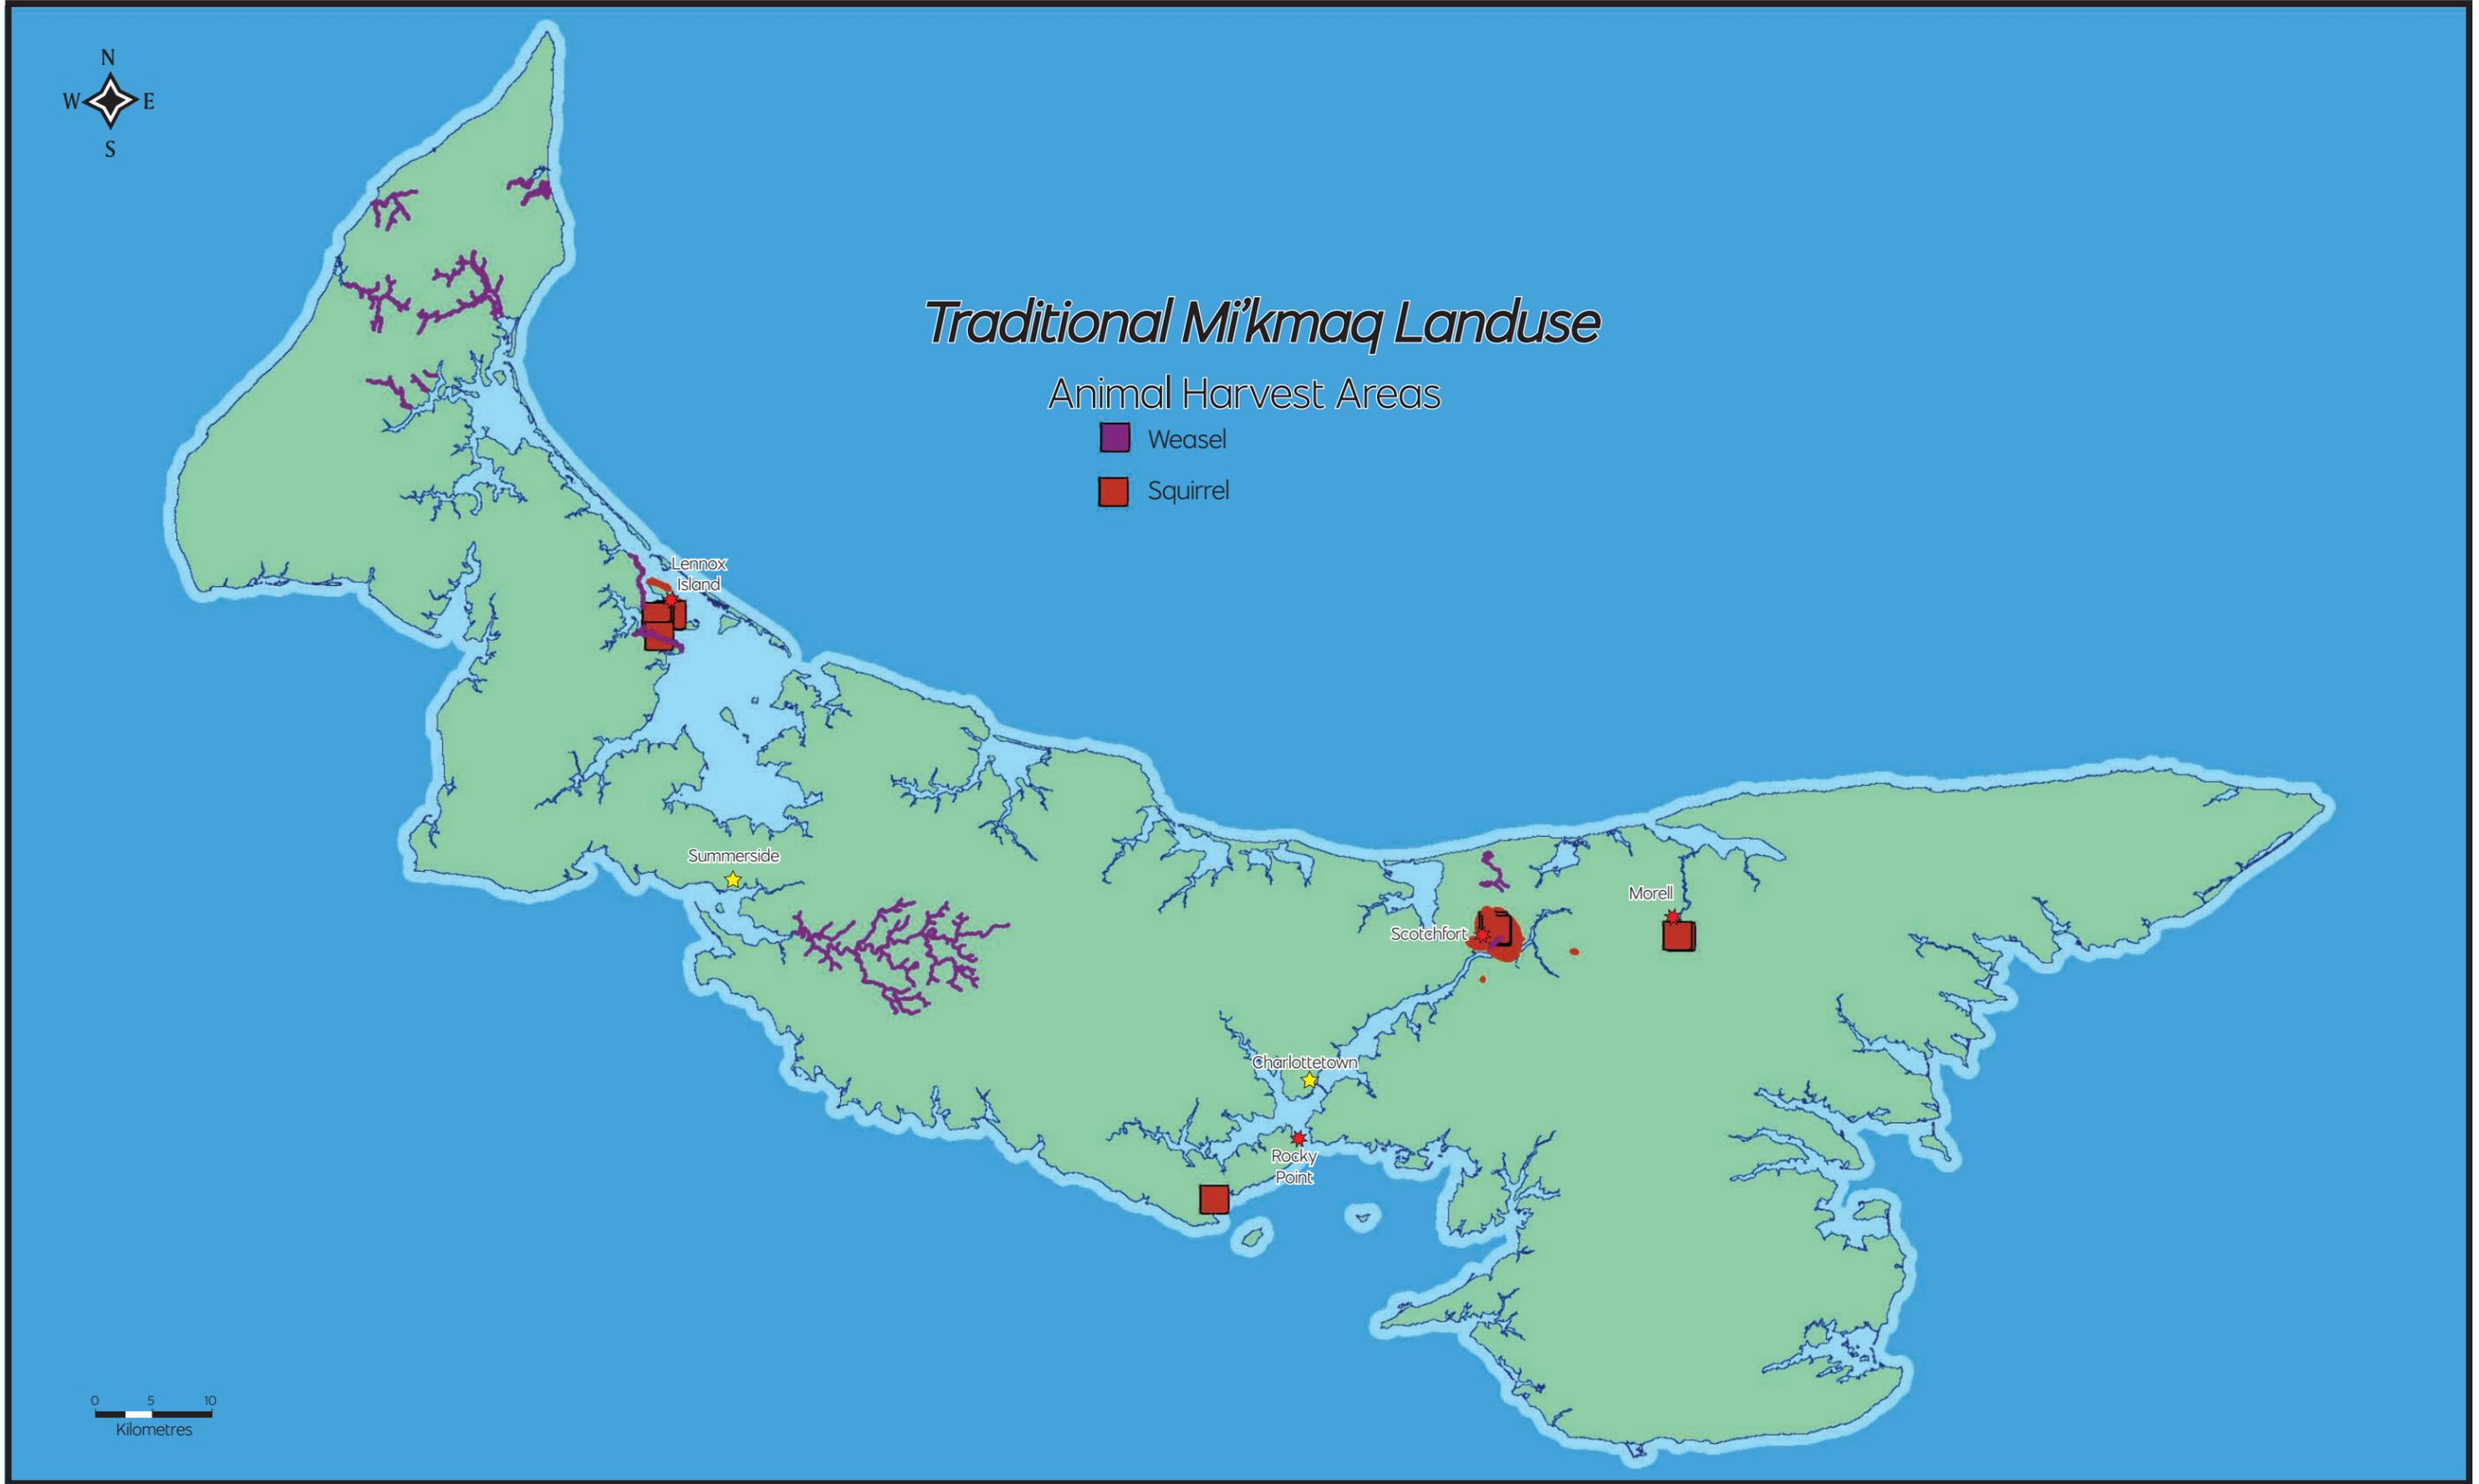

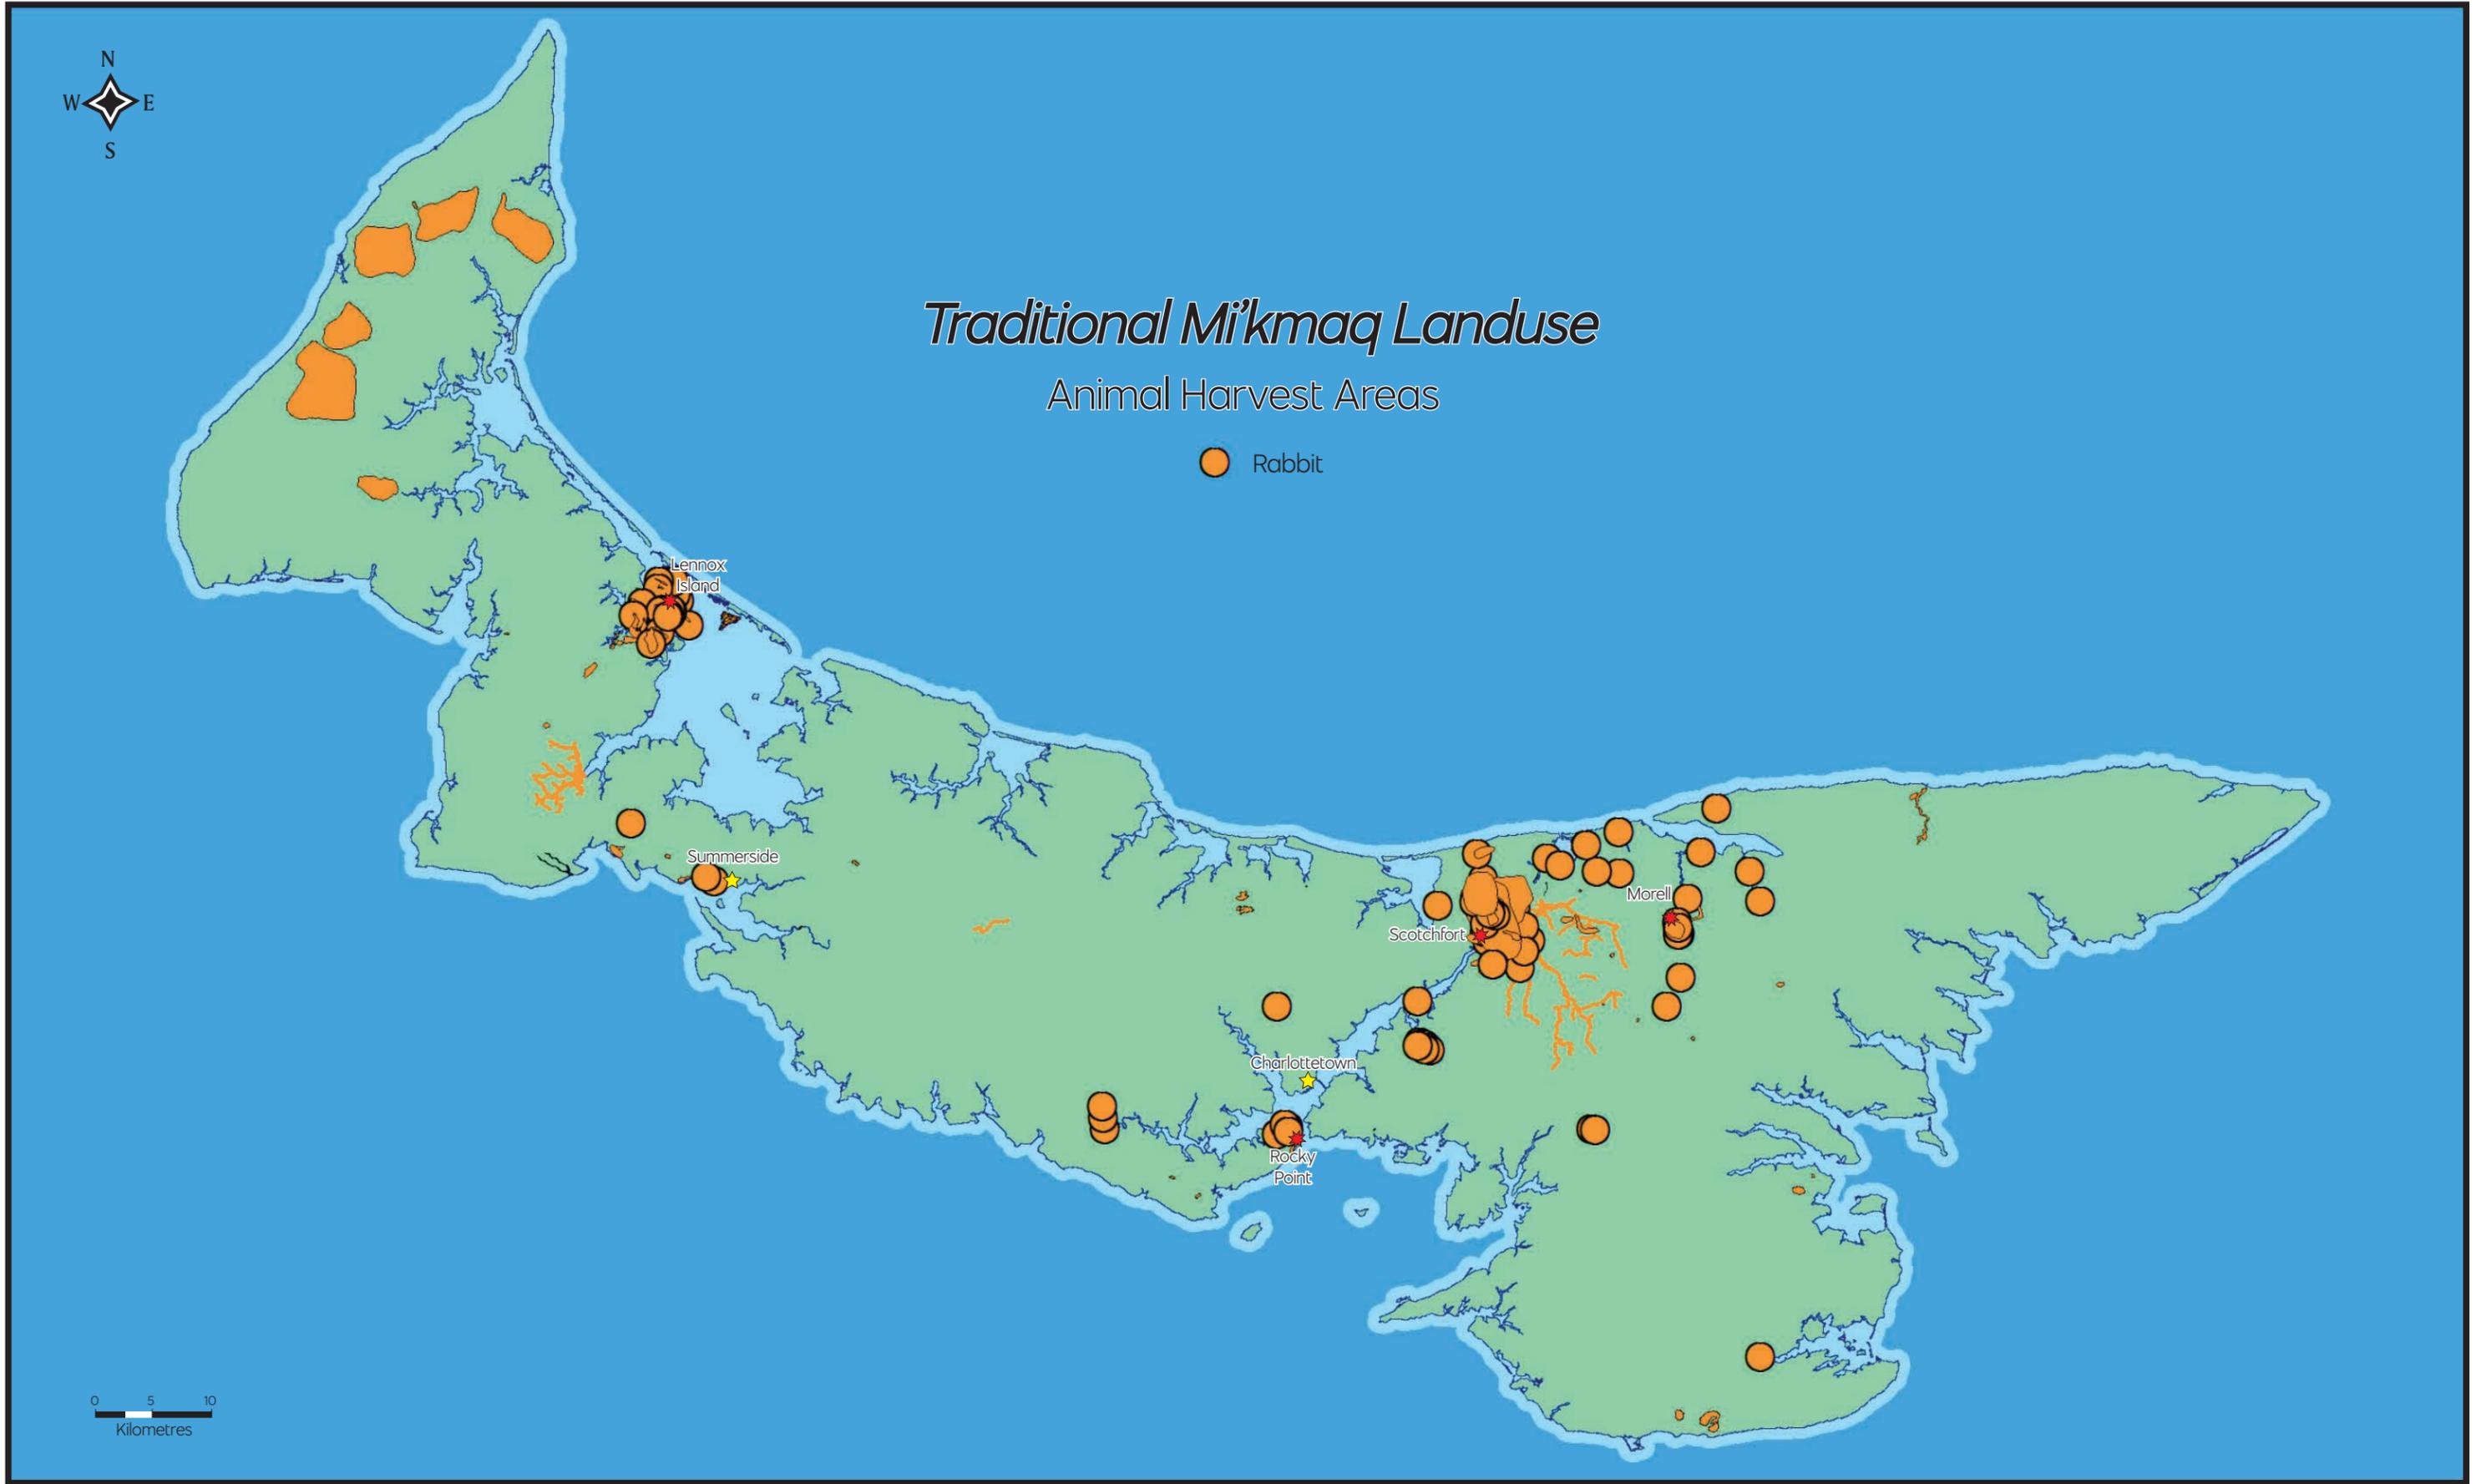

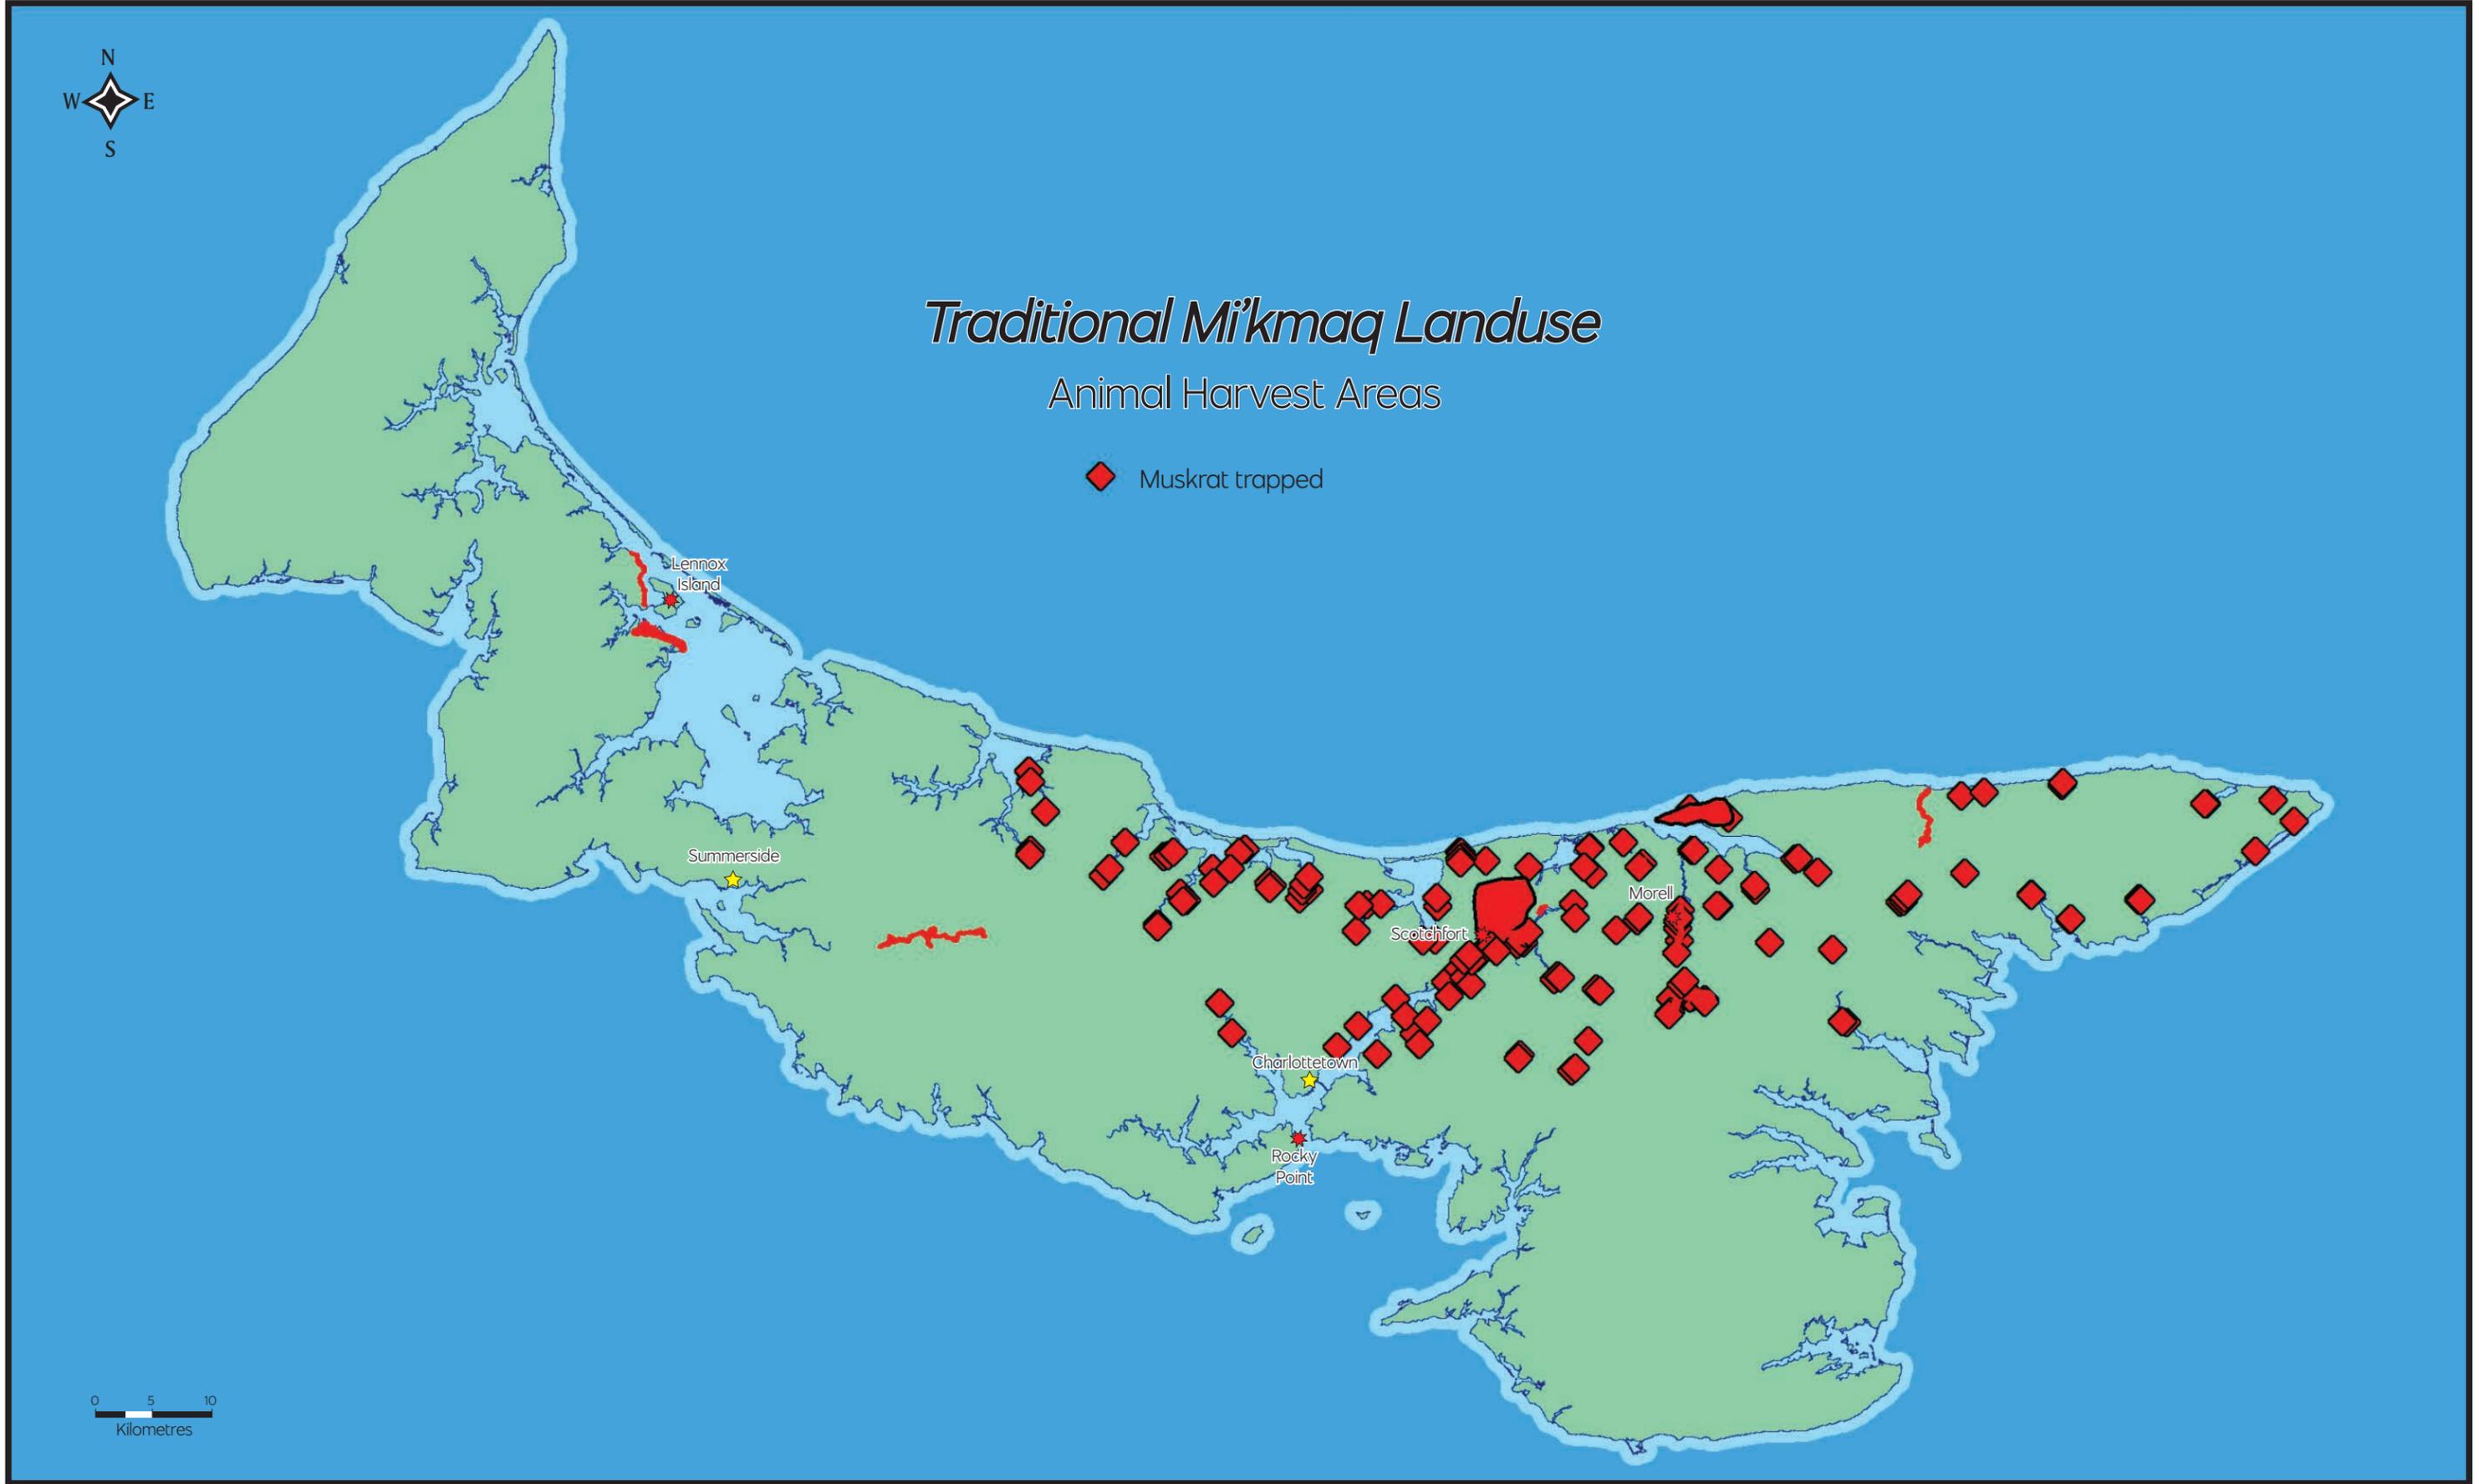

Animal Harvest

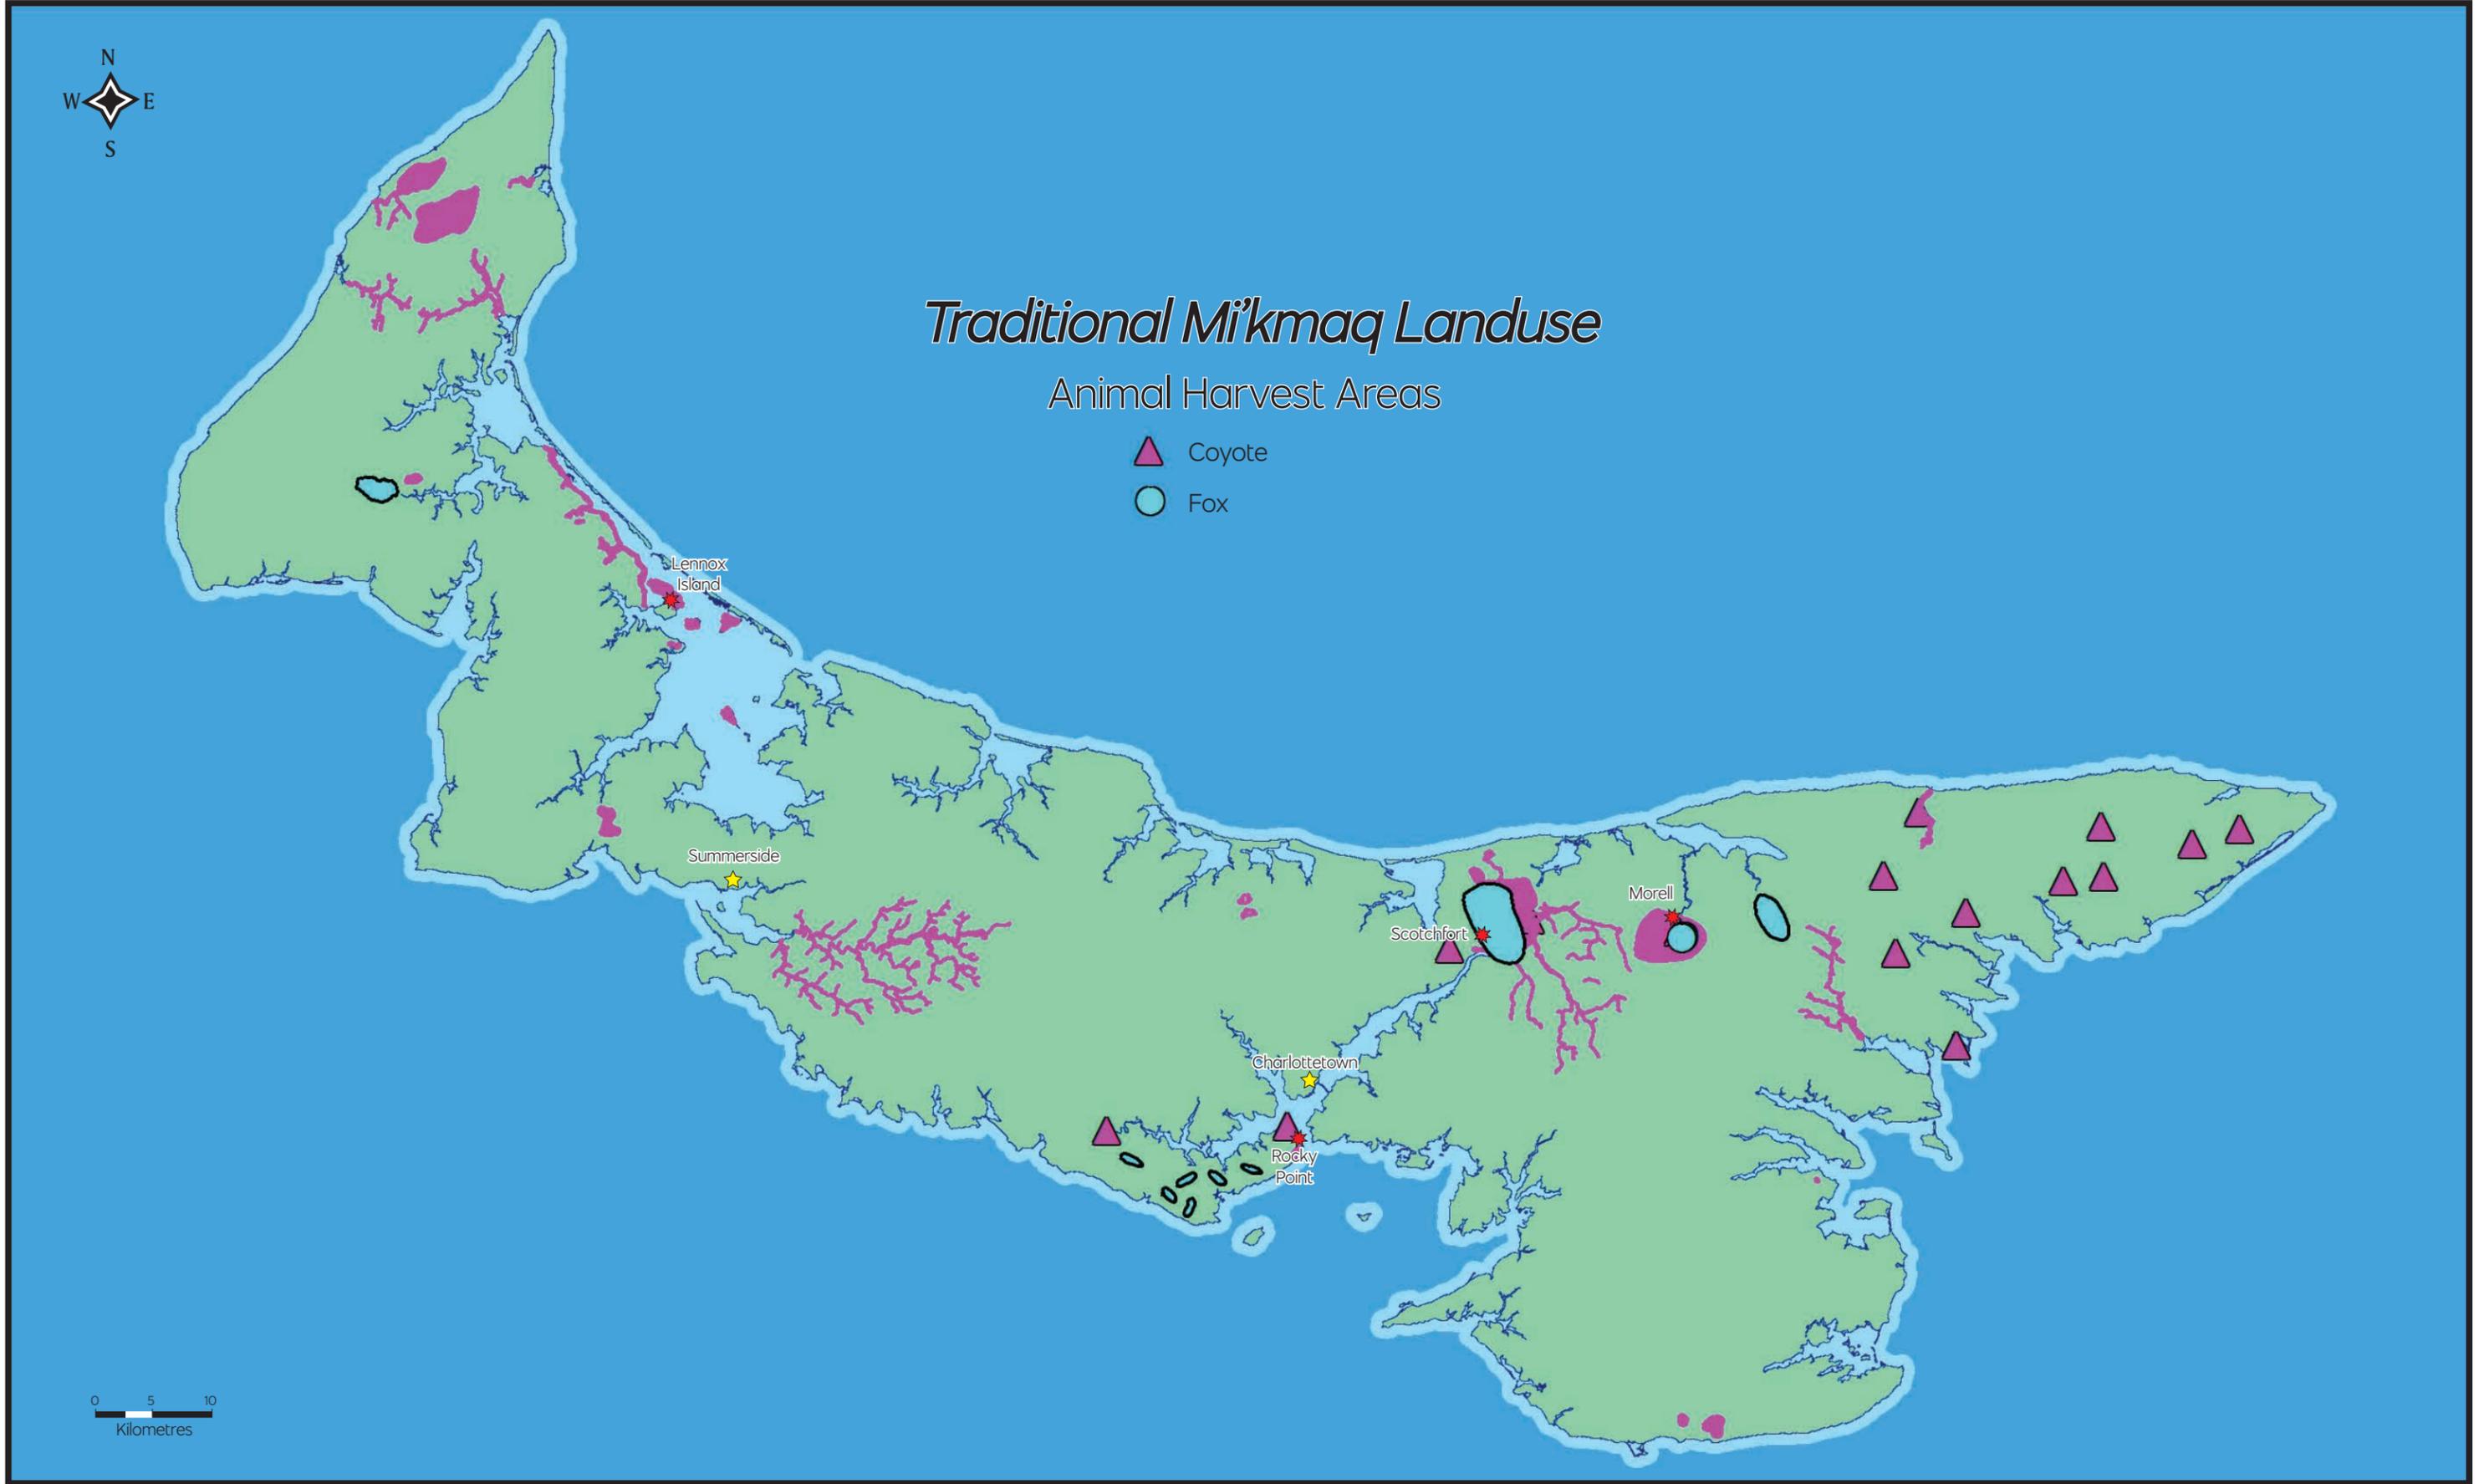

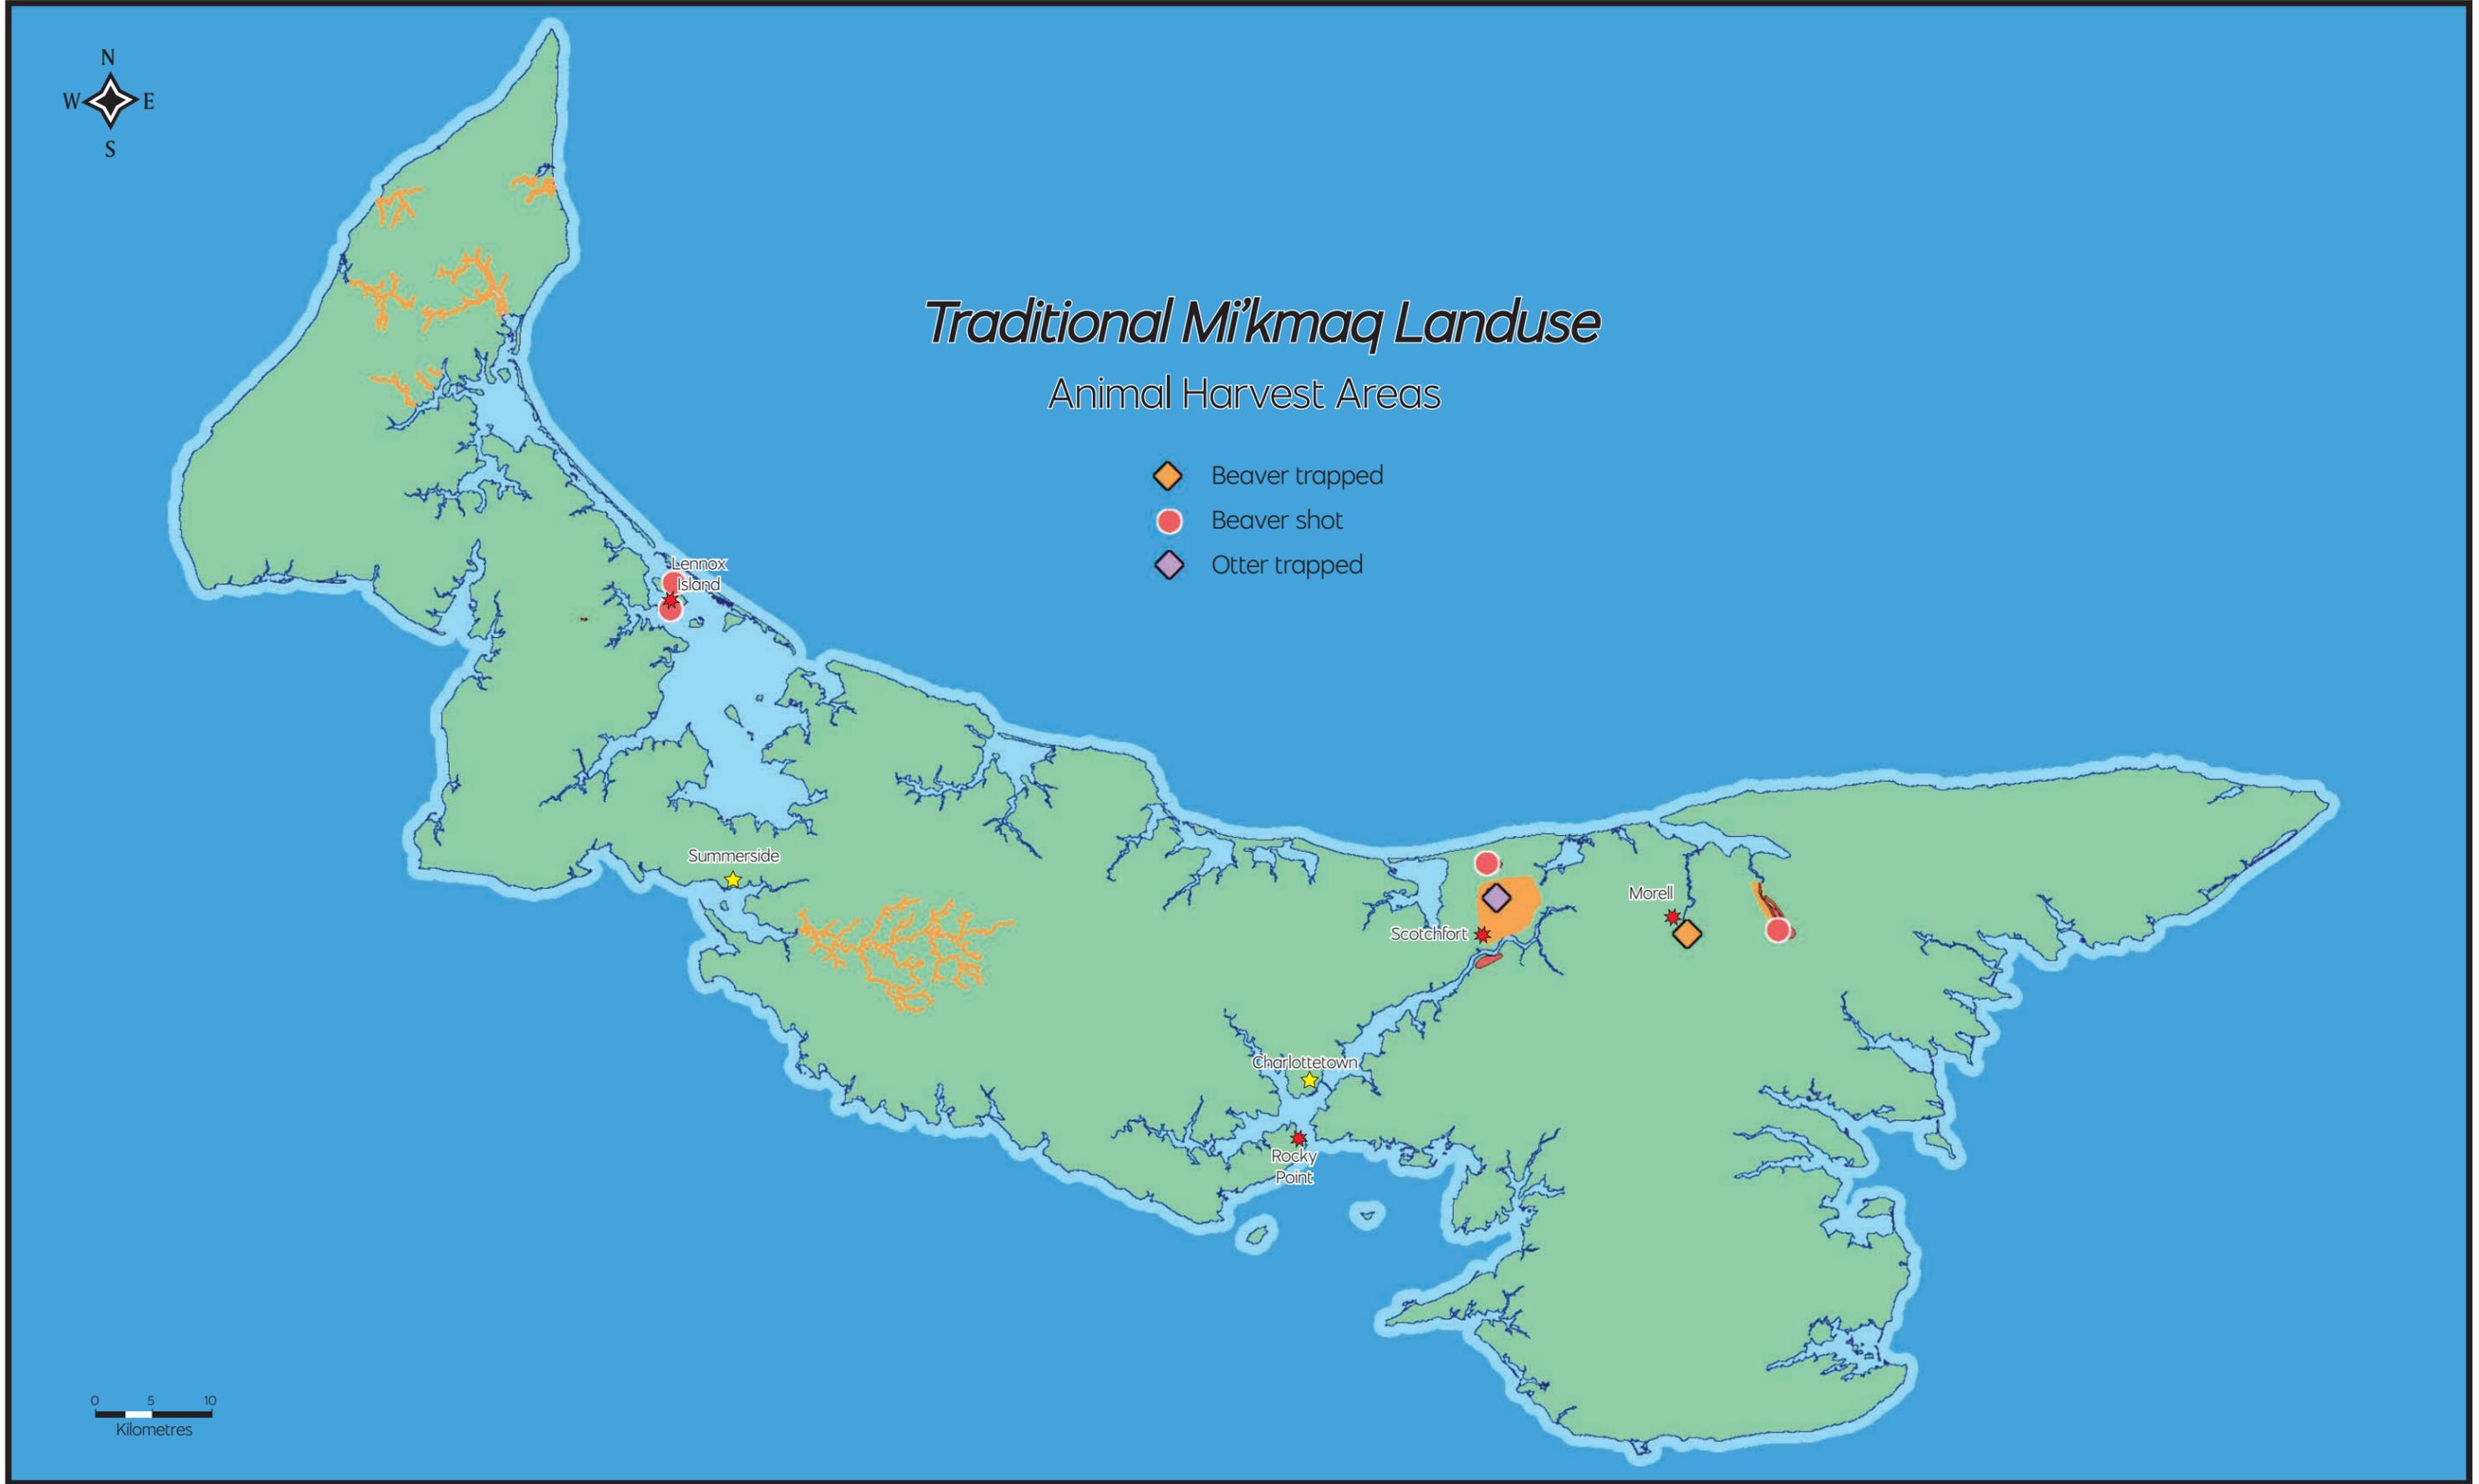

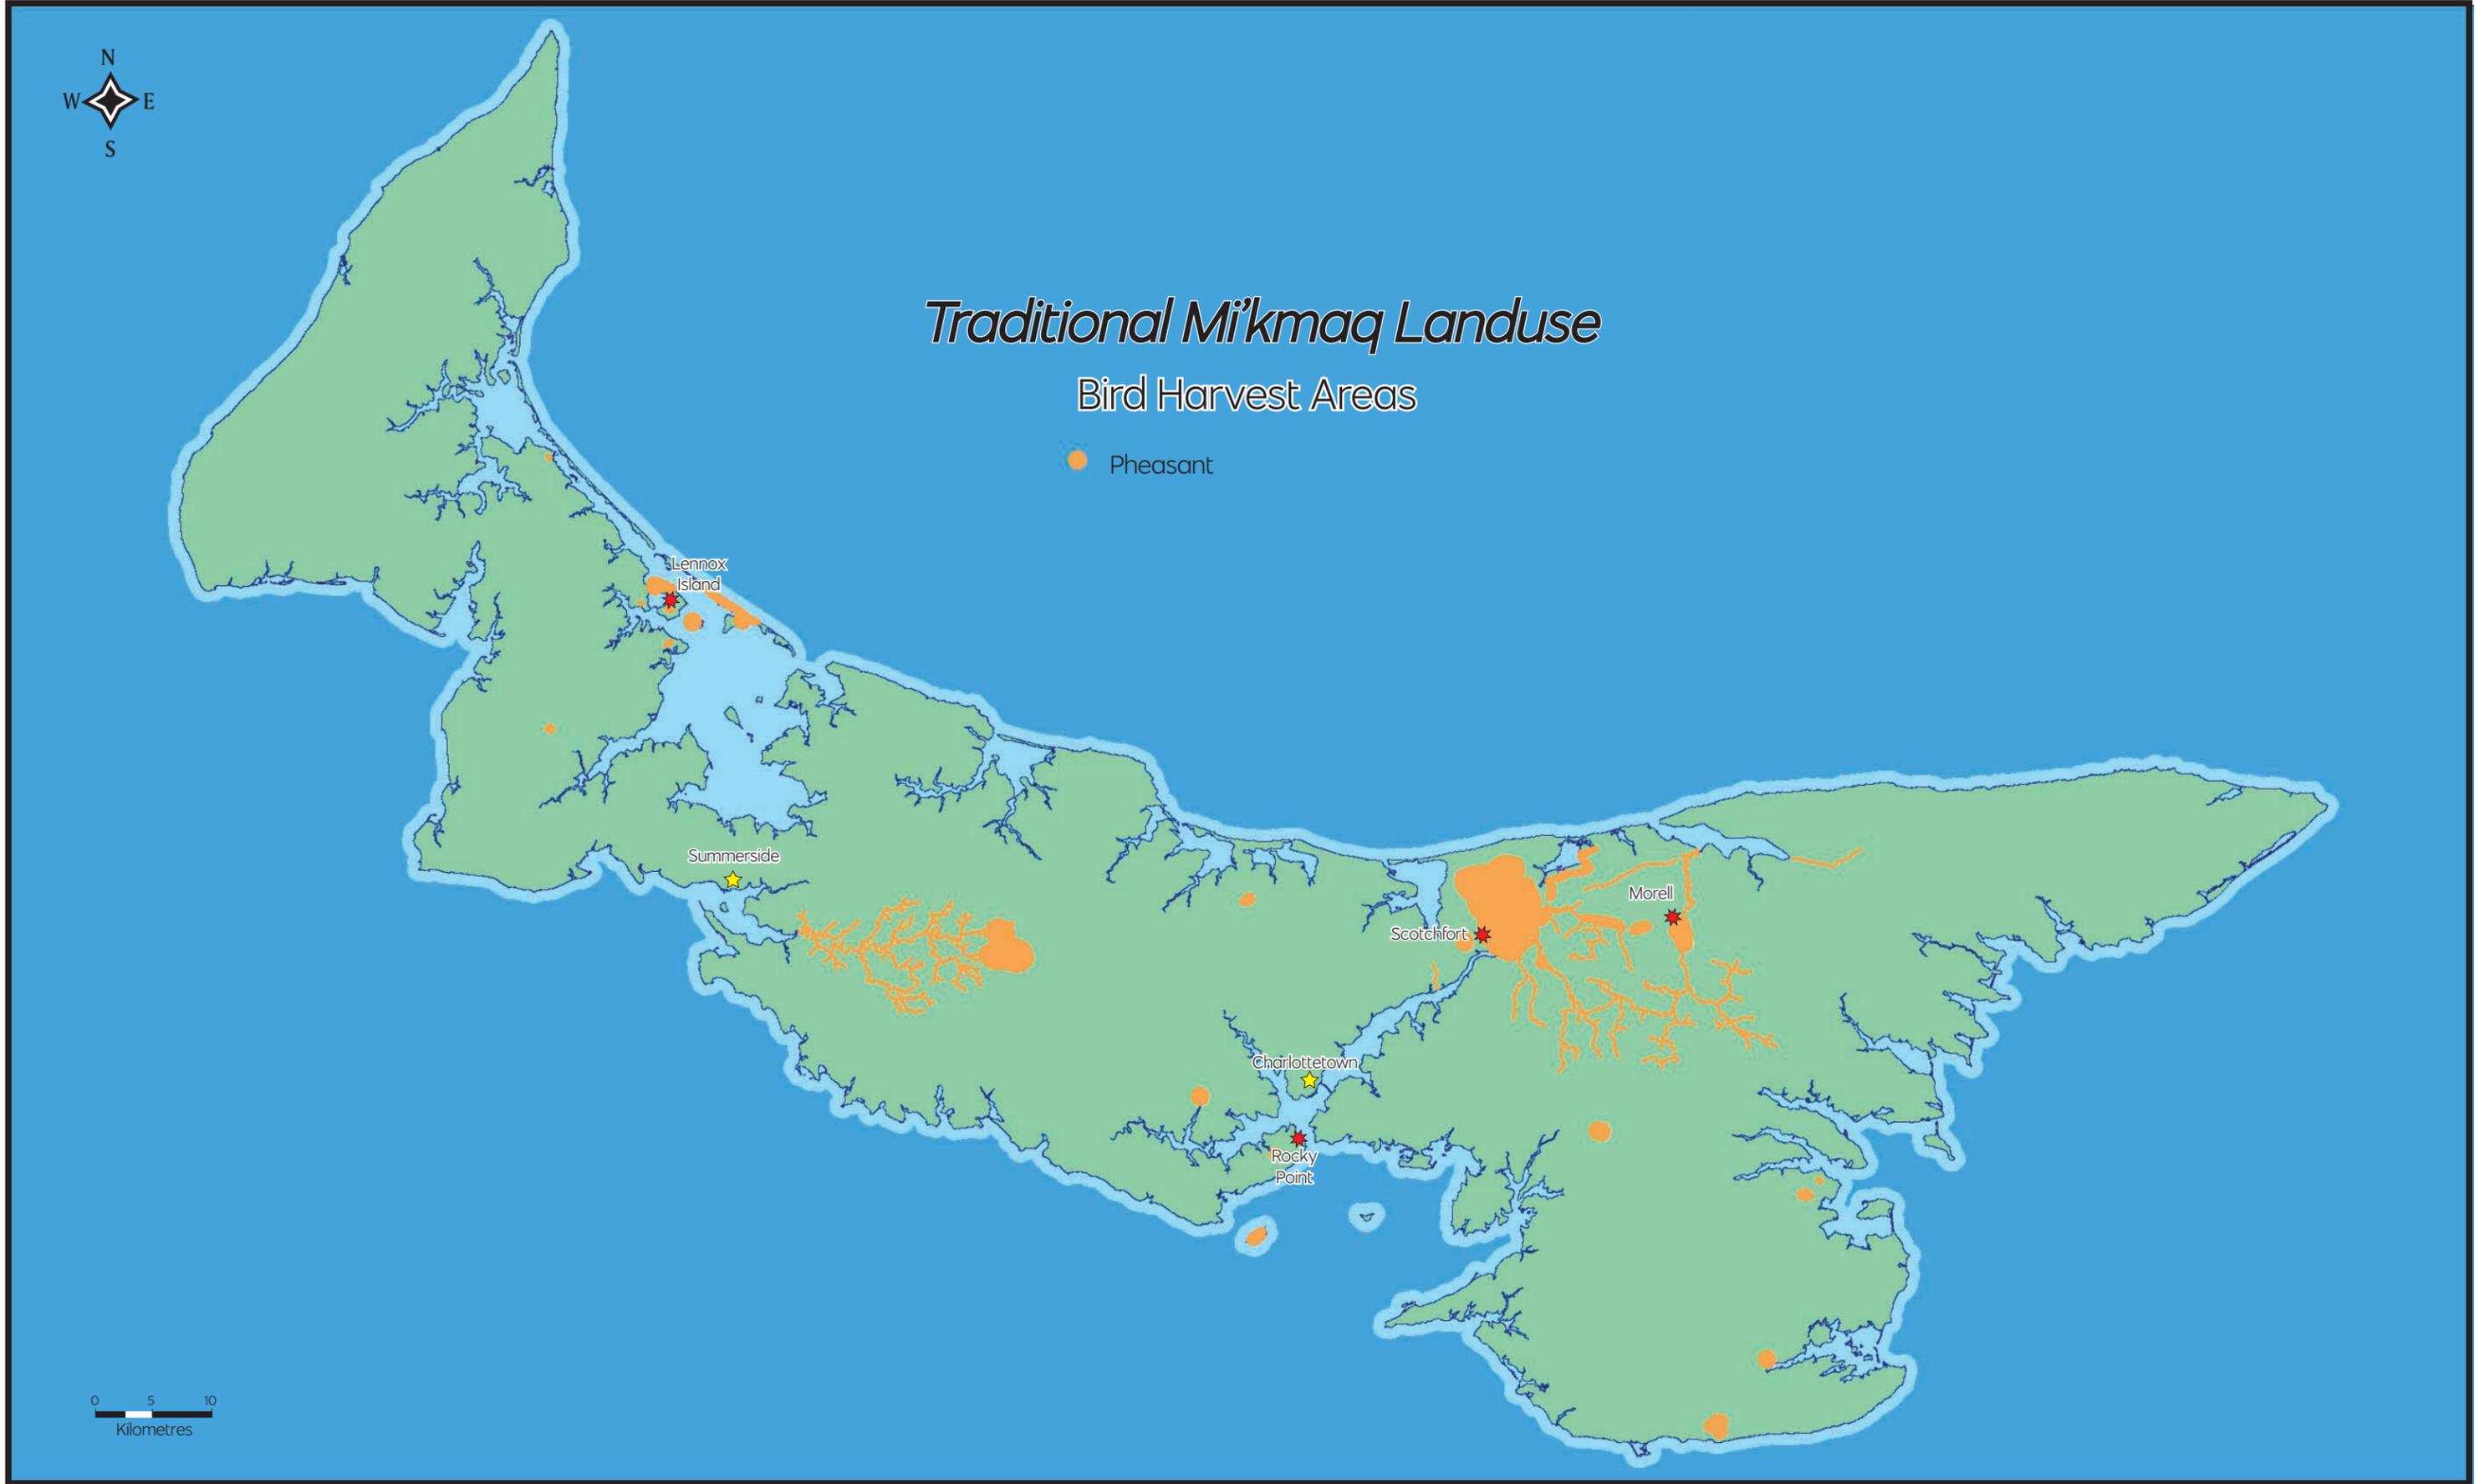

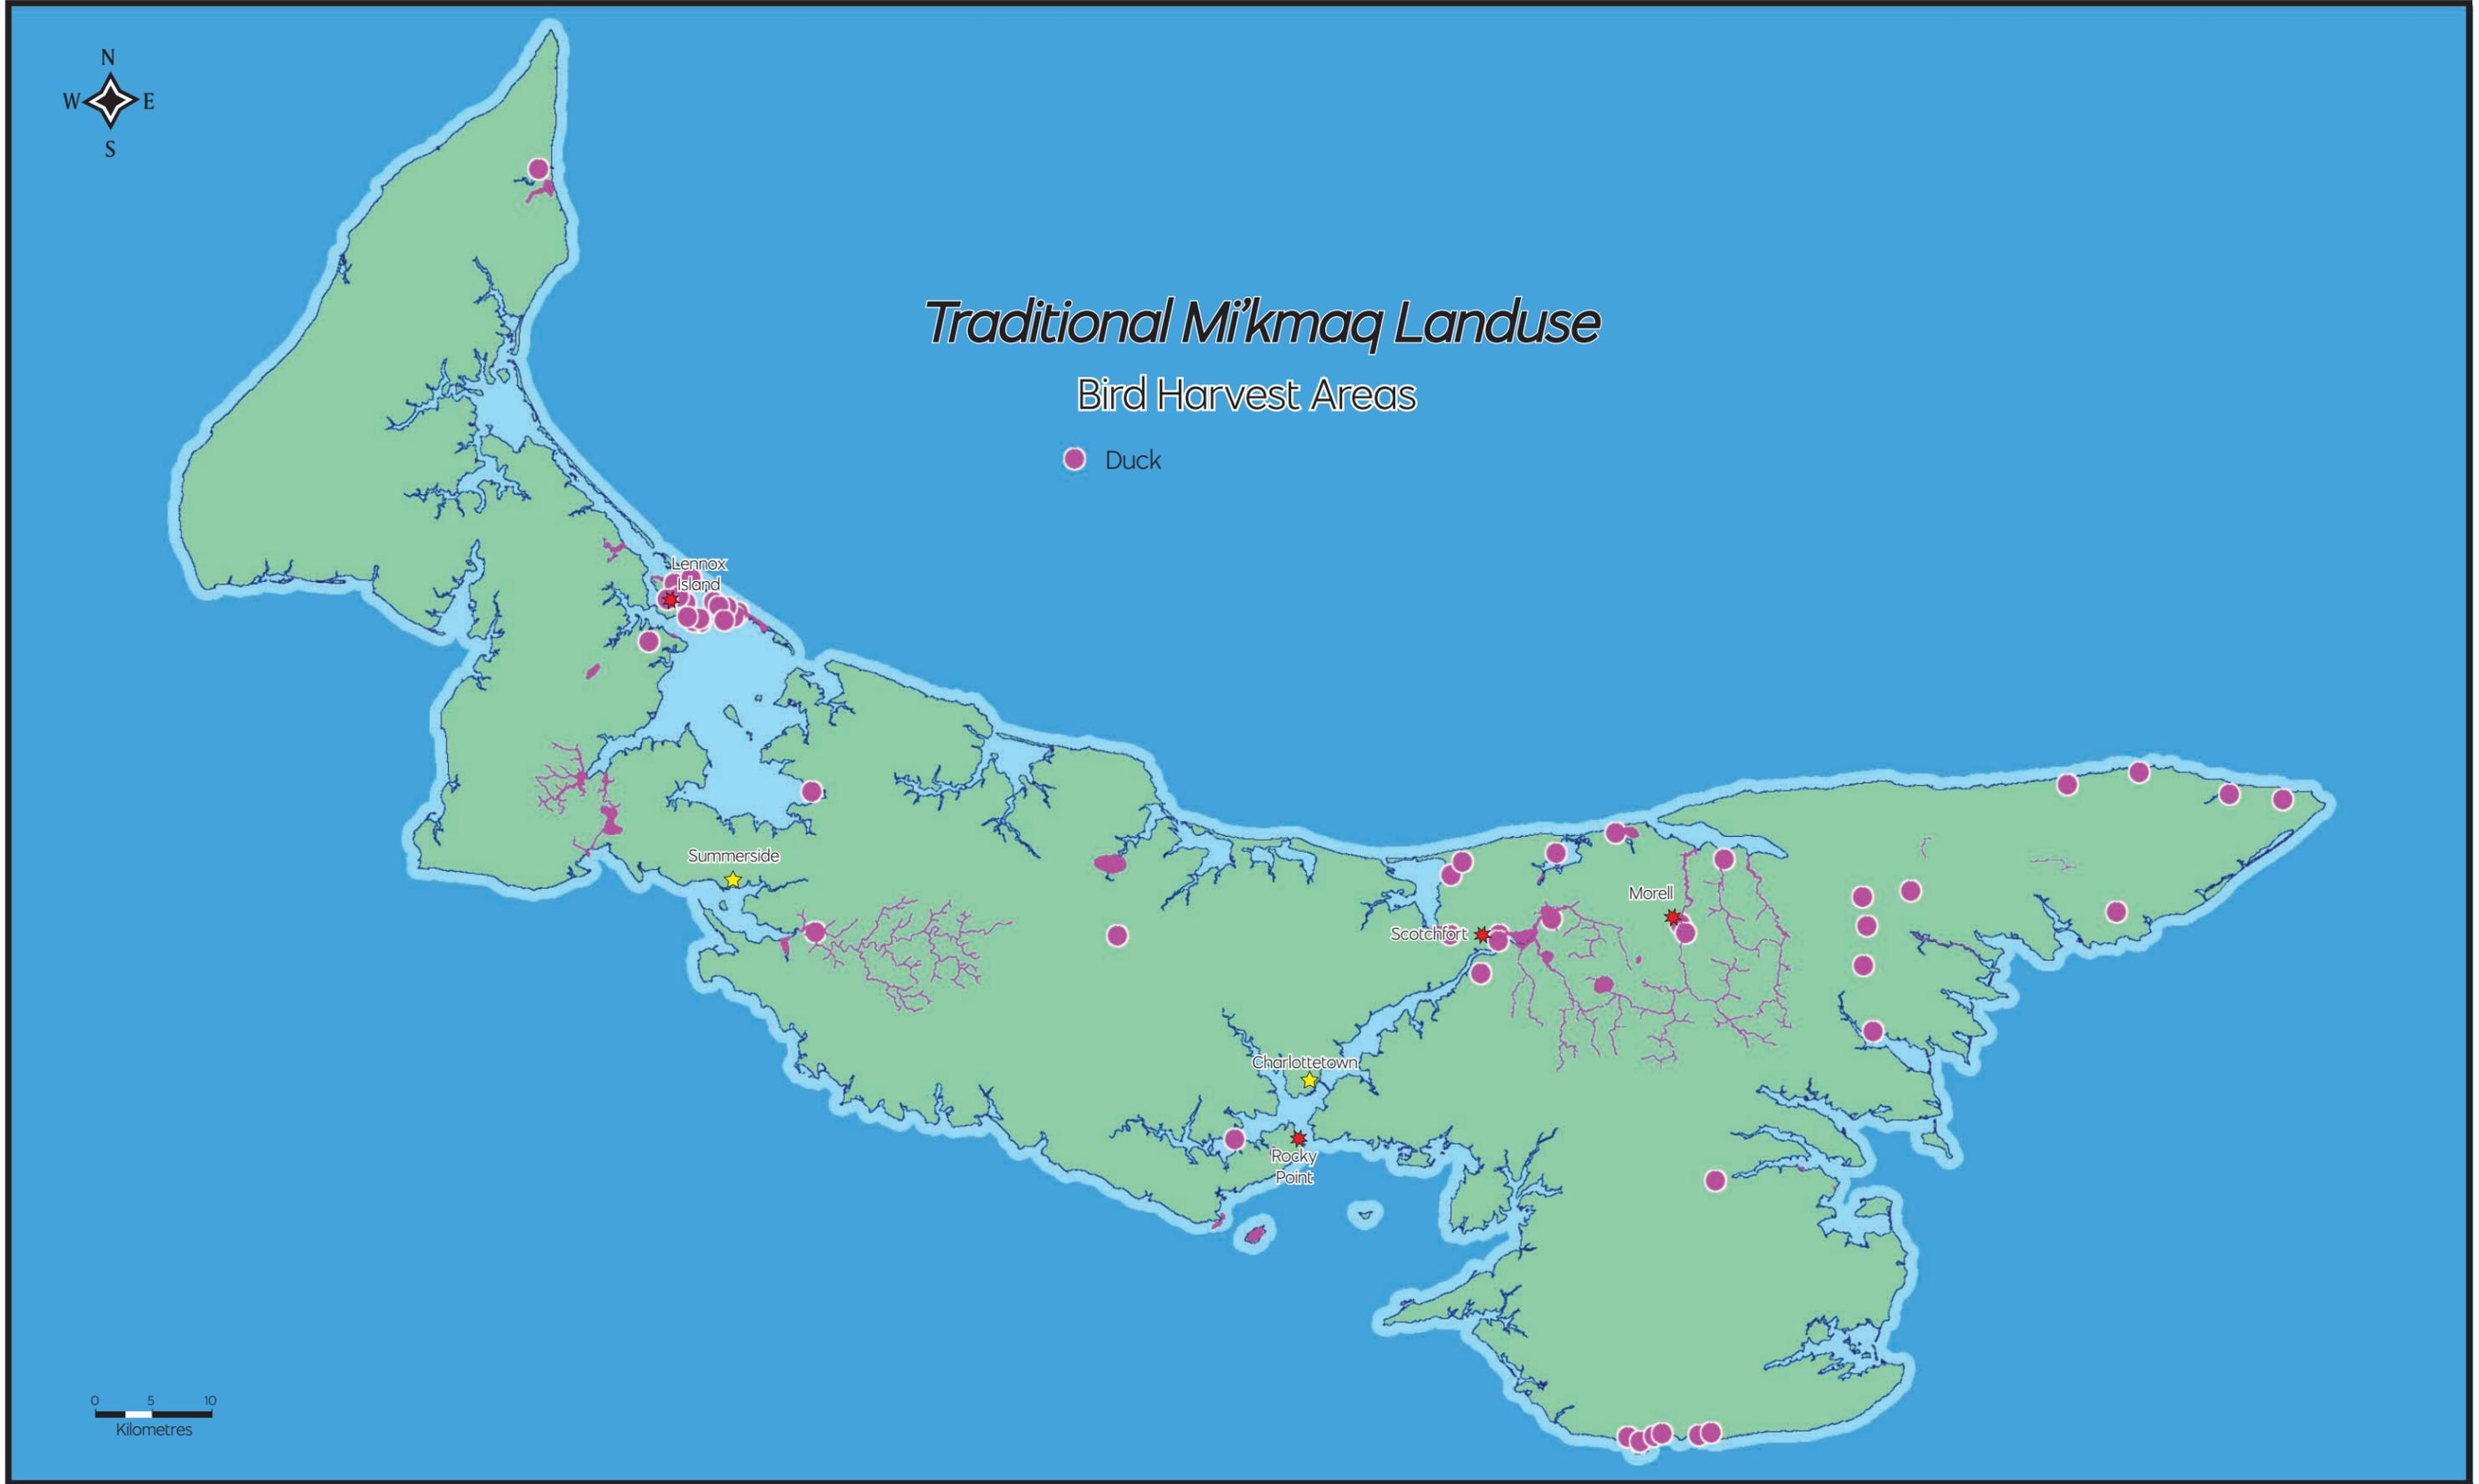

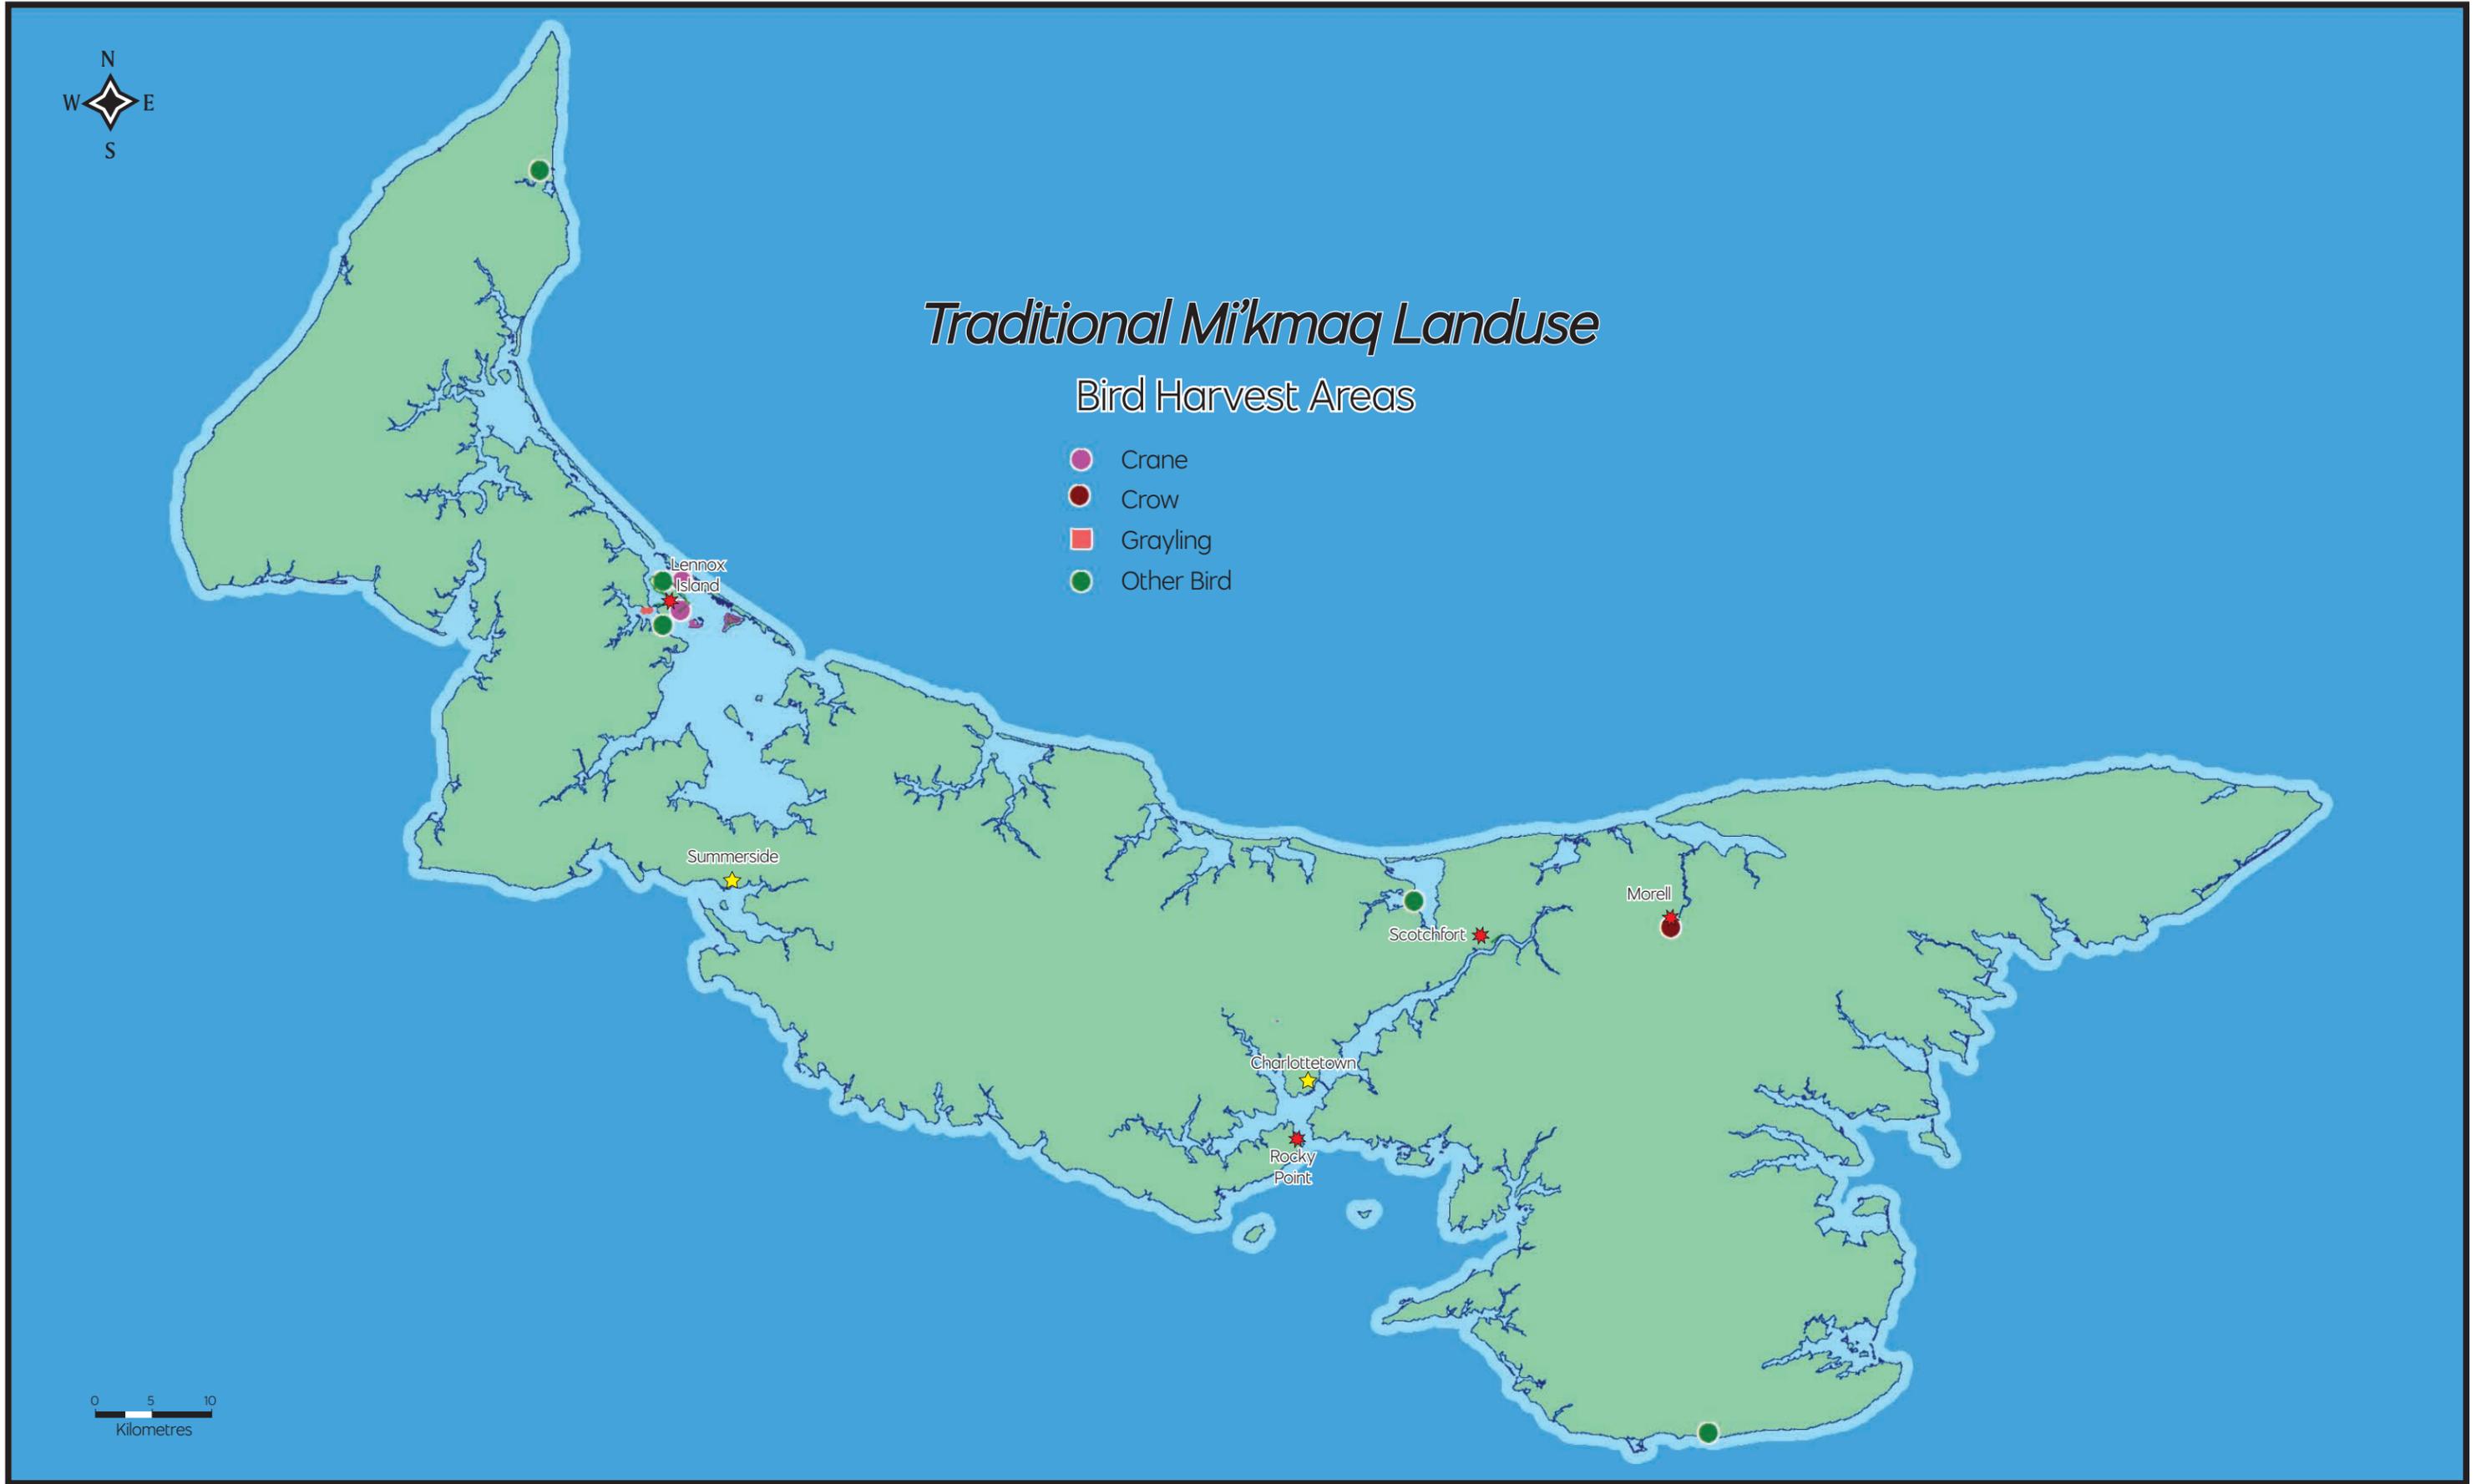

A black and white line-art map of Maryland is centered on the page. The map shows the state's outline, including its coastline and major water bodies like the Chesapeake Bay and the Potomac River. The map is enclosed within a thin black rectangular border. At the top and bottom of the page, there is a decorative border consisting of a repeating pattern of interlocking, stylized wave or scroll shapes.
